PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 12 of 1912.

An Ordinance to amend "The Volunteer Ordinance, 1910."

HENRY MCCALLUM.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Volunteer Ordinance, 1910": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Volunteer Amendment Ordinance, No. 12 of 1912," and shall be read as one with "The Volunteer Ordinance, 1910," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance."

Verbal amendment of section 9.

2 In section 9 of the principal Ordinance the words "courses of instruction" shall be substituted for the words "course of instructions."

Amendment of powers of Governor with reference to decision of court of inquiry.

3 The following sub-section shall be substituted for sub-section (3) of section 11 of the principal Ordinance:

Verbal amendment of section 18.

The Governor may call for a report of any court of inquiry, and may take such action thereon as he may deem fit.

4 In section 18 (1) of the principal Ordinance the expression "such cause" shall be substituted for the expression "such causes respectively."

New section 19.

5 The following section shall be substituted for section 19 of the principal Ordinance :

Discipline of volunteers when undergoing drill, &c., with regular forces.

19. (1) With respect to the discipline of officers and volunteers when they are undergoing drill, exercise, training, or inspection, or voluntarily doing any other duty in conjunction with any part of His Majesty's Regular Forces, other than officers or non-commissioned officers permanently or temporarily attached to the staff of the Volunteer Force, the following provisions shall take effect :

The Army Act and any other Act for the time being amending the same shall, in so far as the same are applicable to officers and volunteers respectively and are consistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, apply to all officers and volunteers, with the following modifications only :

- (a) That no officer or volunteer shall for any offence against such Act or Acts be subjected to the penalty of death.
- (b) That no sentence of a court martial assembled in Ceylon for the trial of any officer or volunteer shall be carried into execution unless confirmed by the Governor.

Discipline of volunteers when on active service with regular forces.

(2) Where any force of volunteers or any other force raised in the Colony is on active service with part of His Majesty's Regular Forces, whether within or without the limits of the Colony, the Army Act and any Act for the time being amending the same shall apply to the officers and volunteers of such force in like manner as they apply to the officers and men of the Regular Forces.

Verbal amendment of section 26.

6 In sub-section (4) of section 26 of the principal Ordinance the word "ammunition" shall be substituted for the word "ammunitions."

Passed in Council the Nineteenth day of August, One thousand Nine hundred and Twelve.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Thirtieth day of August, One thousand Nine hundred and Twelve.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 13 of 1912.

An Ordinance to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909."

HENRY McCALLUM.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), in certain particulars: Be it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Game Protection (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 13 of 1912."

Special provision for destruction or capture of elephants and tuskers when number excessive.

2 The following shall be added as a new section to the principal Ordinance :

7 A Whenever it shall appear to the Governor in Executive Council that in any district or area elephants or tuskers are so numerous as to be a menace to the safety of the inhabitants or of crops, plantations, or other property therein, or that for any other reason it is expedient that the number of such elephants or tuskers should be reduced, the Government Agent may grant special licenses, free of stamp duty, or subject to such duty as the Governor in Executive Council may deem fit to impose, to shoot at, kill, or capture elephants or tuskers on such terms, during such periods, and at such places as shall be specified in such licenses.

Enhancement of penalties.

3 In paragraph (6) of section 12 of the principal Ordinance the expression "two hundred rupees" shall be substituted for the expression "one hundred rupees," and the expression "six months" shall be substituted for the expression "three months."

Unlawful possession of tuskers.

4 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance and numbered 12 A :

(1) Any person in unlawful possession of a tusker shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months.

(2) A person shall be deemed to be in unlawful possession of a tusker, unless—

(a) He is the captor of such tusker under a license issued under this Ordinance ; or

(b) He is the successor in title to such captor ; or

(c) He is in possession on behalf of such captor, or his successor in title.

(3) In any proceedings for an offence under this section the onus of proving the lawfulness of the possession shall lie on the person accused.

Unlawful possession of game, &c.

5 Sub-section (3) of section 13 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, the following sub-section being re-numbered accordingly, and the following new section is hereby enacted in lieu thereof :

13 B Any person who is found in possession of any fresh meat of game, or any fresh hides or horns of game, or of any freshly taken skin, feathers, or eggs of any game bird, of which he shall not be able to give a satisfactory account, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or to both.

Passed in Council the Nineteenth day of August, One thousand Nine hundred and Twelve.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Thirtieth day of August, One thousand Nine hundred and Twelve.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.
