DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 9 of 1885, intituled
 “An Ordinance to further provide for the Protection of certain Descriptions of Produce.”

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Ordinance No. 9 of 1885, intituled “An Ordinance to further provide for the Protection of certain Descriptions of Produce”: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as “The Protection of certain Descriptions of Produce (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1914.”

Amendment of section 1. 2 (1) For the definition of the word “plantation” in section 1 of the principal Ordinance, the following definition shall be substituted, namely:

“Plantation” shall include any land on which coffee, tea, cacao, cardamoms, rubber, or cinchona are growing, as also coconut estates of over twenty-five acres in extent.

(2) For the definition of the word “produce” in section 1 of the principal Ordinance, the following definition shall be substituted, namely:

“Produce” shall include any plant cultivated in any plantation, and the fruit, leaf, bark, roots, stem, or other portion of any such plant.

Substitution of new section 3 for section 3 of the principal Ordinance.

Possessor of unripe produce to be deemed guilty of theft until contrary be shown.

3 For section 3 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted and shall be numbered 3 :

3 Whenever the unripe fruit of the coffee or cacao tree, or of the tea or cardamom plant, or of the arecanut palm, or the bark, whether of the branch, root, or stem, of the cinchona tree, or any tea plant, or the seed, leaf, roots, stem, or any other portion thereof, or any rubber plant, or the seed, stem, roots, or any other portion thereof, shall be found in the possession of any person who is unable to give a satisfactory account of his possession thereof, such person shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of an offence, and shall on conviction be liable to the punishment provided for the theft of prædial products under section 368 of "The Ceylon Penal Code." Provided that should the offence be one for which a person may be convicted before a Police Magistrate, such Police Magistrate may, in addition to any term of imprisonment to which the offender may be sentenced by him for such offence, order such offender to be whipped in the manner prescribed by "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," but the number of lashes or strokes to be inflicted shall in no case exceed the limit prescribed by Ordinance No. 3 of 1904.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May, 7, 1914.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to bring rubber plantations and rubber and tea plants within the Ordinance passed in 1885 for "the protection of certain descriptions of produce."

2. The Ordinance referred to deals with three offences :—

- (a) Loitering about plantations.
- (b) Unlawful possession of produce.
- (c) Purchase of produce from labourers.

3. The effect of the present Ordinance is as follows :—

- (a) Tea plantations are already within the section dealing with the offence of loitering about plantations. Rubber plantations are brought within the scope of this offence by an amendment of the definition of "plantation."
- (b) The offence of unlawful possession of produce is by new section 3 extended so as to cover tea and rubber plants and any parts thereof.
- (c) The offence of purchasing produce from labourers, which already extends to labourers employed on tea plantations, is by the amendment of the definition above referred to extended to labourers employed on rubber plantations.
