DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Forest Ordinance, 1907."

Preamble.	WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Forest Ordinance, 1907": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:
Short title.	1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Forest (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1913," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.
Substitution of new section 22.	2 For section 22 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following section:
Penalties.	22. Any person who commits a breach of any of the provisions of, or rules made under, this chapter shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description which may extend to six months, or to both.

Provido.

Provided that if the offence be that of clearing chena land over two acres in extent, the court may sentence the offender to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to a fine of fifty rupees for every acre or portion of an acre in respect of which the offence was committed, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to both.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, December 10, 1913.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

At present the penalty for the offence of clearing chena under this Ordinance is a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months. The maximum fine is inadequate in view of the profits that are made. The draft Bill provides for an increased fine according to the acreage cleared, and empowers a Judge to award imprisonment in addition.
