DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Identification and Supervision of Habitual Criminals.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the identification and supervision of habitual criminals and their more effective punishment and for their prolonged detention, and also to provide for enlarging convicts upon licenses and controlling them when at large: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Habitual Criminals and Licensed Convicts Ordinance, No. of 191 ."

Repeal.

2 (1) The Ordinances No. 7 of 1899, No. 7 of 1908, and section 13 of Ordinance No. 14 of 1907 are hereby repealed.

(2) All rules made under Ordinance No. 7 of 1899, as amended by section 13 of Ordinance No. 14 of 1907 and by Ordinance No. 7 of 1908, which were in force at the commencement of this Ordinance, shall continue to be in force until they are rescinded or superseded by rules made under this Ordinance.

Definitions.

3 For the purposes of this Ordinance—

"Crime" shall mean a breach of any one of the sections of the Penal Code included in the schedule A hereto.

“Habitual criminal” shall mean a person convicted of a crime against whom a previous conviction of a crime is proved, or a person liable under section 83 of “The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898,” to be ordered to execute a bond with sureties for his good behaviour.

“Superintendent of Police” shall include Additional Superintendent of Police, Assistant Superintendent of Police, and the chief headman of the district.

Rules to be made by the Governor.

4 The Governor in Executive Council may from time to time make rules—

- (1) Prescribing the methods of identifying habitual criminals or persons suspected of having been previously convicted ;
- (2) Regulating the supervision of habitual criminals ;
- (3) Prescribing the conditions under which convicts may be at large and under the supervision of the police ;
- (4) Providing for the appointment by the Inspector-General of Police of officers to superintend the registration of habitual criminals and to carry out the rules hereunder ; and
- (5) Regulating the treatment of habitual criminals undergoing sentences of preventive detention ; and may revoke, annul, or alter or amend such rules as the occasion may require. All rules so made, revoked, annulled, altered, or amended as hereinafter provided shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall have the force of law.

Provided, however, that all such rules shall be laid before the Legislative Council if in session within one month of such publication, and if not in session within one month of the commencement of the session next ensuing, and in either case shall lie on the table during four sittings at least of the Council, and any rule which has been disapproved by resolution of the Council shall cease to have any force or effect.

Power to remand persons charged for purposes of identification.

5 When a person charged with a crime, upon prima facie evidence led, is suspected of having been previously convicted of a crime, it shall be lawful for the complainant or a police officer at any time before sentence is passed to apply to the Police Magistrate before whom such person stands charged for an order of remand for purposes of inquiry and identification ; and the Police Magistrate, if satisfied that it is a proper case, shall remand such person from time to time for such period as to the Police Magistrate shall seem necessary, provided that no person shall be remanded at any one time for a longer period than three weeks or more often than three times for such purpose.

Procedure where previous convictions brought to notice of Magistrate.

6 In any case in which a certificate is produced to a Police Magistrate purporting to be signed by the Chief Registrar of the Finger Prints Identification Office, and certifying that any finger prints upon any document forming part of or attached to the certificate are identical with finger prints in the records of his said office recorded as being the finger prints of a person at least twice convicted of a crime and sentenced to undergo terms of rigorous imprisonment exceeding in the aggregate six months, the Police Magistrate shall observe the following procedure :

- (1) (a) If the proceedings are non-summary, the Police Magistrate shall call upon the accused either to admit or deny the previous convictions cited in the certificate, and shall record any statement thereupon made by the accused in manner provided by section 302 of “The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898” ;
- (b) Any statement so made may be put in and read as evidence at the trial of the accused at such time as it becomes material to inquire into the previous convictions of the accused, but not earlier ;
- (c) If the accused does not admit the previous convictions recorded in the certificate, or any of them, the Police Magistrate shall record evidence with reference to such of the said convictions as the accused does not admit.

(2) If the proceedings are summary, the Police Magistrate shall discontinue such proceedings and take non-summary proceedings, and in such proceedings shall follow the procedure hereinbefore prescribed. If a verdict of conviction has been entered on a plea of guilty before the production of the certificate, such verdict shall be deemed to be null and void.

Sentence to be passed on criminals previously convicted.

7 If any person who has previously twice or oftener been convicted of a crime and has been sentenced to undergo terms of rigorous imprisonment exceeding in the aggregate six months is again convicted of a crime before the Supreme Court or before a District Court, such court shall have jurisdiction, anything in "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," "The Ceylon Penal Code," or any other Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding, to sentence him to rigorous imprisonment for a period not exceeding four years, in addition to any punishment other than imprisonment to which he may be liable.

Preventive detention in certain cases.

8 (1) In the case of a habitual criminal who is convicted of a crime, and has since attaining the age of sixteen years been at least three times previously convicted of a crime, the court, if of opinion that it is expedient for the protection of the public that the offender should be kept in detention for a lengthened period, may pass a further sentence ordering that on the determination of the sentence of imprisonment he be detained for such period not exceeding five nor less than three years as the court may determine, and such detention is herein referred to as preventive detention.

