It shall be the duty of every police officer or headman, on receiving notice in writing from the Principal Civil Medical Officer, Superintendent of Vaccination, Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent, Inspector of Vaccination, or from any Government Medical Officer or Vaccinator, of the appointment of a place within his village or division for the performance of vaccination, and of the time when the officer appointed to vaccinate will attend at such place, to notify the same to the residents of his village or division.

2. The police officer or headman of a village or division where a vaccine station has been established shall attend the vaccine station at the appointed hour on the day vaccination is carried on at such station; should he be unable to do so, he shall send a competent substitute.

3. On the occurrence of smallpox in any division or village where a vaccine station has not been formally established, the police officer or the headman of such division or village, or the headman of the district (Mudaliyar, Ratemahatmaya, Muhandiram, Korala, or Arachchila) shall, on the application of the Superintendent of Vaccination, Inspector of Vaccination, any Government Medical Officer, or the Vaccinator of the district, render all assistance in his power for vaccinating the people in the infected locality.

In principal towns where police sergeants or police constables are detached to aid and assist in carrying on vaccination, it shall be their duty to intimate to the residents of the streets or divisions set apart for them that vaccination will be carried on on such dates, places, and times as laid down in the programme; and they shall endeavour, to the best of their ability, to secure the attendance at the vaccine station of all persons to be vaccinated. 6. Every police officer or headman neglecting or refusing to carry out the above regulations shall be punishable under the 15th and 17th clauses of the Ordinance.

7. In the event of such a certificate not forthcoming, it shall be lawful for any of the above officers to examine the vaccine marks on the arms of such adult or child. Any person who refuses to allow such officer to do so shall be hindering or obstructing such officer in the discharge of his duty.

9. Should any householder be called upon by the Superintendent of Vaccination, Assistant Superintendent of Vaccination, Inspector of Vaccination, Government Medical Officer, or a Vaccinating Officer to furnish a schedule as per form subjoined, such householder, on the receipt of the form, shall, within such reasonable time as may therein be specified, give correctly every information therein required by filling up the form:—

WITH reference to the Notification dated April 4, 1908, published in the Gazette of the 10th idem, the following copy of a further circular despatch, with its enclosures, received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, relative to the age limit for candidates for Naval Cadetship, is published for general information.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 17, 1913.

By His Excellency's command,
L. W. BOOTH,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

The Right Hon. L. HARCOURT, M.P., to the OFFICER ADMINISTERING THE GOVERNMENT OF CEYLON.

Downing street, September 22, 1913.

Circular.

SIR,—WITH reference to the circular despatches noted in the margin,\* I have the honour to inform you that the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have decided to raise the age limits for candidates for Naval Cadetships from 12 $\frac{3}{4}$ —13 years to 13 $\frac{1}{4}$ —13 $\frac{3}{4}$  years.† I enclose copies of the regulations embodying the new arrangements, which will come into force at the examination to be held in December next for the January, 1914, entry.

2. Their Lordships have also had under consideration the possibility of making arrangements for the inclusion of Colonial candidates in the scheme which they have recently introduced for the Special Entry of Naval Cadets. I enclose copies of a memorandum‡ giving particulars of this scheme, with copies of the regulations governing the entry of candidates.

3. It has been decided that no satisfactory arrangements for the local examination of candidates for Special Entry Cadetships are possible; but, while local facilities to compete cannot be given, the names of candidates will be gladly received by the Admiralty if they can appear for examination in England.

4. The regulations enclosed are those drawn up for the year 1913, but those for 1914–16 will be on the same general lines, except that candidates during those years must be between the ages of 17 $\frac{1}{2}$  and 18 $\frac{1}{2}$  on June 1 of the year in which the examination is held.

I have, &c.,
L. HARCOURT.

Regulations for Entry and Training at the Royal Naval Colleges at Osborne and Dartmouth and on board the Training Cruisers.

(These Regulations apply to Cadets entering after September, 1913.)

1. No nomination is required by a candidate for a Naval Cadetship. All that is necessary is to send an application to the Assistant Private Secretary to the First Lord of the Admiralty. Applications should not be made until the candidate has reached 12 $\frac{1}{2}$  years of age.

2. Candidates must be of pure European descent and the sons either of natural-born or naturalized British subjects. In doubtful cases the burden of clear proof will rest upon the parents or guardians of candidates.

