The Right Hon. LORD KNUTSFORD, G.C.M.G., to Governor Sir A. E. HAVELOCK, K.C.M.G.

Circular.

Downing street, February 4, 1892.

SIR,—WITH reference to my circular despatch of the 6th of February, 1891, respecting the termination on 30th June next of the Commercial Convention of 26th April, 1886, between Great Britain and Spain, I have the honour to transmit, for the information of the Colony under your Government, a copy of a translation of a Spanish Royal Order, issued from the Spanish Treasury on 13th January, respecting Customs Duties on British Goods between 1st February and 30th June next, together with a copy of a translation of Article XII., relating to certificates of origin of a new Tariff approved on 31st December last.

I have, &c.,
KNUTSFORD.

Translation of Royal Order.

Considering the inquiries which have been addressed to this Ministry with regard to the interpretation of Articles 1 and 6 of the Royal Decree of the 31st December last, as to the date on which the new Tariff is to come into force, and as to the duties which are to be charged on goods from countries whose Commercial Treaties with Spain terminate on the 30th June next ;

And considering that England and the Netherlands continue to enjoy up to the 30th June next the benefits in general which are secured to them by their respective Treaties in addition to those contained in the Treaties concluded between Spain and Germany on the 12th July, 1883, and with France on the 6th February, 1882 ;

His Majesty the King, and in his name the Queen Regent, decrees :—

1. That merchandise which enters the Customs lines of Spain, either by sea or land, until midnight of the 31st of this month of January, will enjoy the benefits of the Tariff now in force, inasmuch as the new Tariff does not come into force till the 1st February next.

2. In accordance with the above Article, the Custom-houses will remain open until midnight in order to receive the manifests and way bills. On these documents will be entered carefully the hour at which they are presented, provided always that they conform with the Marine and Sanitary Regulations of the port of entry.

3. Merchandise of British or Dutch origin will continue to enjoy to the 30th June of the present year the benefits of the duties contained in the Tariffs, Letter (B), annexed to the Treaties of Commerce and Navigation between Spain and Germany of the 12th July, 1883, and of France of the 6th February, 1882.

4. In order that the duties in those Tariffs (which were annexed to the Treaties for merchandise to which the said Tariffs refer) may be applied, it is necessary that a certificate of origin should be presented at the Custom-house, drawn up in the form laid down in rule 12 of the new Tariff approved of by the Royal Order of the 31st December, 1891.

5. All British and Dutch goods not specified in the above Tariffs, Letter (B), annexed respectively to the French and German Treaties, will, up to the 30th July, 1892, pay duty in accordance with the second column of the new Tariff approved by the Royal Decree of the 31st December, 1891.

6. Goods of Finnish origin comprised in the Tariff, Letter (B), annexed to the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between Spain and Russia of the 2nd July, 1887, will, up to the 30th June of the present year, pay in accordance with the duties specified in the above Tariff, Letter (B), it being understood that, in order to enjoy this privilege, Finnish goods must be imported direct from Finland without transshipment on the voyage ; no necessity of justifying their origin by means of a certificate being required.

7. The regulations referred to in rule 8 of the Tariff of the 31st December last, as well as that at present in force, are those laid down in the Law of Commercial Relations with the Colonies of the 30th June, 1882, as well as in the Article 13 of the Budget Law of the 29th June, 1887 ; and they are only of a temporary nature which will last until the treatment to which the foreign flag will be subjected in the trade and navigation between the Peninsula and the Colonies has been definitely settled.

8. For the carrying out of the preceding regulations relative to British, Dutch, and Finnish goods, the Custom-houses must refer to the official edition of the Tariff of the 31st December, 1889, which is still in force, and which contains the respective Treaties of Commerce.

By order of Her Majesty, I state this for your information and guidance.

I have, &c.

Madrid, January 13, 1892.

Certificates of Origin.—Extract from Spanish Tariff of 1892.

Faculty is reserved to the Minister of Finance to require the presentation of a certificate of origin in order that the duties in the second column of the Tariff, or those which may be subsequently settled with foreign nations, may be charged on their merchandise.

Certificates of origin will be drawn out in conformity with the following rules :—

1. The certificate will consist of an official declaration made by the producer or manufacturer, or an authorised person on his behalf, before the local authority of the place of production or deposit in the producing state, that the merchandise to which the certificate refers is his manufacture or the produce of his industry. The Spanish Consuls for the districts concerned will legalise the signatures of said authorities, who may be, according to the regulations of each country, the Mayor, the Chamber of Commerce and Navigation, the Police authorities, Public Notaries, and also Directors of Customs.