Evidence of character and repute.

(2) For the purposes of this section, when an accused person has been convicted, the court may before passing such sentence admit evidence as to the character and repute of the accused, and the accused may tender similar evidence; and for this purpose the court may postpone the case from time to time, and remand the accused or admit him to bail.

Meaning of "court."

(3) For the purposes of this section "the court" shall mean the Supreme Court or the District Court or the court of a Police Magistrate who is also a District Judge acting under the provisions of section 152 (3) of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

Appeal.

(4) A person sentenced to preventive detention by a District Court, or a Police Magistrate acting under section 152 (3) of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," may appeal to the Supreme Court against such sentence.

Governor may commute rigorous imprisonment to a sentence of preventive detention.

9 Where a person has been sentenced, whether before or after the passing of this Ordinance, to rigorous imprisonment for a term of five years or upwards, and he appears to have been a habitual criminal who has since attaining the age of sixteen years been three times previously convicted of a crime, the Governor may, if he thinks fit, at any time after three years of the term of rigorous imprisonment have expired, commute the whole or part of the residue of the sentence to a sentence of preventive detention, so, however, that the total term of sentence when so commuted shall not exceed the term of rigorous imprisonment originally awarded.

Preventive detention to commence after rigorous imprisonment. Governor may set apart prison for preventive detention.

10 Every sentence of preventive detention shall take effect immediately on the determination or commutation of the sentence of rigorous imprisonment.

11 Persons undergoing preventive detention shall be confined in any prison or part of a prison which the Governor may set apart for the purpose, and shall be subject to the law for the time being in force with respect to rigorous imprisonment as if they were undergoing rigorous imprisonment, subject to such modifications as may be prescribed by rules framed under section 4 of this Ordinance.

Power of court to direct supervision of habitual criminals after discharge from jail.

12 When a person is convicted of a crime and a previous conviction of a crime is proved against him, the court of trial may, in addition to any other punishment which it may award to him, direct that he shall be subject to the supervision of the police for a period not exceeding seven years, commencing immediately after his discharge from jail.

Duty of habitual criminal to report himself.

13 Every person made subject as aforesaid to the supervision of the police shall, before his discharge from jail, notify to the superintendent of the prison in which he is detained the place where he intends to reside, and shall thereafter, as long as he remains subject to such supervision, notify his residence and report himself at such times and places and in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made under section 4 of this Ordinance.

Punishment for neglect of such duty.

14 Any person who fails to notify his residence, or to report himself as required by the last preceding section, or by any rule made under section 4, shall in every case, unless he satisfies the court that he did his best to act in conformity with the said section or rules, be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, and be liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for any period not exceeding six months.

Mode of proving previous conviction.

15 The fact that any person has been previously convicted of a crime may be proved by the production of a certificate purporting to be signed by the chief clerk, secretary, or registrar of a court stating the substance and effect of the charge and conviction and certifying—

- (a) That such person was so previously convicted before the court; or
- (b) That on an occasion when such person was convicted by the court of another offence he admitted that he was so previously convicted, or was proved to have been so previously convicted; and by proof of the identity of the person against whom a previous conviction is sought to be proved with the person named in the certificate.

Grant of licenses to convicts at large.

16 It shall be lawful for the Governor, by an order in writing, to grant to any convict undergoing sentence of imprisonment or preventive detention in any prison in this Colony a license, in the form set forth in schedule B or schedule C hereto respectively, to be at large in the Colony or in any part thereof during such portion of his period of imprisonment or preventive detention, and upon such conditions as to the Governor shall seem fit. The Governor may, if he thinks fit, revoke or alter such license or vary the conditions thereof. Every such license may be granted and every revocation or alteration of a license or variation of the conditions thereof may be made by an order in writing under the hand of the Colonial Secretary or the Assistant Colonial Secretary.

Reasons involving forfeiture of licenses.

17 If any holder of a license granted as aforesaid is convicted of any crime, his license shall be forthwith forfeited by virtue of such conviction.

Non-production of license or breach of any conditions of license declared an offence.

18 If any holder of a license granted as aforesaid—

- (1) Fails to produce his license when required to do so by any Judge or Police Magistrate before whom he may be brought charged with any offence, or by any constable or officer of the police in whose custody he may be, and fails to make any reasonable excuse for not producing the same; or
- (2) Breaks any of the other conditions of his license that are not of themselves punishable either upon indictment or upon summary conviction—

he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to imprisonment, either rigorous or simple, for any period not exceeding six months.

Arrest of license holder on suspicion.

19 Any peace officer may without warrant take into custody any holder of a license granted as aforesaid whom he may reasonably suspect of having committed any offence, or having broken any of the conditions of his license, and may detain him in custody until he can be taken before a competent Magistrate and dealt with according to law.