3. All Naval Cadets entered under these regulations are trained together until they pass for the rank of Lieutenant. After passing for the rank of Lieutenant, they may be required to serve either as general service officers or in one of the special branches, undertaking either Engineering, Gunnery, Torpedo, Navigation, or Marine duty.

As far as possible officers selected for special service will be allowed to choose the branch in which they will qualify, subject to the proviso that all branches are satisfactorily filled.

Parents or guardians of candidates for appointment as Naval Cadets must undertake for them that they are prepared to serve in any branch if required.

4. Parents or guardians are required to declare in writing their intention that the candidate, if he obtains a Cadetship, shall adopt the Navy as his profession in life; and it is subject to this undertaking that candidates are selected for Cadetships. Every Cadet who enters the Royal Naval College must therefore be prepared to continue his training so long as the Admiralty are satisfied with his progress, and parents are not at liberty to withdraw their sons at will.

On the entry of a Cadet, parents or guardians will be required to undertake that, in the event of his withdrawing or being withdrawn from the College, or from the Navy before being confirmed as a Sub-Lieutenant, they will pay to the Admiralty, if demanded, the sum of £25 per term in respect of each term passed by him at the Royal Navy Colleges, Osborne and Dartmouth, from the date of his entry to the date of his withdrawal, as a contribution towards the balance of the cost of his training and maintenance not covered by the annual payment of £75 mentioned in paragraph 15.

This undertaking does not apply to Cadets withdrawn at the request of the Admiralty.

5. Entries take place three times a year, in January, May, and September.

Candidates for entry in January must be more than 13 years and 4 months but not more than 13 years and 8 months of age on the preceding December 1.

Candidates for entry in May must be more than 13 years and 4 months but not more than 13 years and 8 months of age on the preceding April 1.

Candidates for entry in September must be more than 13 years and 4 months but not more than 13 years and 8 months of age on the preceding August 1.

6. All candidates (except those being educated in the Colonies who have received special Colonial recommendations under paragraph 10) will be required to present themselves before a Committee, which will interview each applicant separately.

The applications must be received at the Admiralty—

For the January entry before October 1.

For the May entry before January 1.

For the September entry before May 1.

Appointments to Naval Cadetships are made by the First Lord from among candidates recommended by the Committee, and all such appointments are subject to the candidate passing a Medical Examination (see paragraph 8) and a Qualifying Examination in educational subjects (see paragraph 9).

The fact, however, of a candidate being invited to appear before this Committee is not to be understood as in any degree implying that he will necessarily be chosen to attend the Qualifying Examination.

The Interview Committee will sit shortly before the date fixed for each Qualifying Examination.

|| Candidates are eligible only for one Interview and Qualifying Examination.

7. The Qualifying Examinations are held in December, March, and July, and the appointments of successful candidates date from January 15, May 15, September 15 following, respectively.

8. Every candidate must be in good health, and free from any physical defect of body, impediment of speech, defect of sight or hearing, and also from any predisposition to constitutional or hereditary disease or weakness of any kind, and be in all respects well developed and active in proportion to his age. Before undergoing the Qualifying

† August, 1913. ‡ Memorandum, March, 1913. § Regulations, March, 1913.

|| Candidates, however, who were unsuccessful under the old regulations may again present themselves under the new rule as to age which is stated in paragraph 5.

Should any case occur where a selected candidate is prevented by illness from attending the Qualifying Examination, the Admiralty will consider whether special arrangements can be made for him to be examined by the Head Master of the Royal Naval College, Osborne, at the beginning of the ensuing term.

Examination he is required to pass the Medical Examination according to the prescribed regulations, and must be found physically fit for the Navy.

It should be particularly noted that full normal vision—as determined by Snellen's tests—is required. A memorandum is issued by the Admiralty, which gives details of the physical requirements of candidates.

A Medical Board of Appeal has been instituted to meet cases in which the parent or guardian of a candidate is not satisfied with the result of the Official Medical Examination. This Appeal Board will consist of the Director-General of the Medical Department of the Navy, a physician nominated by the Medical Consultative Board, and a specialist in the particular defect which caused the disqualification of the candidate, to be selected from a list drawn up by the Consultative Board.