2. The certificate will set forth the number, marks, enumeration, &c., gross weight of the packages, &c., the material or class of the merchandise, specifying definitely, as regards yarns and tissues, whether they are of cotton, hemp or flax, wool or silk, or a mixture of these materials.

3. The certificates can come drawn up in Spanish or French. When presented drawn up in other languages, they will be translated into Spanish, at the choice of the merchant, by sworn interpreters, by interpreting ship-brokers, by commercial brokers, by the Boards of Agriculture, Industry, and Commerce of the locality, or by the Consuls of the countries to which the merchandise appertains.

The faculty for making translations is optional on the part of Boards of Agriculture, Industry, and Commerce, which are entitled, but not obliged, to do them.

4. When certificates are presented drawn up in the language of the country of origin and likewise in Spanish, the Spanish version will be treated as null, and the translation will be effected in the form above indicated.

5. Certificates of origin of Chinese and Japanese produce, especially destined for Spain, will be drawn up in Spanish at the Spanish Consulates in those countries, with the Consul's visa attached; and vessels carrying such produce can transfer it to other bottoms without prejudice to the benefits to which it may be entitled, so long as the transshipment be justified.

Should a merchant receive certificates wanting in the afore-mentioned formalities, he may return them, before clearing the goods, in order to have the omission repaired, availing himself meanwhile of the time allowed for storage by the Customs regulations, on the understanding that when clearance is asked for goods accompanied by a certificate, the latter is to be considered as definitely presented.

Custom-houses will admit certificates which fulfil the aforesaid conditions, passing over any accidental defect in the form in which they are drawn up.

If at any time the certificate should bear the impression of being of false character, it will be handed to the Tribunals to be dealt with accordingly.

Should certificates not be presented at the time of inspection, should they when presented not fulfil all requirements, or not tally with the merchandise to which they relate, they will be considered as null and void, the duties in the first column of the Tariff being applied to the merchandise.

Should differences exist between the gross weight of the packages described in the certificates and that arrived at on clearance, if such differences do not exceed a maximum of 20 per cent. beyond or short of what is stated on the certificates, the said documents will be admitted as effective; but they will be considered null when the differences are in excess of that rate, the duties in the first column of the Tariff being in such case applied to the merchandise.

Certificates issued in one country for the produce of another will likewise be considered null.

Merchandise from a Treaty nation destined for Spain and accompanied by the necessary certificate of origin, which may pass through another country also enjoying Treaty privileges, needs no justification for such transit; but when the transit takes place through a country having no Treaty the goods must be identified by a special certificate issued by the Spanish Consul or the foreign Custom-house of the locality.

Merchandise belonging to Treaty nations, and coming from them, will enjoy Treaty privileges, even if the vessels conveying it touch during their voyage at ports belonging to nations without a Treaty, engage in commercial operations there, or transfer to other bottoms the cargo destined for Spain.

To this effect merchandise must come consigned to Spain in the manifest prepared in the port of loading of the Treaty nation concerned. If afterwards it be transferred to another bottom, the Spanish Consul at the place, after taking cognizance of the proper documents, must enter on the manifest then prepared that the merchandise was loaded in a country having a Treaty, and is destined for Spain.

In addition to these formalities the certificate of origin must be exhibited, should the goods be such as to need one.

All articles, even if their origin be a country without Treaty, which have undergone, owing to industrial processes in one with which a Treaty exists, such transformation or manipulation as may raise their value, will enjoy the benefits extended to Treaty nations.

In order that merchandise requiring a certificate and intended for deposit may pay duty under the second column of the Tariff, the said document must be presented at the moment of clearance for consumption.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR has been pleased to direct that the following copy of an Order of the Queen in Council, dated February 6, 1892, applying to this Colony the Act in the case of the Postal Convention with France of August 30, 1890, be published for general information.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 23, 1892.

By His Excellency's command,
E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.

PRESENT :

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

| Mr. Ritchie.

| Mr. Jackson.

WHEREAS by "The Mail Ships Act, 1891," it is provided that where Her Majesty the Queen has made a Convention with a foreign State respecting the postal service between such foreign State and the United Kingdom, or respecting the privileges of mail ships, that is to say, ships engaged in any postal service of such foreign State, or of any part of Her Majesty's dominions, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to order that the said Act shall, subject to any conditions, exceptions, and qualifications contained in the Order, apply during the continuance of the Order as regards such Convention and foreign State and the postal service and mail ships described in the Convention :

And whereas on the 30th day of August, 1890, a Convention was made at London between Her Majesty and the President of the French Republic respecting the postal service between France and French possessions and the United Kingdom and British possessions, the terms of which Convention are set forth in the Schedule to this Order :

