DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to revive and continue in force "The Public Servants (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899."

Preamble.

WHEREAS by section 5 of "The Public Servants (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899," it was enacted that the said Ordinance should continue in force until the Thirty-first day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and Four, or if the Legislative Council should be then in session until the end of such session, and whereas by "The Expiring Laws Continuance Ordinance, 1904," the said first-named Ordinance was continued in force until the Thirty-first day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine, or the close of the session of the Legislative Council:

And whereas by "The Public Servants Liabilities (Extension) Ordinance, 1909," the said Ordinance was continued in operation until the Thirty-first day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and Fourteen:

And whereas it is expedient that the said first-mentioned Ordinance should be revived and further continued in operation: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Public Servants Liabilities (Continuance) Ordinance, No. of 1915," and shall be read as one with "The Public Servants (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899."

Revival of "The Public Servants (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899."

Savings.

2 "The Public Servants (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899" (except section 5 thereof), is hereby revived as though the same had never expired, and shall continue in force without any limitation of its duration.

3 Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect—

(a) Any action instituted.

(b) Any remedy in respect of any liability contracted between the 31st day of December, 1914, and the 27th day of May, 1915.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, May 14, 1915. R. E. STUBBS, Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to revive and make perpetual "The Public Servants (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899," which owing to an oversight was allowed to expire on December 31, 1914.

2. The Ordinance is to be revived as from that date, but it is not to affect actions instituted or remedies for liabilities contracted between that date and the date when public warning was given of the intention to revive it by the first publication of the Draft Ordinance in the Government Gazette.

Colombo, April 28, 1915.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Dog Registration Ordinance, 1901."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Dog Registration Ordinance, 1901," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Dog Registration (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Substitution of new definition of "proper authority."

2 For the definition of "proper authority" in section 3 of the principal Ordinance the following definition shall be substituted:

"Proper authority" shall mean, within any town wherein a Municipal Council or Local Board of Health and Improvement has been or may hereafter be established, the Chairman of such Municipal Council or Local Board, and within the limits of any town or village which has been brought or may hereafter be brought under the operation of "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892," the Chairman of the Sanitary Board, and without the limits of any such town or village, the Government Agent or any person duly authorized by him in writing.

Amendment of section 5.

3 In section 5 of the principal Ordinance, after the words "of the town of Nuwara Eliya" there shall be inserted the words "or within the limits of any town or village brought under the operation of "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892."

Amendment
of section 14.

4 In section 14 of the principal Ordinance, after the words "for the local fund" there shall be inserted the words "and all such like sums and penalties paid by or recovered from the inhabitants residing within the limits of any town or village brought under the operation of 'The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892,' shall be taken and received by the Sanitary Board for the fund of the said Board."

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, May 17, 1915. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to put small towns under the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance upon the same footing as Municipalities and Local Boards for the purpose of the registration fee levied under "The Dog Registration Ordinance, No. 25 of 1901."

ANTON BERTRAM,
Colombo, May 4, 1915. Attorney-General.