In the event of the rejection on medical grounds of a candidate who would otherwise have been selected for the Qualifying Examination, the parent or guardian will at once be informed that, subject to the payment of a fee of four guineas, the candidate may present himself for re-examination by the Appeal Board, and that if an appeal is desired notification must be made by the parent or guardian to the Director-General of the Medical Department, Admiralty, within a week of the first Medical Examination. The notification must be accompanied by a cheque for four guineas made payable to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

*9. The Qualifying Examination is in the following subjects:—

(1) English (including writing from dictation and reproduction of the gist of a short passage twice read aloud to the candidates).

(2) History and Geography, with special reference to the British Empire.

(3) Arithmetic and Algebra (two-thirds of the questions in this paper will be on Arithmetic. The use of Algebraic symbols and processes will be allowed).

Arithmetic.—The simple and compound rules, avoirdupois weight, lineal and square and cubic measures, the elementary mensuration of rectangular surfaces and volumes, measure of capacity (pints, quarts, gallons), the metric system (the metre, gramme, and litre, with their multiples and submultiples), money (including the relationship of the cent to the dollar, and the centime to the franc), reduction, factors, the addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, and simplification of vulgar fractions, non-recurring decimal fractions, simple proportion, ratio and percentage, and simple interest.

Algebra.—The meaning of algebraic symbols, substitution of values, easy identities, equations of the first degree, including simultaneous equations, verification of the solution of equations, problems leading to simple equations, multiplication and division by binomial operator, easy factors (excluding sum and difference of cubes), fractions with numerical denominators.

(4) Geometry.—The paper will consist of questions both on Practical and on Theoretical Geometry.

All candidates must be provided with a ruler graduated in inches and tenths, and also in centimetres and millimetres, a small set square, a protractor, pencil compasses, and a hard pencil.

Any proof of a proposition will be accepted which appears to the Examiner to form part of a systematic treatment of the subject. Simple deductions from specified theorems will be set.

Proofs of the validity of constructions will not, as a rule, be expected, but they may be asked for.

Practical Geometry.—The constructions shown in the appended Schedule A, 1-7 (see page 902).†

Theoretical Geometry.—See appended Schedule B, page 902. The facts stated in the following theorems, together with riders on them, but without formal proofs of the theorems:—B, 1-11. Formal proofs of the following theorems, together with riders on them:—B, 14-19, 21, 22.†

(5) French or German, with an oral examination, to which importance will be attached.

(6) Latin (easy passages for translation from Latin into English and from English into Latin, and simple grammatical questions).

The list of successful candidates will be published in alphabetical order. A certain number of successful candidates who show excellence in the examination and have also been highly recommended by the Interview Committee will receive "Honourable Mention," and will be distinguished by an asterisk in the list of successful candidates.

10. The Governments of certain Dominions and Colonies are allowed to recommend specially (through the Secretary of State for the Colonies) a certain number of candidates annually from among boys belonging to families resident in the Dominions and Colonies.

Unless such candidates, however, actually reside and receive their education in their own Dominion or Colony, they must be also recommended by the Interview Committee, and must pass the Qualifying Examination and the Medical Examination.

11. Naval Cadets will undergo a course of instruction in the Shore Training Establishments for a period of four years, of which two years will be at Osborne and the remainder at Dartmouth. On passing out of the College at Dartmouth they will continue their training for a period on board a special Training Cruiser, and will then be sent to the sea-going fleet as Midshipmen.

12. The following are the approximate dates for the beginning and end of the three terms at the Colleges:—January 16 to April 15; May 8 to August 6; September 19 to December 17.

The vacations at the Colleges are as follows:—Four weeks at Christmas; three weeks at Easter; six weeks at Midsummer.

13. The friends of the Cadets must be prepared to receive them during all the vacations.

14. All Naval Cadets shall be subject to the regulations for the time being in force respecting Cadets while at the Royal Navy Colleges at Osborne and Dartmouth and on board the Training Cruisers.

15. For all Cadets entering under these regulations, payment will be at the rate of £75 per annum for the period under training at the Colleges, to be paid in sums of £25 every term in advance to the Cashier of the Bank of England on receipt of claim from the Accountant-General of the Navy. But the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty reserve the power of selecting from among the Cadets entered at each examination a limited number, being sons of Officers of the Navy, Army, or Marines, or of Civil Officers under the Board of Admiralty, with respect to whom the annual payment will be £40 only. In making this selection Their Lordships will have regard solely to the pecuniary circumstances of the Cadet and his parents.

