The notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

(c) In default of payment, shares to be forfeited.—If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of calls or instalments, with interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

(d) Shareholder still liable to pay money owing at time of forfeiture.—Any Shareholder whose shares have been so declared forfeited shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay, and shall forthwith pay, to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at 9 per cent. per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

43. Surrendered or forfeited shares to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, &c.—Every share surrendered or so declared forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

44. Effect of surrender or forfeiture.—The surrender or forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in, and also of all claims and demands against, the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof, and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

45. (a) Certificate of surrender or forfeiture.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Agent and Secretary or Agents and Secretaries that a share has been duly surrendered or forfeited, stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture, such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share, and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company, such purchaser thereupon shall be deemed the holder of such share, discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase; and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

(b) Forfeiture may be remitted.—The Directors may, in their discretion, remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money by way of redemption money for the deficit, as they shall think fit, not being less than 9 per cent. per annum on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share bona fide sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of under Article 43 hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

46. Company's lien on shares.—The Company shall have a first charge or paramount lien upon all the shares of any holder or joint-holders for all moneys for the time being due to the Company by such holder, or by all or any of such joint-holders respectively, either in respect of such shares or of other shares held by such holder or joint-holders or otherwise, and whether due from any such holder individually or jointly with others, including all calls, resolutions for which shall have been passed by the Directors, although the times appointed for the payment thereof shall not have arrived; and where any share is held by more persons than one, the Company shall be entitled to the said charge or lien in respect of any money due to the Company from any of such persons. The Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge or lien.

47. Lien how made available.—Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, sixty days' notice shall be allowed him.

48. Proceeds how applied.—The nett proceeds of any such sale as aforesaid under the provisions of Articles 43 and 47 hereof shall be applied in or towards the satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) shall be paid to such Shareholder or his representatives.

49. Certificate of sale.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Agent and Secretary or Agents and Secretaries that the power of sale given by clause 47 has arisen, and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

50. Transfer on sale how executed.—Upon any such sale two of the Directors may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such shares.

PREFERENCE SHARES.

51. Preference and deferred shares.—Any shares from time to time to be issued or created may from time to time be issued with any such right of preference, whether in respect of dividend, or of payment of capital, or both, or any such other special privilege or advantage over any shares previously issued, or then about to be issued (other than shares issued with a preference), or with such deferred rights as compared with any shares previously issued or then about to be issued, or subject to any such conditions or provisions, and with any such right or without any right of voting, and generally on such terms as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine.

52. Modification of rights and consent thereto.—If at any time by the issue of preference shares or otherwise the capital is divided into shares of different classes—

- (1) The holders of any class of shares by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders may consent, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith, or having any priority thereto, or to the abandonment of any preference or priority or of any accrued dividend, or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the class of shares;
- (2) All or any of the rights, privileges, and conditions attached to each class may be commuted, abrogated, abandoned, added to, or otherwise modified by a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting, provided the holders of any class of shares, affected by any such commutation, abrogation, abandonment, addition, or other modification of such rights, privileges, and conditions, consent thereto, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders.

Any extraordinary resolution passed under the provisions of this Article shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class, provided that this Article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent as aforesaid in any case in which but for this Article the object of the resolutions could have been effected without it.

53. Meeting affecting a particular class of shares.—Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding clause shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, provided that no Shareholder, not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that at any such meeting a poll may be demanded in writing by any Shareholder personally present and entitled to vote at the meeting.

CALLS.

54. (a) Directors may make calls.—The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the registered holders of shares, in respect of moneys unpaid thereon, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times; and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors, provided that two months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of each call.

But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension, except as a matter of grace or favour.

55. Interest on unpaid call.—If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment is not paid on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalments shall have been due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 9 per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the Directors may, when they think fit, remit altogether or in part any sum becoming payable for interest under this clause.

56. Payments in anticipation of calls.—The Directors may, at their discretion, receive from any Shareholder willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the amount of his shares beyond the sum actually called up.

BORROWING POWERS.

