No. 10 of 1915.

An Ordinance to extend the Powers of the Governor in Council, during the continuance of the present hostilities, to make Regulations and Rules under "The Patents Ordinance, 1906," "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," and "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888."

ROBERT CHALMERS.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the powers of the Governor in Council, during the continuance of the present hostilities, to make regulations and rules under "The Patents Ordinance, 1906," "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," and "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks (Temporary Rules) Ordinance, No. 10 of 1915."

Extension of powers of Governor in Council to make temporary regulations and rules.

2 (1) The power of the Governor in Council under section 52 of "The Patents Ordinance, 1906," section 33 of "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," and section 40 of "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888," to make regulations and rules, shall include power to make regulations and rules and to do such things as he thinks expedient for avoiding or suspending, in whole or in part, any patent or license, the person entitled to the benefit of which is the subject of any State at war with His Majesty; for avoiding or suspending the registration and all or any rights conferred by the registration of any design or trade mark the proprietor whereof is a subject as aforesaid; for avoiding or suspending any application made by any such person under any of the said Ordinances; for enabling the Registrar to grant in favour of persons other than such persons as aforesaid, on such terms and conditions, and either for the whole term of the patent or registration or for such less period as the Registrar may think fit, license to make, use, exercise, or vend patented inventions and registered designs so liable to avoidance or suspension as aforesaid; and for extending the time within which any act or thing may or is required to be done under those Ordinances.

(2) If the rules made under this Ordinance so provide, the rules or any of them shall have effect as from the passing of this Ordinance.

(3) This Ordinance shall apply to any person resident or carrying on business in the Territory or State at war with His Majesty as if he was a subject of that State; and the expression "subject of any State at war with His Majesty" shall, with reference to a company, include any company the business whereof is managed or controlled by such subjects, or is carried on, wholly or mainly, for the benefit or on behalf of such subjects, notwithstanding that the company may be registered within His Majesty's Dominions; and where a patent has been granted to any person in respect of an invention declared in the application or any specification to have been communicated to him by some other person, that other person shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed to be the person entitled to the benefit of the patent, unless the contrary is proved.

Passed in Council the Twenty-fourth day of March, One thousand Nine hundred and Fifteen.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Fourteenth day of April, One thousand Nine hundred and Fifteen.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.
