PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 27 of 1912.

An Ordinance to amend "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance, 1905."

HENRY MCCALLUM.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove certain doubts which have arisen as to the true interpretation of "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance, 1905" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), and otherwise to amend the said Ordinance: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Buddhist Temporalities (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 27 of 1912," and shall be read as one with the principal Ordinance.

Validation of election of de facto committees.

2 (1) All members of district committees who at any time before the commencement of this Ordinance have been declared the candidates for whom the greatest number of votes has been recorded under section 9 of the principal

Ordinance, or to whom certificates have been granted under the said section, and who have not been judicially declared invalidly elected, shall be conclusively deemed to have been validly elected under the principal Ordinance.

(2) This section shall take effect in all actions, whether instituted before or after the commencement of this Ordinance; and in any pending action in which any plea has been raised or any issue framed for the purpose of putting in issue the validity of any such election, or any circumstance alleged to affect that validity, each party shall bear his own costs, in so far as such costs are occasioned by such plea or issue, unless the court shall otherwise order.

Provided that where any such pending action is an action instituted by a trustee with respect to his dismissal or suspension or proposed dismissal, it shall be competent to the court, notwithstanding anything contained in the principal Ordinance, to inquire into the justice, equity, and reasonableness of the said dismissal or suspension, or proposed dismissal; and in any such case it shall be lawful for the court—

- (a) To direct any amendment of the pleadings or to frame any issue that may be necessary to enable it to do substantial justice between the parties;
- (b) On such terms and conditions as to the court may seem just, to direct or confirm the dismissal of any trustee, to restrain any such dismissal, or to direct the re-instatement of any trustee already suspended or dismissed;
- (c) To make any other order that the justice of the case may require.

Provided further that in the event of the court ordering the re-instatement of any dismissed trustee, nothing in any such order shall be deemed to affect the validity of any act, otherwise valid, done by any person discharging or purporting to discharge the duties of the trusteeship in question prior to such re-instatement.

Provided further that, except in the case of pending actions, nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the finality and conclusiveness of any decision of a district committee under section 16 of the principal Ordinance.

3 The following section shall be substituted for section 11 of the principal Ordinance :

Decision of objections.

(1) No objection shall be raised as to the qualification of any voter or candidate, or as to the affixing or publication of any notice, or as to any other incidental formality or circumstance affecting the election, or as to the validity of the election itself, except—

- (a) At the election meeting to the president; or
- (b) Within one month of such meeting by application to the District Court.

(2) When an objection is raised at an election meeting, the president may in his discretion either adjourn the meeting in order to allow any necessary formality to be complied with for the purpose of the adjourned meeting, or may decide the question raised then and there.

(3) If the president decide the question raised at the meeting, his decision shall be final and conclusive, unless within one month of such decision an application is made to the District Court.

(4) Every such application shall be inquired into and disposed of summarily.

(5) An election shall not be invalidated by any informality unless the informality is substantial, and of such a character as to prejudice the choice of the electors.

4 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance :

General powers of District Court.

30 A. A District Judge may on the application of any district committee or trustee—

- (a) Give relief against any accidental mistake or omission or any informality occurring in the course of any matter arising under this Ordinance ;
- (b) Extend the time fixed for any action or proceeding in this Ordinance ;
- (c) Order any person within a time fixed in the order to discharge any duty imposed upon him by this Ordinance ; and for the purpose of the exercise of its powers under this section may make any order that the justice of the case may require.

Passed in Council the Ninth day of September, One thousand Nine hundred and Twelve.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Seventeenth day of September, One thousand Nine hundred and Twelve:

L. W. BOOTH,
Acting Colonial Secretary.