Applications for the reduced scale must be received at the Admiralty:—

For the January entry before October 1.

For the May entry before February 1.

For the September entry before June 1.

* NOTE.—Copies of the papers set at the examinations held in each year are printed by the Oxford and Cambridge Schools Examination Board, and may be obtained on application to the Secretary of the Admiralty, free of charge. It should be noted, however, that the questions in papers set under these regulations will be slightly more advanced than those set prior to September, 1913, in consequence of the age of entry being raised.

† NOTE.—The numbers in the schedules correspond to those in the Geometry Schedule of the Common Examination for entrance to Public Schools as reprinted from the Cambridge University Ordinances.

Claims will be made upon the parents or guardians by the Accountant-General of the Navy for the sums payable as they become due, and the money should be at once remitted.

16. In addition to the above payments, any expenses incurred by a Cadet for clothing, sports, books, instruments, washing, &c., as well as the allowance of 1s. a week paid as pocket money, are included in the personal account sent to the parent from the College as soon as possible after the end of each term.

17. No pay is allowed by Government to the Cadets in the Colleges, except in the case of Cadet Captains, who receive a small weekly allowance.

The pay of Cadets in the Training Cruisers is 1s. a day, and that of Midshipmen is 1s. 9d. a day.

18. The fees specified in paragraph 15 will cease on the Cadet joining the Training Cruiser. Parents or guardians will then be required to make the Cadet a private allowance of £50 a year until he reaches the rank of Acting Sub-Lieutenant, and thereafter a private allowance of £20 a year for as long as he remains an Acting Sub-Lieutenant with pay at the rate of 3s. 6d. a day.

19. The parent or guardian of every Cadet is required to provide outfit under the regulations in force.

20. All travelling expenses for Cadets are advanced by the Paymaster of the College, who will charge the sum to the Cadet's personal account.

21. Inasmuch as the Cadets have a weekly allowance paid to them as pocket money, and a charge is made to pay the expenses attending their amusements, it is unnecessary that their friends should give them any money, except on joining or on their return from the vacations, and the amount should then be reasonable. Such money as may be required by a Cadet for any special circumstance will be advanced by the Paymaster under the authority of the Captain.

22. Any valuable gold watches or chains brought by the Cadets to the Colleges will be taken from them and placed in security until the Cadets return home. Silver watches may be used.

23. Arrangements are made for the conveyance from Portsmouth to Osborne of the Cadets who are joining the College for the first time. Such Cadets should assemble at the Dockyard Gates (near Portsmouth Harbour Station) shortly before 3 P.M. on the day appointed for joining. Cadets rejoining the College will be expected to make their own arrangements for doing so.

24. Cadets are to bring their linen clean, and clothes and boots in good order, when they join the College, and also when they return from leave, and the outfit, as specified on the list attached, must be complete. A list of the clothes left behind will be sent with Cadets when they go on leave.

25. Cadets are not permitted to open accounts with tradesmen. Parents or guardians are requested not to allow their sons' outfitters to supply clothes or other articles without their authorization.

26. Each Cadet on joining and on returning after the vacation is required to produce a health certificate—signed by his parent or guardian not earlier than the day before the Cadet's return—to the effect that so far as is known, he has not for at least three weeks immediately preceding his return been exposed to any infectious disease, or entered any house where such disease had existed. A certificate, drawn up in the necessary form, is sent to each parent, and failure on the part of the Cadet to produce this certificate, duly filled up and signed, on his return will entail his not being received.

In the event of a Cadet being placed on the Sick List information is always sent to his parents or guardians, who are also kept informed of the progress of the patient should the illness be in the slightest degree serious.

27. Letters relative to the Cadets should be addressed to "The Commanding Officer, Royal Naval College" or "The Commanding Officer, H.M.S. ———," and not to the Captain by name.

Parents or guardians of Cadets must in all cases of permanent change of residence, inform the Admiralty and the Commanding Officer of the College or the Cruiser without delay.

28. The course of study includes the following subjects:—

- Mathematics, with Geometrical Drawing.
- Physics and Chemistry.
- Mechanics and Applied Mechanics, with laboratory work.
- Applied Electricity, with laboratory work.
- Engineering, with workshop practice, and Mechanical Drawing.
- Seamanship, with Gunnery in the Training Cruiser.
- Navigation.
- French or German.
- English Grammar and Composition.
- English Literature.
- History, including Naval History.
- Geography.
- Bible Study.
- Drill and Physical Training.

