DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to repeal "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. 18 of 1912," and to re-enact another Ordinance in its place.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. 18 of 1912," and to replace it by the Ordinance following: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. of 1914."

Repeal.

2 (1) "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. 18 of 1912," is hereby repealed.

(2) All orders made under the Ordinance hereby repealed which were in force at the commencement of this Ordinance shall continue to be in force until they are rescinded or superseded by orders made under this Ordinance.

Power of Governor to regulate navigation of aircraft.

3 (1) The Governor in Executive Council may, by order notified in the "Government Gazette"—

(a) For the purpose of protecting the public from danger and for the purpose of the defence or safety of the Colony, prohibit the navigation of aircraft over such areas as may be prescribed in the order; and

(b) Prescribe the areas within which aircraft coming from any place outside the Colony are to land, and the other conditions to be complied with by such aircraft.

(2) When an order is made for the purposes of the defence or safety of the Colony, the area prescribed may include the whole or any part of the coast line of the Colony and the territorial waters adjacent thereto.

Extent of power.

4 Any order made under paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 3 may apply either generally to all aircraft or to aircraft of such classes and descriptions only as may be specified in the order, and may prohibit the navigation of aircraft over any such prescribed area either at all times or at such times or on such occasions only as may be specified in the order, and either absolutely or subject to such exceptions or conditions as may be so specified.

Offences.

5 Any person who—

(1) Navigates an aircraft over any area in contravention of any order made under paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 3; or

(2) Contravenes any of the provisions of any order made under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of section 3, shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, unless he proves that he was compelled to do so by reason of stress of weather or other circumstances over which he had no control.

Trial and punishment of offences.

6 (1) If any person is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both.

(2) In any case in which any person is charged with an offence against this Ordinance, the Magistrate may make an order for the detention of the aircraft pending the trial.

Confiscation of aircraft.

7 (1) If in the case of any offence under this Ordinance the Magistrate is satisfied that there is reasonable ground to suspect that the aircraft was used in contravention of this Ordinance for a purpose prejudicial to the interests of the State, the burden of proof that the aircraft was not used for such purpose shall be upon the person charged.

(2) If it is proved that the aircraft was used for such purpose, or if the person charged fails to discharge the said burden of proof, the Magistrate may make an order for the confiscation of the aircraft.

Power to compel compliance when aircraft disobeys signals.

8 If an aircraft flies or attempts to fly over any area prescribed under this Ordinance for the purposes of the defence or safety of the Colony, or, in the case of an aircraft coming from any place outside the Colony, fails to comply with any of the conditions as to landing prescribed by an order under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of section 3, any officer designated for the purpose by regulations made by the Governor may cause such signal as may be prescribed by these regulations to be given, and if after such signal has been given the aircraft fails to respond to the signal by complying with such regulations as may be made by the Governor prescribing the action to be taken on such a signal being given, the officer may fire at or into such aircraft and use any and every other means necessary to compel compliance, and every and any such officer and every other person acting in his aid and by his direction shall be and is hereby indemnified and discharged from any charge, action, or other proceeding for so doing.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 29, 1914.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to repeal "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. 18 of 1912," and to replace it by one which will be more in exact conformity with the present Imperial legislation.

2. The Ordinance of 1912 was based upon the Aerial Navigation Act, 1911. In some respects the Ceylon Ordinance went beyond that Act, and anticipated the provisions of a further Aerial Navigation Act passed in 1913. It has been thought desirable in the interests of uniformity, instead of amending our own legislation, to repeal it, and to re-enact it in, so far as possible, identical terms with the present English Acts.

3. The present Ordinance in its actual effect extends Ceylon legislation only in one particular, namely, in giving power to shoot at aircraft disregarding signals. (See section 8.)

4. In one respect the existing Ceylon legislation is restricted. "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. 18 of 1912," did not limit the purposes in respect of which the Government was authorized to prohibit the navigation of aircraft over areas within the Colony. Section 3 of the present Ordinance, in accordance with the Imperial precedent, limits these purposes to two, namely:—

- (a) The protection of the public from danger; and
- (b) The defence or safety of the Colony.

