ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE CEYLON SAW-MILLS COMPANY, LIMITED.

SUBJECT as hereinafter provided, the regulations contained in Table C annexed to "The Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861," shall apply to this Company, but shall be subject to repeal, addition, or alteration by special resolution. The Company may, by special resolution, alter and make provisions instead of, or in addition to, any of the regulations of the Company, whether contained or comprised in these Articles or not.

1. Clauses 2, 3, 8, 9, 10, 32, 45, 46, 64, and 65 of Table C shall not apply.

COMMENCEMENT OF BUSINESS.

2. The Company may proceed to carry out the objects for which it is established, and to employ and apply its capital as soon after the registration of the Company as the Directors in their discretion shall think fit; and if the whole of the shares shall not have been subscribed, applied for, or allotted, as soon as, in the judgment of the Directors, a sufficient number of shares shall have been subscribed or applied for.

ALLOTMENT OF SHARES.

3. The shares shall be under the control of the Directors who may allot and otherwise dispose of the same to such persons, on such terms and conditions, and at such times, as the Directors shall think fit.

CALLS.

4. The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares, and not by the terms of issue made payable at fixed times, and provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal amount of the share, or be payable at less than one month from the time when the last preceding call was made payable; and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be made payable by instalments.

5. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing such call was passed.

CERTIFICATES OF SHARES.

6. Every Shareholder shall be entitled to a certificate or certificates under the common seal of the Company, specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid thereon.

7. If any certificate be worn out or defaced, then, upon production thereof to the Directors, they may order the same to be cancelled and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof; and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors, and on such indemnity as the Directors deem adequate being given, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the person entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate.

TRANSFER OF SHARES.

8. The Board may, at their own absolute and uncontrolled discretion, decline to register any transfer of shares by a Shareholder who is indebted to the Company, or upon whose shares the Company have alien or otherwise, or in case of shares not fully paid up, to any person not approved by them; and in no case shall a Shareholder or proposed transferee be entitled to require the Directors to state the reason of their refusal to register, but their declinature shall be absolute.

9. Every instrument of transfer must be left at the office of the Company to be registered, accompanied by such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor, and a fee of two rupees and fifty cents, or such other sum as the Directors shall from time to time determine, must be paid to the Company for the registration of every such transfer, upon payment whereof the Directors, subject to the powers vested in them by Article 8, shall register the transferee as a Shareholder and retain the instrument of transfer.

10. The Directors may, by such means, as they shall deem expedient authorize the registration of transferees as Shareholders without the necessity of any meeting of the Directors for that purpose.

11. In no case shall the Directors be bound to inquire into the validity, legal effect, or genuineness of any instrument of transfer produced by a person claiming a transfer of any share in accordance with these Articles; and whether they abstain from so inquiring, or do so inquire and are misled, the transferor shall have no claim whatsoever upon the Company in respect of the share, except for the dividends previously declared in respect thereof, but only, if at all, upon the transferee only.

12. The Register of Transfers may be closed during the ten days immediately preceding each Ordinary General Meeting; and when a dividend is declared, for the three next ensuing after the Meeting; also at such other times (if any) and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that it shall not be closed for more than twenty-one days in any year.

BORROWING POWERS.

13. The Directors shall have power to procure from time to time, in the usual course of business, such temporary advances on the produce in hand, or in the future to be obtained from the Company's property, as they may find necessary or expedient for the purpose of defraying the expenses of working the Company's property, or of erecting, maintaining, improving, or extending buildings, machinery, or plantations, or otherwise. Also from time to time at their discretion to borrow or raise from the Directors or other person any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, provided that the moneys so borrowed or raised and owing at any one time shall not, without the sanction of a General Meeting, exceed the nominal amount of the issued Capital.

14. With the sanction of a General Meeting the Board shall be entitled to borrow such further sum or sums and at such rate of interest as such meeting shall determine. A certificate under the hands of one Director and the Secretary, or of two Directors, to the effect that in taking any loan the Directors are not exceeding their borrowing powers, shall be sufficient and binding on the Company and all concerned, and shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors.