57. Power to borrow.—The Directors shall have power to procure from time to time, in the usual course of business, such temporary advances on the produce in hand or in the future to be obtained, from the Company's estates, as they may find necessary or expedient, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of working the Company's estates, or of erecting, maintaining, improving, or extending buildings, machinery, or plantations, or otherwise. Also from time to time at their discretion to borrow or raise from the Directors, or other persons, any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount at any one time owing in respect of moneys so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a General Meeting, exceed the sum of One hundred thousand Rupees (Rs. 100,000). With the sanction of a General Meeting the Directors shall be entitled to borrow such further sum or sums, and at such rate of interest, as such meeting shall determine. The Directors may, for the purpose of securing the repayment of any such sum or sums of money so borrowed or raised, create and issue any mortgages, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, property, and rights or assets of the Company (both present and future), including uncalled capital or unpaid calls, or give, accept, or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange. Provided also that before the Directors execute any mortgage, issue any debentures, or create any debenture stock they shall obtain the sanction thereto of the Company in General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary, notice of the intention to obtain such sanction at such meeting having been duly given. Any such securities may be issued either at par or at a premium or discount, and may from time to time be cancelled or discharged, varied, or exchanged, as the Directors may think fit, and may contain any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, or otherwise. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued. A declaration under the Company's seal contained in, or endorsed upon, any of the documents mentioned in this Article and subscribed by two or more of the Directors, or by one Director and the Agent and Secretary or Agents and Secretaries, to the effect that the Directors have power to borrow the amount which such document may represent, shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors, and no such document containing such declaration shall, as regards the creditor, be void on the ground of its being granted in excess of the aforesaid borrowing power, unless it shall be proved that such creditor was aware that it was so granted.

Upon the receipt of such requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. In case there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy and attorney; and unless a poll be immediately demanded in writing by some Shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

74. Poll.—If a poll be duly demanded, the same shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

Minutes of Proceedings of a General Meeting of the Municipal Council of Colombo held in the Town Hall on Friday, June 26, 1914.

THE Council met this day at 3 P.M., pursuant to notice dated June 19, 1914.

Present:—Mr. R. W. Byrde, Chairman; Mr. C. P. Dias; the Hon. Sir Allan Perry, Kt.; Mr. L. B. Fernando; Mr. N. H. M. Abdul Cader; Mr. H. L. de Mel; Mr. E. G. Jayewardene; Dr. David Rockwood; Dr. D. 1. The Minutes of the General Meeting of May 29, 1914, having been printed and a copy thereof having been sent to each Member of Council, were taken as read.

Resolved that the Minutes of the General Meeting of May 29, 1914, be confirmed.

2. Pursuant to notice the Chairman read the following:—

Statement re Plague.

At the last Meeting of this Council I announced that there had been in all 181 ascertained cases of plague in Colombo since the inception of the disease. Since then 32 more cases have been reported, making a total of 213. Of these 32 cases, 16 were of the septicæmic type and 16 of the bubonic type—all the cases have proved fatal, with the exception of two of the bubonic cases in which the patients are still alive. No new centre of human infection has appeared. The destruction of rats is being carried on as before. There was a record catch of 3,978 for the week ending May 30—the catch for last week was 3,287. During the week ending June 6 there was a rise in the percentage of infection among the rats examined, it being as high as 4.5. At the end of last week it fell to 1.7. The average percentage of infection is 2.9. Altogether 43,298 rats have been trapped, and 826,682 baits have been set, of which 161,205 have been removed or eaten by rats. The disease among the rats has continued to spread. Infected rats have been found in Bambalapitiya. The flea index for Mus Rattus, which stood at 3.5 in February and which fell in April to 1.4, now stands at 1.8. Dr. Hirst calculates that, roughly speaking, the proportion of Xenopsylla Cheopis (the plague flea of India) to the Xenopsylla Astria is 2 per cent.

3. Pursuant to notice the Chairman read the following statement re the editorial article of "The Ceylonese" of May 29, 1914, in connection with the Waterworks Department :—

Waterworks Department.

