DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Youthful Offenders Ordinance, 1886."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Youthful Offenders Ordinance, 1886": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Youthful Offenders (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1913."

Addition of new section 20 A.

2 Immediately after section 20 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added and shall be numbered 20 A:

Removal of sick youthful offenders to a public hospital.

20 A (1) It shall be lawful for the manager of a reformatory or certified industrial school, by writing under his hand, to direct the removal of any sick youthful offender from a reformatory or certified industrial school to any public hospital, and such writing shall be sufficient warrant for the medical officer of such hospital to receive and detain therein such youthful offender, subject to the lawful orders of the said manager.

(2) Every youthful offender so received into such hospital as aforesaid, so long as he shall not be entitled to his discharge from such reformatory or certified industrial school in due course of law, shall continue to be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and to any rules made thereunder in the same manner and in every respect as if he were within a reformatory or certified industrial school.

(3) The medical officer of such hospital shall in respect of such youthful offender have all such powers and be liable to all such duties as by law the manager of a reformatory or certified industrial school has and is liable to.

Re-transfer to reformatory or certified industrial school.

(4) If at any time before the youthful offender shall be entitled to his discharge from such reformatory or certified industrial school in due course of law, it appears advisable to the medical officer in charge of the hospital that the youthful offender should be re-transferred to the reformatory or certified industrial school from which he was removed, he shall apply to the manager of the said reformatory or certified industrial school for a warrant of re-transfer, and such warrant signed by such manager shall be sufficient authority for the re-transfer of such youthful offender.

(5) The manager of the reformatory or certified industrial school shall forthwith report to the Director of Education the removal of a youthful offender to a hospital or the re-transfer of such youthful offender to the reformatory or certified industrial school from such hospital.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 22, 1913. R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

No provision has been made in Ordinance No. 1 of 1886 for the removal of a sick juvenile offender to a hospital. The object of the present Ordinance is to enable the manager of a reformatory to direct such removal and to provide for the detention of the offender while in hospital and his due return to the reformatory.

Similar provisions affecting adult prisoners are to be found in section 9 of Ordinance No. 24 of 1890.