5. Two special provisions of previous Ceylon legislation, namely:—

- (a) The power to order the detention of aircraft pending trial; and
- (b) The power to confiscate aircraft used for purposes prejudicial to the interests of the State, though not comprised in the Imperial legislation, are here retained.

- Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892," in certain particulars: Be it, therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :
- Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Small Towns Sanitary (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1914."
- Amendment of section 5 (2) (b). 2 In lines 3 and 4 of paragraph (b) of sub-section (2) of section 5 of the principal Ordinance the words "under section 4 of 'The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862,'" shall be repealed.
- Addition of new section 5 A. 3 Immediately after section 5 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 5 A :
- Authority to levy fees on licenses granted by Sanitary Boards under the provisions of the Ordinance or under by-laws made under the Ordinance. 5 A Where any license is granted by a Sanitary Board or the Chairman under the provisions of this Ordinance authorizing the use of any place for any of the purposes described in this Ordinance or any by-law thereunder, the Board may charge a fee for such license, and the rates of the fees to be so charged shall be from time to time determined by the Board, with the sanction of the Governor in Council ; provided—
- (1) That no such fee shall exceed the sum of one hundred rupees per year ; and
- (2) That no license for any of the purposes mentioned in section 4 of "The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862," shall be given by the Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent under the said section 4 of the said Ordinance in any town subject to the provisions of this Ordinance.

Addition of new section 37.

A town or village falling within two or more administrative limits may be brought within the authority of a Sanitary Board.

4 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance :

37 (1) Where any town or village proposed to be brought under the operation of this Ordinance is situated within two or more administrative limits subject to different Sanitary Boards, the proclamation or resolution bringing such town within the operation of the Ordinance may declare that the whole of such town shall be subject to the authority of the Sanitary Board designated in the proclamation or resolution.

(2) In any such case the whole of any such town shall for the purposes of this or any other Ordinance regulating the powers and duties of Sanitary Boards be included in the district or Province of the Sanitary Board so designated.

(3) If in the case of any town or village so brought under the operation of this Ordinance an order is made under section 35, the whole of such town or village shall, for the purposes of "The Rural Schools Ordinance, 1907," be deemed to be within the revenue district or Province in which it is included under such proclamation or resolution.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 29, 1914.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE first object of this Ordinance is to give to Sanitary Boards, for the purpose of the regulation of offensive trades, the same powers as those proposed to be given to Local Boards under the Local Boards (Amendment) Ordinance published herewith. The effect of the two Ordinances will be to unify the position of Municipalities, Local Boards, and Sanitary Boards in this respect. Reference is invited to the Statement of Objects and Reasons attached to the Local Boards (Amendment) Ordinance above referred to.

2. At present the power to issue perpetual licenses under a twenty-rupee stamp for the regulation of offensive trades under section 4 of "The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862," is not vested in the Sanitary Board. It still remains vested in the Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent, but the stamp duty goes to the Sanitary Board fund. Sanitary Boards, however, have the same power as Local Boards to require persons carrying on offensive trades to take out licenses free of duty.

3. The proposals of this Bill will assimilate the position of Sanitary Boards to the proposed position of Local Boards under the Draft Ordinance above referred to.

4. The second object of the Ordinance is to provide for the case of a small town or village which it is proposed to bring under the operation of the Ordinance, and which is situated within the administrative limits of two or more Sanitary Boards. It is proposed that the proclamation or resolution which brings the town or village under the operation of the Ordinance shall designate the particular Sanitary Board to which the town or village shall be subject for the purpose of this Ordinance or any other Ordinance relating to the powers and duties of Sanitary Boards. Provision is at the same time made for the case of any town so circumstanced being made subject to "The Rural Schools Ordinance, 1907," under section 35 of the principal Ordinance.

An Ordinance to amend "The Local Boards Ordinance, 1898."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Local Boards Ordinance, 1898," in certain particulars : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Local Boards (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1914."