A large proportion of the time of the Cadet is given to the practical study of Engineering in the Workshops and Instructional Steamboats attached to the Colleges, and also in the Training Cruisers.

29. In all subjects of instruction the principle will be followed of giving merit marks for current work. At the end of each term the Cadet's proficiency and progress will be tested, partly by examination, and partly by the marks gained for current work.

30. The passing-out examination of Cadets is representative of all subjects studied at the College, with the exception of Religious Knowledge, which does not form part of the official examination. Marks for work done during previous terms are combined with the marks directly awarded in the examination.

First, Second, and Third Classes will be awarded, and the class obtained in passing out counts afterwards towards promotion to the rank of Sub-Lieutenant, promotion being accelerated according to the following scale:—

For a First Class, 2 months.

For a Second Class, 1 month.

The greatest amount of time that can be gained on passing out is accordingly two months.

31. Cadets may be required to withdraw at any time if in the opinion of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty—

- (1) They fail to reach a satisfactory standard, or
- (2) Their conduct is unsatisfactory, or
- (3) They are unsuitable for the Naval Service.

32. It is to be distinctly understood that the period of training, including the time spent in the Training Cruiser, is a time of probation, and the parent or guardian of every Cadet is required to sign a declaration on the admission of a Cadet to the effect that he shall be immediately withdrawn on the receipt of an official request for his withdrawal.

33. When a Cadet is found to be making insufficient progress a letter is sent to his parent or guardian warning him of the possibility of having to withdraw the Cadet unless a marked improvement takes place. This warning is generally issued a term in advance, to enable the parent provisionally to make other arrangements for continuing the boy's education in case his withdrawal should become necessary.

SCHEDULES OF GEOMETRY IN THE QUALIFYING EXAMINATION.

A.—PRACTICAL GEOMETRY.

1. Bisection of angles and of straight lines.
2. Construction of perpendiculars to straight lines.
3. Construction of an angle equal to a given angle.
4. Construction of parallels to a given straight line.
5. Simple cases of the construction from sufficient data of triangles and quadrilaterals.
6. Division of straight lines into a given number of equal parts or into parts in any given proportion.
7. Construction of a triangle equal in area to a given polygon.

B.—THEORETICAL GEOMETRY.

Angles at a Point.

1. If a straight line stands on another straight line, the sum of the two angles so formed is equal to two right angles; and the converse.
2. If two straight lines intersect, the vertically opposite angles are equal.

3. When a straight line cuts two other straight lines, if (i.) a pair of alternate angles are equal, or (ii.) a pair of corresponding angles are equal, or (iii.) a pair of interior angles on the same side of the cutting line are together equal to two right angles, then the two straight lines are parallel; and the converse.
4. Straight lines which are parallel to the same straight line are parallel to one another.

5. The sum of the angles of a triangle is equal to two right angles.
6. If the sides of a convex polygon are produced in order, the sum of the angles so formed is equal to four right angles.
7. If two triangles have two sides of the one equal to two sides of the other, each to each, and also the angles contained by those sides equal, the triangles are congruent.
8. If two triangles have two angles of the one equal to two angles of the other, each to each, and also one side of the one equal to the corresponding side of the other, the triangles are congruent.
9. If two sides of a triangle are equal, the angles opposite to these sides are equal; and the converse.
10. If two triangles have the three sides of the one equal to the three sides of the other, each to each, the triangles are congruent.
11. If two right-angled triangles have their hypotenuses equal, and one side of the one equal to one side of the other, the triangles are congruent.
14. The opposite sides and angles of a parallelogram are equal, each diagonal bisects the parallelogram, and the diagonals bisect one another.
15. If there are three or more parallel straight lines, and the intercepts made by them on any straight line that cuts them are equal, then the corresponding intercepts on any other straight line that cuts them are also equal.

Areas.

16. Parallelograms on the same or equal bases and of the same altitude are equal in area.
17. Triangles on the same or equal bases and of the same altitude are equal in area.
18. Equal triangles on the same or equal bases are of the same altitude.
19. Illustrations and explanations of the geometrical theorems corresponding to the following algebraical identities:—

$$k(a + b + c + \dots) = ka + kb + kc + \dots,$$

$$(a + b)^2 = a^2 + 2ab + b^2,$$

$$(a - b)^2 = a^2 - 2ab + b^2,$$

$$a^2 - b^2 = (a + b)(a - b).$$

Loci.

