DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to empower the Trustees of Saint Thomas's College, Colombo, to sell the same.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by a grant No. 2,103 dated the Second day of September, One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, and attested by Frederick John de Saram of Colombo, in the Island of Ceylon, Notary Public, James Chapman by Divine Permission the Lord Bishop of Colombo, being seized and possessed of certain land and premises forming the College of Saint Thomas the Apostle, fully described in the aforesaid grant, being desirous that the same should be set apart for ever as the College and Collegiate School of Saint Thomas the Apostle, for the education of youth in sound learning and religious instruction according to the principles of the United Church of England and Ireland, transferred, assigned, and set over unto the Incorporated

Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts and the Bishop of Colombo and his successors for the time being all that garden with all the buildings thereon constructed and erected, and forming the College and Collegiate School of Saint Thomas the Apostle, situated on the south-east of the road leading to Vuystwyk between Tankisalgado and Cotanchina, within the Municipality of Colombo, to the end and effect that the said Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts and the said Bishop of Colombo and his successors for the time being should and might hold the same in trust for ever for the purposes mentioned in the said grant :

And whereas the said land and buildings have become unsuited for the purposes for which the same were granted as aforesaid, and it is necessary and expedient to sell the same, and to apply the proceeds of such sales in the purchase of other land and in the erection of a new Chapel, College, and Collegiate School, and other necessary buildings thereon :

And whereas presently the Right Reverend Ernest Arthur Copleston is the Bishop of Colombo, in succession to the previous Bishops of Colombo, and they the Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts and the said Ernest Arthur Copleston, Bishop of Colombo, hold the said land and College and Collegiate School, known as Saint Thomas's College, and the other buildings thereon, in trust as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said grant :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Saint Thomas's College Ordinance, No. of 1913."

Power of trustees to sell and application of proceeds of sale.

2 It shall be lawful for, and the power is hereby granted to, the said Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts and the said Ernest Arthur Copleston, Bishop of Colombo, as trustees aforesaid, to sell the said land conveyed by the said grant, together with the buildings thereon or any portion of such land, together with the buildings on such portion, either by public auction or private contract, and by writing under their hands to convey and transfer the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof absolutely freed and discharged of and from all and every the trusts, terms, and conditions in the said grant contained concerning the same, and to apply the proceeds of such sale in the purchase of other suitable land and in the erection thereon of new buildings to serve as a Chapel, College, Collegiate School, Divinity School, and Orphan Asylum, to be called and known as "The College and Collegiate School of Saint Thomas the Apostle."

Vesting of property purchased with proceeds of sale.

3 The land to be purchased and the new buildings to be erected as aforesaid shall be held by the said Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts and the said Ernest Arthur Copleston, Bishop of Colombo, and his successors for the time being in trust for the purposes and objects and subject to the terms and conditions in the said grant contained.

By His Excellency's command,

L. W. BOOTH,
Colonial Secretary's Office, Acting Colonial Secretary.
Colombo, September 19, 1913.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to give power to the Trustees of St. Thomas's College to sell the College premises and invest the proceeds in the purchase of other land to be held by them subject to the same trusts. The deed creating the trust does not give them this power.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Rural Schools Ordinance,
No. 8 of 1907."

Preamble.	WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Rural Schools Ordinance, No. 8 of 1907," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:
Short title.	1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Rural Schools (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1913."
Moneys invalidly expended to be deemed validly expended.	2 All moneys expended before the passing of this Ordinance on any work done or purporting to have been done under the principal Ordinance by any District School Committee shall be deemed to have been properly and validly expended, notwithstanding that such expenditure shall not have been in accordance with the provisions of the principal Ordinance.
Substitution of new section 17.	3 For section 17 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted:
Provision of fund and labour.	17. Whenever any scheme has been thus approved, the village committees in the school district shall annually place at the disposal of the District School Committee, for the purpose of carrying out any work under this Ordinance, the money or labour which can be made available under section 6 of "The Village Communities Ordinance, 1889," for the purposes mentioned in sub-section (2) of the said section.
Substitution of new sub-section for sub-section (1) (c) of section 20.	4 For paragraph (c) of sub-section (1) of section 20 of the principal Ordinance the following paragraph shall be substituted: (c) Determining the penalty not exceeding a fine of twenty rupees, or, in default of payment, imprisonment, rigorous or simple, for a period not exceeding fourteen days, and in the case of a continuing penalty an additional fine not exceeding ten rupees per day, to be attached for the breach of any by-law.
Substitution of new sub-section for sub-section (3) of section 24 of the principal Ordinance.	5 For sub-section (3) of section 24 the following sub-section shall be substituted: (3) Every Village School Committee shall annually place at the disposal of the District School Committee for the purposes of this Ordinance such money or labour as can be made available for constructing and repairing school rooms.
Substitution of new section 37.	6 For section 37 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted: 37. All fines under this Ordinance shall be paid into the funds of the District School Committee of the district in which the school in relation to which the offence was committed is situated.

By His Excellency's command,

L. W. BOOTH,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Acting Colonial Secretary.
Colombo, September 16, 1913.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

UNDER Ordinance No. 8 of 1907 the money placed at the disposal of a District Committee by any school division has to be applied solely for the purposes of that division. Experience has shown that if each school district had only one fund, the objects of the Ordinance could be more easily attained, and this amending Ordinance provides for the necessary alteration of the law.

2. In practice, in some parts of the Island the contributions of the school divisions in a school district have been funded together, and the money spent by the District School Committee at its discretion. As this procedure is not justified under the Ordinance, provision has been made for legalizing the expenditure hitherto incurred.