Amendment of section 29.

2 In lines 3 and 4 of sub-section (2) of section 29 the words "under section 4 of 'The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862,'" shall be repealed.

Addition of a new section 29 A.

Authority to levy fees on licenses granted by Local Boards under the provisions of the Ordinance or under by-laws made under the Ordinance.

3 After section 29 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added and shall be numbered 29 A :

29 A Where any license is granted by a Local Board or the Chairman under the provisions of this Ordinance authorizing the use of any place for any of the purposes described in this Ordinance or any by-law thereunder, the Board may charge a fee for such license, and the rates of the fees to be so charged shall be from time to time determined by the Board, with the sanction of the Governor in Council. Provided—

- (1) That no such fee shall exceed the sum of one hundred rupees per year; and
- (2) That no license for any of the purposes mentioned in section 4 of "The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862," shall be given by the Government Agent or the Assistant Government Agent under the said section 4 of the said Ordinance in any town subject to the provisions of this Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 29, 1914.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to correct an anomaly in local Government legislation. The anomaly consists in the existence of two overlapping and inconsistent enactments for the regulation of offensive trades. The occasion for the amendment of the law arises in connection with brick kilns, and it will be convenient, therefore, to explain the proposed amendment with reference to this special instance.

2. The first of these enactments is section 4 of "The Nuisances Ordinance, No. 15 of 1862." Under that Ordinance a brick kiln being "a manufactory from which offensive smells arise" is required to be licensed by the Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent. The license carries a stamp of £2, and is perpetual.

3. By a succession of enactments the powers of the Government Agent have been transferred in Local Board areas to the Local Board (see section 55 of "The Local Boards Ordinances, No. 13 of 1898"), and by section 29 of the Ordinance all sums paid for fees and stamp duties for licenses under section 4 of the Nuisances Ordinance are to be paid into the local fund.

4. The second of the inconsistent enactments referred to is contained in section 56 of the Local Boards Ordinance. By paragraph 7 of that section the Local Board may make by-laws "for the regulation of dangerous or offensive trades," and in the model by-laws attached as a Schedule to that Ordinance there is a by-law (Chapter V.) which regulates offensive trades. Among the trades and manufactories specified in that by-law are brick kilns. The by-law provides for the issue of a license by the Chairman of the Local Board. This license is annual, and is not subject to any stamp duty.

5. There are thus two possible licenses for brick kilns which may be issued by the Local Board, one a perpetual license with a fee of Rs. 20, and the other an annual license without fee.

6. The same anomaly existed in Municipal towns, but here it has already been dealt with by section 212 of the Municipalities Ordinance, which gives the Municipal Council power to regulate offensive or dangerous trades or businesses, and declares that no license in connection with them shall be issued under section 4 of the Nuisances Ordinance.

7. Under the Municipal Councils Ordinance, by section 233 the Council has a general power to charge fees for any licenses it may issue under the authority of that Ordinance. Local Boards, however, have no authority to charge any fee. They are entitled to require the taking out of licenses in connection with any matter which they are empowered to regulate (see Interpretation Ordinance, No. 21 of 1901, section 11 (1) (d)); but such licenses must be without fee.

8. It is accordingly proposed to bring Local Boards in this matter into line with Municipalities, and to give them the same general right of charging fees as is possessed by Municipal Councils, and to follow the precedent of the Municipal Councils Ordinance by excluding the application of section 4 of "The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862," within Local Board limits.

9. In Municipalities the limit of the annual fee that may be imposed under section 233 is Rs. 500, but that section covers other matters besides fees on licenses, and it is not considered that so large a power of taxation need be conferred upon minor local Government authorities. The limit proposed by the Bill is accordingly Rs. 100.

10. The effect will be, so far as brick kilns are concerned, that the perpetual license under a twenty-rupee stamp will be superseded and replaced by an annual license subject to such a fee, not exceeding Rs. 100, as the Local Board, with the approval of the Governor in Executive Council, may determine.
