DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to Trusts.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Property and Trustees Ordinance, 1871": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Property and Trustees (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Devolution of trust property. 2 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance:

15. Where, whether before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, it is declared or intended in any instrument of trust that the trustee of the trust shall be a person for the time being holding or acting in any public office, or holding or acting in any office or discharging any duty in any public or private institution, body, corporation, association, or community, or where any property comes into or is in the possession or ownership of any such person in any of the aforesaid capacities upon any constructive trust, the title to the trust property shall devolve from time to time upon the person for the time being holding or acting in any such office, or discharging such duty, without any conveyance, vesting order, or other assurance otherwise necessary for vesting the property in such person.

By His Excellency's command,
 Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
 Colombo, January 20, 1915. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to bring a principle of the law of trusts which is at present out of harmony with common practice into line with that practice.

2. It is commonly supposed that if property is given in trust to any person in an official capacity, the title to that property devolves upon his successors in office for the time being. This is not the case. Such property remains in the original grantee even though he ceases to hold his office, and if he dies in office it passes to his executors or administrators. A transfer is necessary to each successor in order to vest the trust property in the person intended to discharge the trust.

3. The Ordinance provides that the title to the trust property shall devolve in the same manner as the trust itself.

4. The proposal contained in the Ordinance is taken from the draft Ordinance on the general law of trusts awaiting consideration, but as the question dealt with by the proposal very frequently arises in so many forms, it has been thought desirable to deal with it at once in the present Ordinance.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Explosives Ordinance, 1902."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Explosives Ordinance, 1902": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Explosives (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Amendment of section 15.

2. In section 15 of the principal Ordinance, for the words "except with the license of the Governor under the hand of the Colonial Secretary," there shall be substituted the words "except in accordance with the license issued under this Ordinance."

Governor in Council to delegate powers.

3 The following proviso shall be added to section 16 of the principal Ordinance:

Provided that the Governor in Executive Council may, by order published in the "Government Gazette," delegate any of the powers committed to him under the paragraphs (1) and (2) of this section to any Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent and his successors in office.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 11, 1915.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to enable the Governor in Executive Council to delegate his power of licensing manufacturing of explosives to Government Agents and Assistant Government Agents.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to extend the Powers of the Governor in Council, during the continuance of the present hostilities, to make Regulations and Rules under "The Patents Ordinance, 1906," "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," and "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the powers of the Governor in Council, during the continuance of the present hostilities, to make regulations and rules under "The Patents Ordinance, 1906," "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," and "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks (Temporary Rules) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Extension of powers of Governor in Council to make temporary regulations and rules.

2 (1) The power of the Governor in Council under section 52 of "The Patents Ordinance, 1906," section 33 of "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," and section 40 of "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888," to make regulations and rules, shall include power to make regulations and rules and to do such things as he thinks expedient for avoiding or suspending, in whole or in part, any patent or license, the person entitled to the benefit of which is the subject of any State at war with His Majesty ; for avoiding or suspending the registration and all or any rights conferred by the registration of any design or trade mark the proprietor whereof is a subject as aforesaid ; for avoiding or suspending any application made by any such person under any of the said Ordinances ; for enabling the Registrar to grant in favour of persons other than such persons as aforesaid, on such terms and conditions, and either for the whole term of the patent or registration or for such less period as the Registrar may think fit, license to make, use, exercise, or vend patented inventions and registered designs so liable to avoidance or suspension as aforesaid ; and for extending the time within which any act or thing may or is required to be done under those Ordinances.

(2) If the rules made under this Ordinance so provide, the rules or any of them shall have effect as from the passing of this Ordinance.

(3) This Ordinance shall apply to any person resident or carrying on business in the Territory or State at war with His Majesty as if he was a subject of that State ; and the expression "subject of any State at war with His Majesty" shall, with reference to a company, include any company the business whereof is managed or controlled by such subjects, or is carried on, wholly or mainly, for the benefit or on behalf of such subjects, notwithstanding that the company may be registered within His Majesty's Dominions ; and where a patent has been granted to any person in respect of an invention declared in the application or any specification to have been communicated to him by some other person, that other person shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed to be the person entitled to the benefit of the patent, unless the contrary is proved.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 1, 1915.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance follows exactly upon the lines of "The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Temporary Rules Act, 1914," recently passed in the United Kingdom.

2. It deals partly with the suspension of existing patents, designs, and trade marks, and partly with proceedings in respect of new applications and renewals.

3. For these purposes it enlarges the rule-making powers possessed by the Governor under "The Patents Ordinance, 1906," "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," and "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888."

4. Summarily stated, its object for the first of these purposes is to allow in fit cases the privileges in respect of patents, designs, and trade marks, granted to subjects of enemy States, to be suspended during the war, and temporary grants to be made to other persons. As these powers exist and may be exercised in the United Kingdom, it is proper that power should be given to take the corresponding administrative steps in this Colony.

5. With regard to proceedings for new applications and renewals, its object is to allow the same rules that had been enacted in the United Kingdom to be enacted in Ceylon. These rules will preclude any of the privileges referred to being granted to an enemy subject during the war, and will restrict the power of enemy subjects to oppose any application by a British subject.