21. The locus of a point which is equidistant from two fixed points is the perpendicular bisector of the straight line joining the two fixed points.
22. The locus of a point which is equidistant from two intersecting straight lines consists of a pair of straight lines which bisect the angles between the two given lines.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING SEXTANTS.

Cadets when entering on their fifth term at Dartmouth should already have procured a sextant in a box, such instrument being obtained by parents ; a leather case is not necessary.

† For first year at the Royal Naval College, Osborne, Cadets may wear any suitable black laced boots which they have been wearing prior to joining the College.

Any new sextant must be approved by the Captain of the College, and must have the following qualifications:—

- (1) Strong frame and well finished in all respects; all loose fittings to be stamped with the number.
- (2) Radius not to be less than  $6\frac{1}{2}$  inches to middle of the graduation.
- (3) Arc distinctly cut, and to read to 10 seconds up to at least  $125^\circ$  on, and  $5^\circ$  off; the arc, the vernier being divided three divisions to the right of the index.
- (4) Shades to be of neutral tint and of satisfactory densities.
- (5) A star telescope (not inverting images) to be provided, and an inverting telescope with two eyepieces, one of which to have a magnifying power of at least 7 diameters. The telescopes and collar to be fitted with interrupted thread.
- (6) Adjusting screws to mirrors to be placed in positions as little exposed as possible, preferably at the base of the mirrors, to be recessed so as to be moved by a squared key or screwdriver and fitted with covers.
- (7) Two shades for eyepieces of different intensities to be ground conical, to slip on, not screw.
- (8) Handle to be of good size.
- (9) Each sextant must be accompanied by a Kew Certificate, Class A.
- (10) A button over the handle besides the usual chocks for keeping the instrument in place when the lid is closed. Box to have recessed hooks for securing the lid and a recessed handle.
- (11) No sextant will be accepted in which the unsilvered portion of the horizon glass is absent, or the telescope so fitted as not to be entirely removable in one piece, and the horizon glass should have a minimum width of  $1\frac{1}{4}$  inch.
- (12) The name of the owner to be on both sextant and box.

Sextants possessing the necessary qualifications can be obtained from various makers.

A good  $6\frac{1}{2}$ -inch instrument can be obtained for £7. 10s.

Sextants presented to Cadets which have belonged to parents or others are not required to conform rigidly to the standard, provided they are of radius not less than that prescribed and are considered suitable by the Captain of the College; but no sextant can be accepted unless accompanied by a Kew Certificate, Class A.

SPECIAL ENTRY OF NAVAL CADETS.

In adjusting the supply of Naval Officers to the requirements of the fleet the fundamental condition is that, while it takes only two years to build a battleship, it takes about nine years from the time at which the Cadet enters Osborne to make a Naval Lieutenant.

The scheme of training instituted by the Board of Admiralty in 1903, which is based on the principle of the common entry and training of executive and engineer officers and the abolition of the old distinctions between them, is well established as the main source of supply of officers, and it has now been sufficiently tested by results to demonstrate the general soundness of the ideas on which it was founded.

The scheme of 1903, however, taken by itself, like any scheme under which the boy has to receive a lengthy general education and professional training after admission to the Navy, lacks the elasticity as to numbers which would enable the supply of officers to keep pace with additional demands arising from the unexpected expansion of the fleet. It was not possible nine years ago to estimate with certainty the present requirements of the fleet; and a situation has in fact arisen which makes the forthcoming provision of officers, based on calculations made in the early years of the new scheme, insufficient for the evident wants of the fleet in the near future.

The new requirements of the Air and Submarine Services alone account for a substantial addition to the list. The establishment of the Dominion Navies has thrown an additional demand upon the list of officers of the Royal Navy by whom the Dominion fleets will be in the first instance organized and manned. The Cadets' Colleges are filled to their utmost capacity; and though it is necessary to consider their enlargement as a provision for future requirements, no step of the kind could possibly meet the more immediate necessity. It has, therefore, become imperative to turn to supplementary sources of supply by which the prospective shortage may be expeditiously countered.

