NOTIFICATIONS UNDER "THE PATENTS ORDINANCE, 1906."

THE following Specification has been accepted :—

No. 1,389 of January 8, 1914.

Wilhelm Klapproth.

"An improved process of coagulating caoutchouc milk."

Abstract :

The inventor states :—

Among the chemical processes which have been proposed for the purpose of coagulating caoutchouc milk is one in which alum is used, but certain deleterious effects of the alum have prevented the adoption of this process in practice. The cause of these deleterious effects has not hitherto been discovered, but I have found, after exhaustive experiments, that these effects can be avoided by using aluminium salts of lactic acid, instead of an inorganic double salt, such as alum, and the use of such lactic acid salts has many advantages.

The product obtained by coagulation with aluminium lactate, especially the normal lactate, is of excellent quality, and of light colour.

As an example illustrating the process I may mention that 3,000 gr. of caoutchouc milk may be coagulated in about 3 minutes by means of 250 ccm. of a 5 per cent. solution of aluminium lactate.

The claim is :—

The process of coagulating caoutchouc milk by means of solutions of lactic acid salts of aluminium, especially normal aluminium lactate.

It is agreed that the regulations contained in the Table C in the schedule annexed to the "Joint Stock Companies Ordinance, 1861," subject to the hereinafter mentioned modifications, shall be deemed to be the regulations of the Company.

The modifications are as follows:—

Issuing and Transferring of Shares.—Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the office of the Company for approval by the Directors, accompanied by such evidence, as may be required by the Directors to prove the title of the transferor. If the transfer be approved, such approval shall be certified in writing under the hand of two of the Directors endorsed on such instrument of transfer, and the Company shall thereupon register the transferee as a Shareholder. If the transfer be not approved, the proposed transfer shall be absolutely void, and notice of non-approval shall be sent to the Shareholder intending to transfer such shares. If no notice of non-approval shall be sent to the Shareholder within thirty days, the transfer shall be deemed to have been approved.

One Share one Vote.—Each Shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for every share held by him.

Proxies and Agents.—Each Shareholder shall be entitled to have a representative or proxy (duly authorized and notified to the Company beforehand) at all meetings he does not personally attend. Such representative or proxy must himself be a Shareholder. Any Shareholder resident out of the Island must authorize a representative, agent, or attorney with an address within the Island to receive on his behalf all such notices as the Company is bound to give to Shareholders, and must register such agent's address at the Company's office, and any such Shareholder failing so to do shall be regarded as having dispensed with notice. Every person who by operation of law, by transfer, or other means shall become entitled to any share shall be bound by any and every notice or other document which, previous to his name and address being entered on the Company's register of shares, shall already have been given to the person from whom he derives his title.

When any notice or document is delivered or sent, in accordance with these presents, to the registered address of a Shareholder or of a Shareholder's registered agent, then, notwithstanding his being then deceased, and whether or not the Company shall have had notice of his decease, such delivery or despatch of the notice or document shall, for all purposes, be deemed sufficient service thereof on his heirs, executors, and administrators.

Directors.—The number of Directors shall be five, three of whom shall form a quorum, and the Directors for the first year shall be those who have been appointed by the subscribers hereof. Every Director shall hold in his own name, and not jointly with another, not less than ten shares in the Company.

To bring or defend or abandon any action, suit, or prosecution or other legal proceedings, and to accept responsibility for the acts of officers of the Company.

To carry into effect all or any of the objects of the Company as expressed in the Memorandum of Association, and to exercise all or any of the powers thereby given to the Company. Provided, however, that the seal of the Company shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of at least two Directors, who shall attest the seal thereof. And provided further that all moneys, except the moneys required for current expenses, shall from time to time be deposited by the Directors with the Bankers of the Company to the account of "The Traders Union Company of Cotta, Limited," and cheques shall be signed and all bills drawn, accepted, and endorsed by at least one Director and the Secretary. And provided also that the Directors shall not have the power to purchase shares of the Company on behalf of themselves or others with the Company's funds.
