DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance relating to the Short Titles of Ordinances.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is desirable to facilitate the citation of Ordinances by reference to the number as well as the subject of the Ordinances: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Short Titles (Numeration) Ordinance, No. of 1912."

Power of Clerk to insert number of Ordinance in short title.

2 It shall be lawful for the Clerk to the Legislative Council to insert in the short title to any Ordinance, at the time of the presentation of the Ordinance for the approval of the Governor, or in the case of Ordinances reserved for the Royal consideration, upon the notification of His Majesty's pleasure, the serial number assigned to the Ordinance.

Power of Clerk in certain cases to correct year and short title.

3 In the event of an Ordinance reserved for the Royal consideration being passed in one year and approved by His Majesty in the next or any succeeding year, it shall be lawful for the Clerk to the Legislative Council, in addition to inserting the number of the Ordinance, to make any such modification of the date cited in the short title as may be necessary to adapt the short title to the circumstances of the case.

Short title so dealt with to be deemed to have been passed.

4 A short title supplemented or modified by the Clerk of the Legislative Council under this Ordinance shall be deemed to have been passed by the Legislative Council in the form so supplemented or modified.

Retrospective effect of Ordinance.

5 This Ordinance shall be deemed to take effect as from the commencement of the present Session.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 24, 1912.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to give formal legislative sanction to the practice adopted during the present Session, by virtue of which the number of each Ordinance has been included in its "short title," being inserted by the Clerk before presentation to the Governor's signature.

2. The reason for the adoption of the practice in question is that, inasmuch as the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon are not published in separately indexed annual parts, but are published with continuous paging, the absence of the serial number of the Ordinance from the short title makes it more difficult to find the Ordinance cited by its short title than if it is cited simply by reference to its number and year, while if it is cited in the latter manner such a citation gives no conception of the nature of the Ordinance. If the short title contains both the subject and the serial number, the person reading the citation knows at once the nature of the Ordinance, and where it is to be found.

3. As in certain cases an Ordinance may, if reserved for the Royal Consideration, be approved in a year subsequent to that in which it was passed, it is desirable that the Clerk should be empowered to make the necessary correction in the date mentioned in the short title. At present it is declared by the Governor's Instructions that when an Ordinance so reserved receives the Royal Assent in a year subsequent to that in which it is passed, it must be numbered as of the year in which it received the Royal Assent. There is, however, no power to alter the short title as passed so as to harmonize it with this Instruction. This anomaly the present Ordinance will incidentally rectify.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to provide for the Dangers arising from the Navigation of Aircraft.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the dangers arising from the navigation of aircraft: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. . . . of 1912."

Power to prohibit navigation of aircraft over prescribed areas.

2 (1) The Governor in Executive Council may by order notified in the "Government Gazette" from time to time prohibit the navigation of aircraft over such areas as may be prescribed in the order, and if any person navigates an aircraft over any such area in contravention of any such order, he shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance.

(2) Any such order may apply either generally to all aircraft or to aircraft of such classes and descriptions only as may be specified in the order, and may prohibit the navigation of aircraft over any such prescribed area either at all times or at such times or on such occasions only as may be specified in the order, and either absolutely or subject to such exceptions or conditions as may be so specified.

Trial and punishment of offences.

3 (1) If any person is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both.

(2) In any case in which any person is charged with an offence against this Ordinance, the Magistrate may make an order for the detention of the aircraft pending the trial.

Confiscation of aircraft.

4 (1) If in the case of any offence under this Ordinance the Magistrate is satisfied that there is reasonable ground to suspect that the aircraft was used in contravention of this Ordinance for a purpose prejudicial to the interests of the State, the burden of proof that the aircraft was not used for such purpose shall be upon the person charged.

(2) If it is proved that the aircraft was used for such purpose, or if the person charged fails to discharge the said burden of proof, the Magistrate may make an order for the confiscation of the aircraft.

Appeals.

5 An appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court against any conviction or order under this Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 12, 1912.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is modelled upon the Imperial "Aerial Navigation Act, 1911," which was passed at the time of the Coronation of His Majesty the King.

2. That Act was directed solely to the protection of the public, but it has been thought desirable, in applying its principles to Ceylon, to provide also against the dangers to the State which might arise through the use of aircraft with a view to observing military works.

3. This Ordinance is not therefore limited to the purpose which was declared to be the purpose of the Imperial Act, and a special section (4) is inserted, which in suspicious cases casts on the person charged the burden of proving that the aircraft was not used for a purpose prejudicial to the interests of the State, and allows the Magistrate to make an order for the confiscation of the aircraft.

4. It is also provided by section 3 (2), with a view to preventing a foreigner decamping with his aircraft before trial, that a Magistrate may make an interim order for the detention of the aircraft.
