Provisions of Ordinances No. 11 of 1884 and No. 30 of 1884 extended to Crown leases.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 26, 1915.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Copyright Ordinance,
No. 20 of 1912."

Preamble.

WHEREAS by section 27 of the Act of the Imperial Parliament known as "The Copyright Act, 1911," set out in the schedule to "The Copyright Ordinance, No. 20 of 1912," it is provided that the Legislature of any British Possession to which the Act extends may modify or add to any of the provisions of that Act in its application to the Possession on any question relating to procedure and remedies:

And whereas it is expedient to modify the provisions of section 14 of that Act: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Copyright (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Substitution of
New Section 14.

2 "The Copyright Act, 1911," in its application to Ceylon shall be read as though the following section were substituted for section 14 thereof:

Importation of copies.

14 (1) Copies made out of Ceylon of any work in which copyright subsists which if made in Ceylon would infringe copyright, and as to which the owner of the copyright gives notice in writing by himself or his agent to the Principal Collector of Customs that he is desirous that such copies should not be imported into Ceylon, shall not be so imported, and shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be deemed to be included in the table of prohibitions and restrictions contained in section 36 of the Ordinance for the General Regulation of Customs in the Island of Ceylon, No. 17 of 1869, and that section shall apply accordingly.

(2) Before detaining any such copies, or taking any further proceedings with a view to the forfeiture thereof under the law relating to the Customs, the Principal Collector of Customs may require the regulations under this section, whether as to information, conditions, or other matters, to be complied with, and may satisfy himself in accordance with those regulations that the copies are such as are prohibited by this section to be imported.

(3) The Principal Collector of Customs may make regulations, either general or special, respecting the detention and forfeiture of copies the importation of which is prohibited by this section, and the conditions, if any, to be fulfilled before such detention and forfeiture, and may by such regulations determine the information, notices, and security to be given, and the evidence requisite for any of the purposes of this section, and the mode of verification of such evidence.

(4) The regulations may apply to copies of all works the importation of copies of which is prohibited by this section, or different regulations may be made respecting different classes of such works.

(5) The regulations may provide for the informant reimbursing the Principal Collector of Customs all expenses and damages incurred in respect of any detention made on his information, and of any proceedings consequent on such detention, and may provide for notices under "The Copyright Ordinance, 1908," being treated as notices given under this section, and also that notices given to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise of the United Kingdom and communicated by them to the Principal Collector of Customs shall be deemed to have been given by the owner to the Principal Collector of Customs.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 26, 1915.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to define the application to Ceylon of section 14 of "The Copyright Act, 1911." In effect it re-enacts the section with the various necessary modifications of phrasing and with the addition of a special provision in sub-section (5).

2. The object of the section in question is to enable the necessary protection to be given to authors enjoying the privilege of copyright in Ceylon against the importation into the Island of "pirated" copies of their works.

3. The special provision above referred to is intended to assist such authors to give a general notice to the Customs and Excise Commissioners of the United Kingdom for communication to the principal Customs authorities of the various British Possessions by providing that in the case of Ceylon a notice addressed to the Commissioners and communicated to the Principal Collector of Customs shall be deemed to be a notice to that officer.

Attorney-General.