And whereas the Governments of certain of the British possessions named in the Schedule to the said Act, namely, Newfoundland, Queensland, New Zealand, Cape of Good Hope, and Natal, have adhered to the said Convention :

And whereas it is expedient that "The Mail Ships Act, 1891," should apply as regards the said Convention and the French Republic and the postal service and mail ships described in the said Convention :

And whereas it is also expedient that the said Act should, for the purpose of the said Convention, apply to the above-mentioned British possessions, and also to all British possessions not named in the Schedule to the said Act, subject to the exceptions and modifications in this Order contained :

Now therefore Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Mail Ships Act, 1891," or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

- (v.) Section 5 of the said Act, so far as relates to the Commissioners of Customs, shall not apply in the possession.

4. This Order may be cited as "The Mail Ships (France) Order in Council, 1892."

And the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., and the Right Honourable Lord Knutsford, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. PEEL.

Schedule referred to in foregoing Order in Council.

CONVENTION BETWEEN HER MAJESTY AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC RESPECTING POSTAL COMMUNICATIONS.

Signed at London, August 30, 1890.

[Ratifications exchanged at London, March 23, 1891.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the President of the French Republic, alike animated with the desire to fix the special treatment to be accorded to British packets in the ports of France and of the French Colonies and possessions and to French packets in the ports of the United Kingdom and of the British Colonies and possessions, and availing themselves of the right reserved to the Contracting Parties by the Convention of the Universal Postal Union, have resolved to conclude a Convention to that end, and have named for their Plenipotentiaries :

Her Majesty the Queen of United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoyne Cecil, Marquis of Salisbury, Earl of Salisbury, Viscount Cranbone, Baron Cecil, Peer of the United Kingdom, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, &c. ;

And the President of the French Republic, M. William Henry Waddington, Senator, Member of the Institute, &c., Ambassador of the French Republic to Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India :

Who have agreed upon the following Articles :—

ARTICLE I.

Between the postal administration of France and the postal administration of Great Britain there shall be a regular exchange of correspondence of all kinds, which shall be effected by means of two steam-packet services, which shall continue to be maintained or subsidised, the one by the French Government and the other by the British Government, on the line between Calais and Dover.

The French postal administration and the British postal administration shall regulate, by common consent and in accordance with the mutual interests of both countries, the days and hours of departure and arrival of the subsidised packets.

ARTICLE II.

Independently of the correspondence which shall be exchanged between the postal administrations of the two countries by the means indicated in the preceding Article, those administrations may reciprocally forward from one to the other correspondence of all kinds by the several means hereinafter mentioned, namely, (1) by such packets as the French Government and the British Government may respectively think it right to maintain, to freight, or to subsidise, for the conveyance of correspondence ; (2) by merchant-ships plying between French ports and British ports.

ARTICLE III.

The commanders of British and French merchant-ships sailing from the ports of France or Algeria for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the one part, and the commanders of British and French merchant-ships sailing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for France or Algeria, on the other part, shall be bound to take charge of the mails which the post offices at the ports of departure may have to deliver to them.

ARTICLE IV.

The charges for the sea conveyance of correspondence exchanged between the French postal administration and the British postal administration by means of non-contract merchant-ships shall be paid to the commanders or owners of those vessels by the postal administration, of the country of origin, namely:—

- (1) At the rate of 5 fr. per kilog. of letters and postcards;
- (2) At the rate of 50 centimes per kilog. of other articles.

ARTICLE V.

When the packets employed by the French postal administration and by the British postal administration are national vessels owned by the State, or vessels belonging to Companies subsidised for the execution of postal service, such packets cannot be diverted from their destination, nor be liable to seizure, embargo, or "Arrêt de Prince."

Passengers on such packets, who may not desire to go on shore during the vessel's stay in a port of either State, cannot be on any account taken from on board.

Nevertheless, the local authorities may claim the expulsion from on board of persons wanted in pursuance of a regular warrant for any crimes or offences who may have taken refuge or embarked in mail-boats, and, in case of necessity, searches may be carried out on board such vessels by the competent authorities. The individuals in question shall then be handed over to them.

It is, however, agreed that the authorities cannot proceed on board unless they have previously given notice, at least one hour before the search, to the Consulate or Vice-Consulate, in order that the Consul or Vice-Consul, or his delegate, may be present at the searches in question. The letter giving notice shall be addressed to the Consul or Vice-Consul, and shall state the exact hour, and if the agents neglect either to appear in person or to be represented, the proceedings shall go on in their absence.

The execution of such measures shall not delay the departure of the vessel for more than an hour after the time of departure fixed in the time-tables of the Company, which must be duly communicated by the respective Companies to the authorities of each port of call.