Duty of Magistrate to report conviction to Governor.

20 When any holder of a license granted as aforesaid is convicted of an offence punishable under section 18, the Magistrate convicting the prisoner shall report such conviction to the Governor, whereupon it shall be competent to the Governor to revoke the license of such prisoner.

Consequences of forfeiture or revocation.

21 When any license granted as aforesaid is forfeited in terms of section 17, or is revoked in pursuance of a conviction under section 18, a person whose license is so forfeited or revoked shall, after undergoing any other punishment to which he may be sentenced for the offence in consequence of which his license is forfeited or revoked, further undergo a term of imprisonment or preventive detention equal to the portion of his term of imprisonment or preventive detention that remained unexpired at the time of the grant of the license.

(or Assistant Colonial Secretary).

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 17, 1914.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is a re-enactment, with certain modifications, of "The Habitual Criminals and Licensed Convicts Ordinance, 1899." Two new elements are introduced into the Ordinance, viz. :—

- (a) A new scheme for the recording and proving of previous convictions of habitual criminals.
- (b) A system of preventive detention.

2. The new provisions are :—

- (a) Previous Convictions, sections 6 and 15.
- (b) Preventive Detention, sections 8, 9, 10, 11, and the references to preventive detention in sections 4, 16, and 21.

3. Proof of Previous Convictions.—Section 6 regulates the procedure under which previous convictions are charged against a person suspected of being a habitual criminal, and section 15 regulates the manner in which they may be proved.

4. There is in Colombo a Finger Prints Identification Office at which a record is kept of the finger prints of all persons convicted of crimes. These finger prints are not used for the purpose of proving previous convictions, but for the purpose of enabling the police to trace the history of the criminal. It is not proposed in the Ordinance that finger prints shall be used for the purpose of proof. What is proposed is that the production of a certificate from the identification office certifying that the finger prints of a person before the court are identical with the finger prints of a previously convicted criminal shall be used as a starting point for inquiry.

5. The principle of the Ordinance is that a "habitual criminal" must be dealt with more rigorously and systematically than an ordinary criminal. It is necessary, therefore, that a Magistrate before whom such a person is brought should have some knowledge of his antecedents to enable him to adopt the necessary procedure. It is not possible, therefore, to allow a Magistrate who acquires this knowledge of the prisoner's antecedents to deal with him summarily. If he dealt with him summarily, he could hardly avoid being prejudiced in forming his conclusions on the facts by his knowledge of the prisoner's previous record. All such cases, therefore, must be dealt with non-summarily.

6. The procedure, therefore, is that if a finger-print certificate is produced to a Magistrate with reference to any prisoner before him, he must at once, if the proceedings are summary, convert them into non-summary proceedings. In non-summary proceedings he must charge the prisoner with the alleged previous conviction to enable him either to admit or to deny it; and (in the event of his denying it) to allow of evidence being entered upon the depositions in the usual manner. Section 6 provides for this, and also provides for any statement made by the prisoner, when charged with a previous conviction, being used in evidence at the trial before the District Court or Supreme Court.

7. With regard to the proof of the prisoner's record, section 15 enlarges the present procedure with reference to certificates of previous convictions. At present such certificates merely certify the fact of the conviction. Section 15 will allow them to certify not only the previous conviction, but also the fact that on the occasion of the conviction previous convictions were admitted by the accused or were proved against him. This will enable his whole record to be before the court which is to deal with him as a habitual criminal.

8. Preventive Detention.—The system introduced into the Ordinance follows the lines of the system of preventive detention recently introduced into the United Kingdom. Its principle is that a habitual criminal may, for the protection of the public, be detained for a lengthened period after the expiration of his ordinary sentence under special conditions of imprisonment. It is intended that the treatment of the prisoner during the period of preventive detention shall be of a milder and more educative character than that of ordinary imprisonment. The Ordinance also provides in section 9 for the commutation of the whole or part of the sentence of rigorous imprisonment into a sentence of preventive detention.

9. In addition to the matters above mentioned, the Ordinance contains two slight modifications of the existing law.

10. Section 7, in view of a recent decision of the Supreme Court, makes it quite clear that the Supreme Court or a District Judge may sentence a habitual criminal to four years' imprisonment, even though this term is in excess of that allotted to the crime by the Penal Code.

11. The other modification referred to is in section 19. It allows a peace officer to take into custody without license the holder of a "ticket of leave" who is suspected of having committed an offence or broken the conditions of his license. At present this power only belongs to police officers.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Colombo Municipal Council Waterworks Ordinance, 1907."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been agreed by and between the Municipal Council of Colombo and the military authorities that a sum of Rs. 12,500 per annum be paid for the supply of water to His Majesty's forces, instead of the sum of Rs. 10,000 heretofore paid by the said military authorities :

And whereas it is expedient to amend "The Colombo Municipal Council Waterworks Ordinance, 1907," to give effect to the said agreement : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :
