By His Excellency's command,

Colombo, May 22, 1914.
R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Draft Bill is in substitution for the Draft Bill already published in the Gazette (see Government Gazette No. 6,604 of January 30, 1914).

2. The object of the Draft Bill is—

- (a) To correct an error in the Schedule to the Excise Ordinance, No. 8 of 1912. Sections 17 of Ordinance No. 5 of 1899 and 3 of Ordinance No. 9 of 1905 having already been repealed should not have appeared in the schedule.
- (b) To add the word "cocaine" immediately after the word "ganja" in line 5 of paragraph (b) of sub-section (11) of section 3 of the Excise Ordinance, to enable the Governor to declare what shall be deemed to be cocaine. This amendment is inserted with a view to the stricter control it is intended to exercise over the supply of cocaine.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Game Protection Ordinance (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1914."

Substitution of new sub-section (3) for sub-section (3) of section 12 of the principal Ordinance.

2 For sub-section (3) of section 12 of the principal Ordinance, the following sub-section shall be substituted:

(3) Any person who in contravention of this Ordinance, or contrary to the tenor of any license issued to him, shall shoot at, kill, pursue, capture, or attempt to capture an elephant, shall on conviction be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment which may extend to six months, or to both, and the elephant, if captured, shall be confiscated.

Substitution of new section 12 A.

3 For section 12 A which was added to the principal Ordinance by section 4 of Ordinance No. 13 of 1912, the following section shall be substituted, and shall be numbered 12 A:

Unlawful possession of tuskers or elephants.

12 A (1) Any person in unlawful possession of a tusker or an elephant shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, and, subject to the rights of any lawful captor or possessor, the tusker or elephant shall be confiscated.

(2) A person shall be deemed to be in unlawful possession of a tusker or an elephant unless—

- (a) He is the captor of such tusker or elephant under a license issued under this Ordinance; or
- (b) He is the successor in title to such captor; or
- (c) He is in possession on behalf of such captor, or his successor in title.

(3) In any proceedings for an offence under this section the onus of proving the lawfulness of the possession shall lie on the person accused.

Addition of new section 12 B.

4 After the section numbered 12 A, which was added to the principal Ordinance by the last preceding section, the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 12 B:

Power of police officer or police headman to detain tusker or elephant on suspicion.

12 B Where a person is reasonably suspected of being the unlawful captor or possessor of a tusker, or the unlawful captor or possessor of an elephant, it shall be lawful for a police officer or police headman to detain such tusker or elephant in his custody pending an order of the court.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 14, 1914.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE first object of this Bill is to increase the fine which may be imposed for, inter alia, the capture of a wild elephant from Rs. 250 to Rs. 500, the existing fine not being regarded as sufficiently deterrent.

2. Its second object is to empower a court to order the confiscation of a wild elephant which has been captured in contravention of the terms of the Ordinance, or contrary to the tenor of the license issued to the captor. This is merely an extension to wild elephants of the law relating to the illegal capture of wild tuskers.

3. Its third object is to extend the law relating to the unlawful possession of wild tuskers to wild elephants. At present the capture of a wild elephant without a license is an offence, but a man may purchase such an elephant from its unlawful captor with impunity. The unlawful possession of a wild elephant is made an offence. Further, wild elephants and wild tuskers found in the unlawful possession of any person are to be subject to confiscation.

4. Its fourth object is to authorize a police officer or a police headman to detain a wild elephant or wild tusker pending the orders of a court when any person is reasonably suspected of being the unlawful captor or possessor of such elephant or tusker.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, April 21, 1914.

Attorney-General.