The present Article shall not apply to packets intrusted with a mail service and belonging to Companies subsidised by either State, until a bond has been entered into, once for all, by the said Companies to satisfy, after due hearing and definite decision, the legal consequences of any liability incurred either by the captains of their packets or by the Companies themselves.

The aforesaid bond must be guaranteed by a security within the jurisdiction of the Tribunals of the country in which the bond may have been entered into.

ARTICLE VI.

The packets of the two administrations shall be at liberty to take on board, or land at the ports of the two countries at which they touch, whether regularly or accidentally, specie and gold and silver bullion, as well as passengers, of whatever nation they may be, with their wearing apparel or baggage, on condition that the captains of those packets shall submit to the Sanitary, Police, and Customs Regulations of those ports concerning the arrival and departure of travellers and merchandise.

ARTICLE VII.

The packets of the two administrations may enter and leave the ports of the two States at any hour of the day or night. They may also, if they think proper, without anchoring, embark or disembark the mails and passengers, in the roads or at the entrance of the harbours, so long as they observe the regulations referred to in the preceding Article.

ARTICLE VIII.

Whenever a packet carrying mails shall be compelled to put into any port of either of the two States other than that at which such packet ought to touch, the administration on whose territory the said mails shall be landed shall use the most certain and expeditious means of forwarding them to their destination.

ARTICLE IX.

In case of war between the two nations, the packets of the two administrations shall continue their navigation, without impediment or molestation, until a notification is made on the part of either of the two Governments of the discontinuance of postal communications; in which case they shall be permitted to return freely, and under special protection, to their respective ports.

ARTICLE X.

The captains of the packets engaged in the conveyance of the respective mails of the two administrations are forbidden to take charge of any letter not included in those mails, with the exception, however, of despatches of their Governments. They must take care that no letters are conveyed illegally by the crews or passengers, and they must give information in the proper quarter of any infringement which may be committed in this respect.

ARTICLE XI.

There shall be reserved in the vans, carriages, or trucks conveying between Modane and Calais the mails from the East Indies for Great Britain, or from Great Britain for the East Indies, a place free of charge for a British courier, who shall keep the said mails under his special care, and who shall have the right to be present at the disinfection of the correspondence contained in those mails whenever it shall take place, and at all other operations to which the said correspondence may be subjected.

The same advantages shall be granted in the territory of Great Britain to the couriers of the French postal administration, should that administration think proper to send a French courier in charge of mails containing correspondence from or for France passing through Great Britain and paid for at special transit rates.

ARTICLE XII.

The British postal administration and the postal administration of France shall nominate, by mutual consent, the offices through which the exchange of correspondence shall respectively take place. - Postcards. Postcards are such cards as are supplied by the commissioner of stamps for transmission by post.
- Printed matter. Printed matter shall include all documents in writing or print not in the nature of a personal communication, and must be posted open at both ends so as to admit of the removal and inspection of contents without breaking the seal or fastening, and without injury to the wrapper.

- Miscellaneous. Miscellaneous packets shall include all other postal packets.
- Maximum weight of printed matter and miscellaneous packet. 11 Nothing shall be posted as printed matter or a miscellaneous packet which shall exceed five pounds in weight if to be forwarded by runner lines, or shall exceed fifty pounds in weight if to be forwarded by railway or coach lines or by sea, or which shall exceed two feet in length and one foot in breadth or depth.
- Parcels exceeding five pounds in weight to be called for at post office. 12 No postal packet exceeding five pounds in weight shall be forwarded to the address of the addressee, but a notice shall be sent to the addressee that such packet must be called for at the post office by him or his duly authorised agent.

- Opening of postal packets from foreign countries. 17 When postal packets from a foreign country are received at any post office, and the postmaster has reason to believe that such postal packets contain articles subject to duty, he shall immediately notify the receipt of such postal packets to the principal officer of customs of the district, together with the names of the persons to whom the same are addressed. Printed matter or miscellaneous packets when seized will be opened by an officer of the customs in presence of the postmaster and the addressee; but letters, registered or ordinary, can only be opened by the addressee or his duly authorised agent, who should be notified to appear at the custom-house and open the same.

- Postmaster-general may prescribe mode of enclosing matters not charged as letters. 20 The postmaster-general may prescribe by regulation the manner of enclosing matter not charged with letter postage nor lawfully franked, so that it may be conveniently examined by postmasters; and if not so enclosed, it shall be subject to letter postage.
- Notice of delivery of miscellaneous packet. 21 Senders of miscellaneous packets will receive notice of delivery to the addressee, if they tender with such packet an acknowledgment receipt to be issued for the purpose