The greatly augmented demand for officers resulting from the increased requirements above referred to will be met in part by promotions from the lower deck and in part by absorption of officers of the R. N. R. from the Mercantile Marine; but estimates which have been prepared of the numbers of Lieutenants likely to be wanted in the years from 1916 to 1920 show that after allowing for these supplements to the normal source of supply there will still be a deficiency, to meet which officers should be provided in some other manner, so as to be available for service by 1920.

It is proposed to make good this deficiency by means of the special entry of a limited number of Cadets of about the age of 18 who have completed their general education in the public schools or elsewhere. A number of such Cadets not exceeding 30 annually will be admitted by competitive examination of selected candidates during this and each of the succeeding three years. They will be sent to a Naval establishment for a course of professional training before being distributed as Midshipmen in the fleet. Their service as Midshipmen will be somewhat shortened in comparison with that of other Midshipmen in view of their greater maturity. The same subsequent career will be open to them as to officers who have entered through Osborne. They will be free to volunteer for service in any one of the special branches.

It is necessary to repeat that the scheme of special admissions is in the nature of an emergency measure, designed to prevent the shortage referred to above, and that the intention of the Board is to retain the Osborne-Dartmouth training for Naval Officers.

A fundamental feature in the training of Cadets entered at Osborne is its large scientific and engineering element. This not only fits the young officer for service in the engine room, but gives him such an acquaintance with mechanical science as prepares him to handle intelligently the mechanical and electrical appliances of warships. It is highly important that officers entered in the manner now contemplated shall come to have as far as possible a like qualification.

With this view the Entrance Examination will be such as to attract candidates who have received at school a good grounding in Mathematics, Mechanics, and Physics. The subjects of examination will be nearly identical with those prescribed for entry to Woolwich, and the same question papers will be used, but some weight will be assigned to an elementary knowledge of engineering science in addition to the usual Woolwich subjects.

Further, the course of training which these Cadets will undergo after admission will consist largely of instruction of a practical kind in Naval engineering and in the service applications of electricity.

The first special entry under these conditions will take place by competitive examination in June next. Candidates must be not less than  $17\frac{1}{2}$  nor more than 19 on June 1. In 1914 and after the upper limit of age will be 18 $\frac{1}{2}$ . The names of candidates should be sent in addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, Whitehall, S.W., so as to reach him on or before April 30.

An Admiralty Committee will interview each candidate and examine credentials furnished by the head master of the school he is attending or last attended. A report will be obtained beforehand from the head master for the information of the Committee as to the candidate's conduct, abilities, past training and general promise of suitability. On the report of this Committee it will be determined whether the candidate shall be admitted to compete. Candidates must also pass the usual medical tests.

Candidates admitted to compete will present themselves for examination in June by the Civil Service Commissioners in the following subjects :—

|                                   | Marks. |
|-----------------------------------|--------|
| English                           | 2,000  |
| English History and Geography     | 2,000  |
| French or German or Latin         | 2,000  |
| Mathematics—                      |        |
| Elementary                        | 2,000  |
| Intermediate                      | 2,000  |
| Higher (optional)                 | 2,000  |
| Science (Physics and Chemistry)   | 2,000  |
| Elementary Engineering (optional) | 2,000  |

Both papers marked optional may be taken. Candidates will not be excluded who do not take the papers marked optional, but no candidate will be accepted who does not show a competent knowledge of Mathematics as well as obtain a satisfactory aggregate in the examination.

Certificate A obtained in the "Officers' Training Corps" will entitle the holder to an addition of 200 marks.

The question papers (except in Elementary Engineering) will be the same as those taken in corresponding subjects in the Military Entrance Examinations, particulars of which can be obtained from the Civil Service Commissioners, Burlington Gardens, W.

The paper on Elementary Engineering will comprise questions in the subjects of the attached schedule. The questions will be of a very elementary character, and knowledge of workshop practice will not be required.

Candidates who are successful in the competition will be admitted as Naval Cadets to a course of training. They will then be distributed for service as Midshipmen in the fleet. They will become Midshipmen later in age than Cadets who enter through Osborne, but their service in that rank will be shorter, with the general result that except for the effect of the accelerated promotion which they may obtain by doing well in their final examinations, their age will usually be about a year more on attaining the rank of Lieutenant. This will be no bar to their advancement according to merit.

Information respecting the pay and expenses of Naval officers may be obtained from the Secretary of the Admiralty.

REGULATIONS FOR THE SPECIAL ENTRY OF NAVAL CADETS.

1. Candidates for admission in 1913 must be not more than 19 nor less than 17½ years of age on June 1, 1913. No nomination is required. Applications should be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty, Whitehall, S.W., if possible before April 1, but will be accepted up to April 30. A form of application to be filled in by the parent or guardian of the candidate may be obtained from the Admiralty.

2. Candidates must be of pure European descent and the sons either of natural-born or naturalized British subjects. In doubtful cases the burden of clear proof will rest upon the candidate. Candidates must be unmarried.

3. Applicants who satisfy these conditions will be invited to appear before a Committee at the Admiralty, who will determine whether they will be admitted to compete. Candidates will be required to pass at the same time a Medical Examination, according to the prescribed regulations, as to their physical fitness for the Navy.

4. Every candidate must be in good health, and free from any physical defect of body, impediment of speech, defect of sight or hearing, and also from any predisposition to constitutional or hereditary disease or weakness of any kind, and be in all respects well developed and active in proportion to his age.

It should be particularly noted that full normal vision—as determined by Snellen's tests—is required for candidates for Naval Cadetships. A memorandum is issued by the Admiralty, which gives details of the physical requirements of candidates.

5. Candidates admitted to compete will present themselves for examination in June by the Civil Service Commissioners. Particulars of the examination can be obtained from the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, Burlington Gardens, W. (See also Appendix I. attached.)

By arrangement between the Admiralty and the War Office a candidate who is admitted to compete in the examination for special entry as a Naval Cadet may, if he so desires, and provided he fulfils all the necessary conditions, present himself at the same time for admission to the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, or Royal Military College, Sandhurst, or to supplementary first appointments in the Royal Marines, in which case he must express definitely his order of preference* before the examination has begun. For particulars of the conditions of entry to the Royal Military Academy and Royal Military College application should be made to the Secretary, Civil Service Commission.

Regulations for supplementary first appointments in the Royal Marines may be obtained from the Secretary of the Admiralty.

6. A list of successful candidates in order of merit will be published by the Civil Service Commission.

7. Successful candidates will be appointed as Cadets to undergo a course of training in a Naval establishment for a period of 1½ years. On completing this course, and passing out satisfactorily, they will join the fleet as Midshipmen.

8. Naval Cadets under training will be subject to the regulations for the time being in force respecting such Cadets.

* Following the Army Regulations, a candidate may say that if he is not among the first (so many) successful competitors for the Royal Military Academy or the Royal Military College (as the case may be) he will elect for a Naval Cadetship.

9. Parents or guardians are required to make a private allowance of £50 per annum to Cadets from the time they join the Naval Service until they reach the rank of Sub-Lieutenant (namely, for a period of about 3½ years). On reaching the rank of Sub-Lieutenant an officer is required to provide himself with the uniform of a Commissioned Officer.

10. Cadets will be paid 1s. a day from the time of entry until they become Midshipmen, when their pay will become 1s. 9d. a day. On reaching the rank of Sub-Lieutenant an officer will be paid 5s. a day. The commencing rate of pay of a Lieutenant, reached after at most two years as Sub-Lieutenant, is 10s. a day. A Sub-Lieutenant can meet his mess and other necessary expenditure on the pay of 5s. a day.

11. The parent or guardian of every Cadet is required to provide outfit under the regulations in force. A list of the outfit required under present regulations is attached. The outfit, together with a sextant, costs about £60.

12. All travelling expenses for Cadets are advanced by the Paymaster of the Naval Establishment to which they are attached, but will be charged to the Cadet.

Such money as may be required by Cadets for any special circumstance will be advanced by the Paymaster under the authority of their Commanding Officer.

13. Parents or guardians of Cadets must in all cases of permanent change of residence communicate the same to the Admiralty and to the Commanding Officer of the Naval Establishment in which their sons are serving.

14. Cadets may be required to withdraw at any time if in the opinion of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty—

- (1) They fail to obtain a satisfactory standard, or
- (2) Their conduct is unsatisfactory, or
- (3) They are for any reason considered unsuitable for the Naval Service.

15. It will be open to officers after reaching Commissioned rank to volunteer for service in any one of the special branches, undertaking either Navigation, Gunnery, Torpedo, or Engineering duty.

Admiralty, March, 1913.

By command of Their Lordships,
W. GRAHAM GREENE.