15. For the purpose of securing the repayment of any such moneys so borrowed or raised, or for any other purposes, the Directors may grant, create, execute, and issue any mortgages, cash credits, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company, charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, lands, property, rights, and assets of the Company, both present and future, including uncalled capital or unpaid calls, or may make, accept, or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange.

16. Any such securities may be issued, either at par or at a premium or discount, and may from time to time be cancelled, discharged, varied, or exchanged as the Directors may think fit, and may contain special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, or otherwise.

17. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

18. The First General Meeting shall be held at such time, not being more than twelve months after the incorporation of the Company, and at such place as the Directors may determine.

19. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no time or place is so prescribed, then at such place and at such time as soon after the first day in each year as may be determined by the Directors.

20. The General Meetings mentioned in the last preceding clause shall be called Ordinary General Meetings; all other Meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

21. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting, except the declaration of a dividend recommended by a report of the Directors or the election of a Chairman, unless there shall be present or represented at the commencement of the business three or more Shareholders entitled to vote.

DIRECTORS.

22. The number of Directors shall never be less than two nor more than five, but this clause shall be construed as Director only, and the continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any number of vacancies.

The qualification of a Director shall be the holding of one hundred shares in the Company.

The Directors shall be paid out of the funds of the Company by way of remuneration for their services the sum of Rs. 1,000 per annum and such further sums as the Company in General Meeting may from time to time determine, and such remuneration shall be divided among them in such proportion and manner as the Directors may determine, and in default of such determination among them in proportion to their respective attendances at Board Meetings.

23. One or more of the Directors may be appointed by the Directors to act as Secretary, Managing Director, or Managing Directors, and (or) Visiting Agent or Agents of the Company, or Superintendents of any of the estates, for such time and on such terms as the Directors may determine, or may fix by agreement with the person or persons appointed to the office, and they may from time to time revoke such appointment and appoint another or other Secretary, Managing Director or Managing Directors, and (or) Visiting Agent or Agents or Superintendents.

The Directors may confer on the Managing Director or Managing Directors all or any duties and powers that might be conferred on any Manager of the Company.

If any Director shall be called upon to perform any extra services, the Directors may arrange with such Director for such special remuneration for such services, either by way of salary, commission, or the payment of a lump sum of money, as they shall think fit.

24. A resolution in writing signed by a majority of the Directors for the time being in Ceylon shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly called and constituted.

25. The Directors may, with the sanction of the Company in General Meeting, from time to time declare a dividend to be paid, and (or) pay a bonus to the Shareholders in proportion to the amount paid on their shares; but no dividend shall be payable except out of nett profits.

26. The Directors may, if they think fit, determine on and declare an interim dividend to be paid, or pay a bonus to the Shareholders on account and in anticipation of the dividend for the then current year.

DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS.

27. The office of the Director shall ipso facto be vacated—

(a) If he accepts or holds any office or place of profit other than Managing Director, Manager, Departmental Manager, Secretary, Visiting Agent, or Superintendent under the Company; but the position of trustee of a deed for securing debentures or debenture stock of the Company, or of Solicitor, or Banker is not to be considered an office or place of profit.

(b) If he becomes bankrupt or insolvent, or suspends payment, or files a petition for the liquidation of his affairs, or compounds with his creditors.

(c) If by any reason of mental or bodily infirmity he becomes incapable of acting.

(d) If he ceases to hold the required number of shares to qualify him for the office.

(e) If he is absent from the Meetings of the Directors during a period of three calendar months without special leave of absence from the Directors.

(f) If he is concerned or participates in the profits of any contract with, or work done for, the Company.

Provided that no Director shall vacate his office by reason of his being a member of any corporation, company, or firm which has entered into any contract with, or done any work for, the Company of which he is a Director or which is concerned in or participates in the profits of any contract with the Company or by his being Agent, or Secretary, or Solicitor, or by his being a member of a firm who are Agents, or Secretaries, or Solicitors of the Company; nevertheless, he shall not vote in respect of any contract work or business in which he may be personally interested.

(g) If by notice in writing to the Company he resigns his office.

(h) If he is requested in writing by all his co-directors to resign.

In witness whereof the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association have hereto set and subscribed their names, at Colombo, this Twenty-first day of June, 1914.
