Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 24 of 1914.

An Ordinance to repeal "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. 18 of 1912," and to enact another Ordinance in its place.

ROBERT CHALMERS.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. 18 of 1912," and to replace it by the Ordinance following: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. 24 of 1914."

- Repeal.                    2 (1) "The Aerial Navigation Ordinance, No. 18 of 1912," is hereby repealed.
- (2) All orders made under the Ordinance hereby repealed which were in force at the commencement of this Ordinance shall continue to be in force until they are rescinded or superseded by orders made under this Ordinance.
- Power of Governor to regulate navigation of aircraft.                    3 (1) The Governor in Executive Council may, by order notified in the Government Gazette—
- (a) For the purpose of protecting the public from danger and for the purpose of the defence or safety of the Colony, prohibit the navigation of aircraft over such areas as may be prescribed in the order ; and
- (b) Prescribe the areas within which aircraft coming from any place outside the Colony are to land, and the other conditions to be complied with by such aircraft.
- (2) When an order is made for the purposes of the defence or safety of the Colony, the area prescribed may include the whole or any part of the coast line of the Colony and the territorial waters adjacent thereto.
- Extent of power.                    4 Any order made under paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 3 may apply either generally to all aircraft or to aircraft of such classes and descriptions only as may be specified in the order, and may prohibit the navigation of aircraft over any such prescribed area either at all times or at such times or on such occasions only as may be specified in the order, and either absolutely or subject to such exceptions or conditions as may be so specified.
- Offences.                    5 Any person who—
- (1) Navigates an aircraft over any area in contravention of any order made under paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 3 ; or
- (2) Contravenes any of the provisions of any order made under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of section 3,
- shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, unless he proves that he was compelled to do so by reason of stress of weather or other circumstances over which he had no control.
- Trial and punishment of offences.                    6 (1) If any person is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both.
- (2) In any case in which any person is charged with an offence against this Ordinance, the Magistrate may make an order for the detention of the aircraft pending the trial.
- Confiscation of aircraft.                    7 (1) If in the case of any offence under this Ordinance the Magistrate is satisfied that there is reasonable ground to suspect that the aircraft was used in contravention of this Ordinance for a purpose prejudicial to the interests of the State, the burden of proof that the aircraft was not used for such purpose shall be upon the person charged.
- (2) If it is proved that the aircraft was used for such purpose, or if the person charged fails to discharge the said burden of proof, the Magistrate may make an order for the confiscation of the aircraft.
- Power to compel compliance when aircraft disobeys signals.                    8 If an aircraft flies or attempts to fly over any area prescribed under this Ordinance for the purposes of the defence or safety of the Colony, or, in the case of an aircraft coming from any place outside the Colony, fails to comply with any of the conditions as to landing prescribed by an order under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of section 3, any officer designated for the purpose by regulations made by the Governor may cause such signal as may be prescribed by these regulations to be given, and, if after such signal has been given the aircraft fails to respond to the signal by complying with such regulations as may be made by the Governor prescribing the action to be taken on such a signal being given, the officer may fire at or into such aircraft and use any and every other means necessary to compel compliance, and every and any such officer and every other person acting in his aid and by his direction shall be and is hereby indemnified and discharged from any charge, action, or other proceeding for so doing.

Passed in Council the Seventh day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Fourteen.
