DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Road Ordinance, 1861."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Road Ordinance, 1861": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Road (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1912," and shall be read as one with "The Road Ordinance, 1861."

Substitution of new section 86.

2 For section 86 of the principal Ordinance, as amended by section 4 of Ordinance No. 23 of 1910, the following section shall be substituted:

Notice of intended building along a thoroughfare.

86. It shall not be lawful for any person to commence any building, wall, or fence along any thoroughfare, or to place any temporary fence or inclosure on any such thoroughfare, for commencing or repairing any such building or wall, without giving one calendar month's previous notice in writing to the Chairman of the District Committee of the district within which such building, wall, fence, or inclosure is about to be commenced, and any person neglecting to give such notice, or to remove the said building, wall, or fence on being required in writing to do so by the Chairman of the said Committee, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and to a further fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each day he suffers or allows such building, wall, or fence to remain after being required to remove the same as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Chairman of the said Committee, with the sanction of the Provincial Committee, to cause any building, wall, fence, or inclosure, commenced or erected without such notice, to be removed, and to recover the costs of such removal in the manner provided in section 90 for the recovery of the costs therein mentioned. Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to deprive any Provincial or District Committee of the power hereinafter conferred on them of removing any such building, wall, fence, or inclosure, if the same be ultimately discovered to be an encroachment, notwithstanding that no proceeding shall have been taken by them on the said notice.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 17, 1913.

L. W. BOOTH,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

UNDER the existing law a person intending to commence a building along a thoroughfare is required to give seven days' notice of his intention to the Chairman of the District Committee. It has been found that the operations which have to be undertaken to determine whether the proposed building will encroach on the thoroughfare cannot ordinarily be completed within the period of seven days.

2. The object of this Ordinance is to extend the period of notice to one calendar month so as to give sufficient time for the purpose.

3. Advantage has been taken of this opportunity to re-cast the section incorporating the amendment made by Ordinance No. 23 of 1910, in addition to the amendment above referred to.

Colombo, November 30, 1912.

J. VAN LANGENBERG,
Acting Attorney-General.
