DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Land Acquisition (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1914," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Substitution of a new section for section 47 of the principal Ordinance.

2 For section 47 of the principal Ordinance, which was added by section 2 of "The Land Acquisition (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 25 of 1912," the following section shall be substituted:

Acquisition by way of gift.

47. If in any case in which proceedings have been taken for the acquisition of any land under this Ordinance for a public purpose, the person claiming to be the owner of the land desires to make a free gift of the land to His Majesty for the said purpose and to renounce all claim to compensation therefor, a record in writing to that effect duly signed by such person in the presence of the officer acquiring the land on behalf of the Crown, or in the presence of any person authorized by him in writing in that behalf, shall be sufficient to vest the land in His Majesty absolutely, and shall have the same effect for the purpose of barring claims for compensation at the instance of any person whomsoever as payment of compensation under section 36.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, December 1, 1913. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

UNDER section 47 of "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876," as amended by Ordinance No. 25 of 1912, if the claimant desires to make a free gift of the land sought to be acquired to His Majesty, a record in writing to that effect has to be signed by him in the presence of the officer acquiring the land on behalf of the Crown. This procedure has been found inconvenient, and it is now proposed to permit of such record being signed in the presence of any person authorized in writing by such officer.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, November 27, 1913.

J. VAN LANGENBERG,
Acting Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Forest Ordinance, 1907."

- Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Forest Ordinance, 1907": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:
- Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Forest (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1913," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.
- Substitution of new section 22. 2 For section 22 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following section:
- Penalties. 22. Any person who commits a breach of any of the provisions of, or rules made under, this chapter shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description which may extend to six months, or to both.
- Proviso. Provided that if the offence be that of clearing chena land over two acres in extent, the court may sentence the offender to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to a fine of fifty rupees for every acre or portion of an acre in respect of which the offence was committed, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to both.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, December 10, 1913. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

At present the penalty for the offence of clearing chena under this Ordinance is a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months. The maximum fine is inadequate in view of the profits that are made. The draft Bill provides for an increased fine according to the acreage cleared, and empowers a Judge to award imprisonment in addition.