I have read the article in "The Ceylonese" which was brought to the notice of this Council at its last Meeting by the Member for the Maradana Ward. It is an attack upon Mr. Thyne, the Waterworks Engineer, purporting to be based on representations made by Mr. T. C. Harrison—till lately an Inspector employed under Mr. Thyne. Mr. Thyne is a competent Waterworks Engineer. It will be within the memory of some of the Members present to-day that Mr. Thyne was selected in England in 1906. The training which he had received was that of a Waterworks Engineer. It was he who was deputed to take over the waterworks from Government and to report on their condition. In 1911 Mr. Thyne was appointed by this Council to be in sole charge of the Waterworks Department as Waterworks Engineer. The efficiency of the Department under his management has justified the confidence of this Council in him. It is to be admitted that he does not possess a thorough knowledge of the vernaculars, although he has a smattering of the Tamil language. But this does not detract from his capabilities as an engineer.

Reference has been made to the fact that Mr. Ludowyke, who was appointed to the post of Storekeeper, had been convicted of a criminal offence. The fact of the conviction was not known to Mr. Thyne when he made the recommendation, it was only disclosed when the man was produced later before the Police Court. Mr. Thyne had inquired into the antecedents of the man. Mr. Ludowyke produced very excellent testimonials from well known persons and firms, and the references he gave were of the best, including a Member of this Council and a Member of the Legislative Council. It must be remembered that a person who is convicted of a criminal offence does not bear a brand upon his forehead so as to indicate to every person whom he meets that he has had a conviction recorded against him. Our law and custom are far more merciful, and, as a rule, any person who knows of the fact remains silent. I called for the case and perused it. I find that Mr. Ludowyke was charged with dishonestly misappropriating to his use a small sum of money in September, 1913, that he pleaded guilty, and that the Proctor who appeared for him pleaded for lenient treatment, urging that there was nothing against the youth previously, and that he had good testimonials. The Proctor, no doubt, also besought the court "not to blast his client's prospects, but to give him another chance." The Magistrate took a merciful view of the young man's defaults and sentenced him to pay a fine. His object in doing so was undoubtedly in order that he might not destroy the young man's chance of securing decent employment again. I cannot see that anything can in fairness be urged against Mr. Thyne for recommending him, seeing that he did not know of the conviction, and that, even if he had, the court had acted so as to show a desire that the young man might be able to get future employment and be given another chance.

With regard to the statement that a connection with the main from a Colpetty bungalow was made without a deposit, Mr. Thyne is entirely unaware of the incident, and so is Mr. Raffel, the Assistant Engineer, who is in charge of that part of the works. I may mention that where connections already exist, repairs and removals are done free of charge.

I now come to the question of washing. One or two facts which are true have been mixed up with a number of assertions which are not true. Mr. Thyne, in July, 1913, constructed a small cistern at his own expense at the back of the store. It had been customary for him to have his household washing done on his own premises, but owing to his landlord rebuilding his house he was unable to continue this, so had his household washing done by his dhoby—only one dhoby—in the cistern which he had made. The fact was brought to my notice shortly after I assumed duties, and the cistern was on my orders removed. Mr. Thyne, however, I find continued to have his washing done at Maligakanda by his dhoby, who did the washing in a tub. One of the rooms in the godowns of the Inspector's quarters was used for keeping the clothes in. The washing has now been entirely discontinued. It was carried on with the consent of the Waterworks Inspectors, and, I understand, Mr. Harrison used to have some pieces of clothing washed for himself. No dhobies resided on the premises. Mr. Thyne employed only one dhoby, that dhoby did not reside there. The coolies referred to in the article are 600 feet distant from where the washing was conducted. They were and are inhabited by 17 of the waterworks coolies, and are not and have not been occupied by a number of dhobies. There are always four coolies on duty at the reservoir chamber to attend to the valves if required. The article is extremely confused and wrong with regard to its statements about the laying of the mains and the filtration works. It is as well that I should give you the facts. The laying of the main is quite distinct from the construction of the filter works. The work of the one is going on along the pipe line. The work for the other is being conducted at Labugama, 17 miles apart. Mr. Thyne, as the Waterworks Engineer, has to exercise a supervision over both of these works and also over the waterworks in the city, as well as to attend to the papers in his office. The suggestion that he should be giving orders all day on the pipe line is absurd. As a matter of fact he visits the work on the new main every day and the work at Labugama once or twice a week. In order that the work on the main might be properly carried out under skilled supervision, this Council obtained the services of Mr. Bond from Europe on the death of Mr. Campbell. He is a Pipelaying Foreman and a very good man at his job. He is the man who, you will recollect, saved the situation at the time of the floods. If it had not been for his prompt and resourceful action this city would have been deprived of its water supply for a week or more. He has now been in our employment for 2½ years and has a working knowledge of Sinhalese. Mr. Watson is not with Mr. Bond. Mr. Watson is something entirely different. He is the engineer in charge of the new works at Labugama. The work on the main is making good progress. There has been no delay except, of course, at the time of the floods. About a mile a month is laid, and the main has reached the 13th mile. At Labugama the excavation work is practically complete, and a commencement has been made in the construction of the reinforced concrete-filtered water reservoir. There is an extraordinary statement in the article that Mr. Thyne had to send for an officer from the Jewel Filter Company and that that officer is at present at Labugama. The statement is a pure fabrication. It is no doubt a perversion of the following fact: It did happen that a Mr. Lawton of the Jewel Filter Company, who was in Ceylon on other business, called at Mr. Thyne's office one day, and that Mr. Thyne took him out to Labugama and back in the afternoon to show him the progress which had been made. Mr. Thyne did not take him for a motor trip up-country, unless Labugama is to be called up-country. Mr. Lawton, I believe, left Ceylon the next day. He had not been sent for; he was here, as I stated, on other business and only paid Mr. Thyne a casual visit. Mr. Thyne, at the end of that week, went up-country for a week and in company with another gentleman, who had nothing whatever to do with the Jewel Filter Company. The persons specially employed by this Council at Labugama are Mr. Watson, the Assistant Engineer, and Mr. Danby, the Foreman, who is in charge of the supervision of the laying of the reinforced concrete. There are about 225 coolies employed at Labugama, and about 450 on the pipe line. We are, by no means, over-staffed; if anything, we are under-staffed. The statement that the entire work is to be handed over to be managed by a private firm in Colombo is incorrect. What has been done is to give the particular work of laying the reinforced concrete to Messrs. Clifford, Lake & Co. They have had special experience in this kind of work and further have the necessary plant. It is consequently an economy to give them that portion of the work as it saves the Council from the expense of having to buy a concrete mixer for the purpose of which we voted Rs. 3,000 the other day. Messrs. Clifford, Lake & Co. are employing a foreman, a Mr. Kingston. He is not an engineer, but was at one time a foreman in the harbour works. With regard to the cost of these works, namely, the laying of the 30-inch main and the installations of the filtration works, the Council has sanctioned a sum of Rs. 3,180,442. Mr. Thyne has found that the cost of the excavation work at Labugama, owing to the rock, will be more than he anticipated, and that he will, in all probability, require a further sum of Rs. 60,000. In order that you may see for yourselves what is being done, I propose that the Members of the Council should some afternoon make a trip to Labugama to inspect the laying of the main along the pipe line, and to see where the filters will be installed. In view of the article, I consider it is my duty to mention the following fact to this Council. Mr. Thyne had occasion in March to report two officers of his Department to me—Mr. Harrison and another officer. On April 1 I inquired into the case and had occasion to reprimand Mr. Harrison. Mr. Harrison tendered his resignation by a letter dated April 3, 1914. The resignation was accepted. The default for which Mr. Harrison was reprimanded was for failing to report to Mr. Thyne an omission which had been brought to his notice by a subordinate officer, viz., that the consumption of water at the "Ceylonese" printing office, Maradana, had not been recorded in the meter register for a period of nine months.
