DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Oaths Ordinance, 1895."

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Oaths Ordinance, 1895," by empowering the Governor to appoint Commissioners with power to administer oaths: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Oaths (Commissioners) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Addition of new sections. 2 The following sections shall be added to the principal Ordinance:

Commissioners for Oaths. 13 (1) The Governor may from time to time, by commission signed by him, appoint fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for Oaths.

(2) A Commissioner for Oaths appointed under this Ordinance may by virtue of his commission administer any oath or affirmation or take any affidavit for the purpose of any legal proceedings or otherwise in all cases in which a Justice of the Peace is authorized by law so to do, and in all cases in which an oath, affirmation, or affidavit is commonly administered or taken before a Justice of the Peace; and any oath or affirmation or affidavit administered or taken by a Commissioner for Oaths shall in all legal proceedings and for all other purposes have the same effect as an oath, affirmation, or affidavit administered or taken before a Justice of the Peace; and all enactments relating to oaths, affirmations, and affidavits administered or taken before a Justice of the Peace shall, with the necessary modifications, apply thereto.

Provided that a Commissioner for Oaths shall not exercise the powers given by this section in any proceeding or matter in which he is proctor to any of the parties, or in which he is otherwise interested.

(3) Every Commissioner before whom any oath or affirmation is administered, or before whom any affidavit is taken under this Ordinance, shall state truly in the jurat or attestation at what place and on what date the same was administered or taken, and shall initial all alterations, erasures, and interlineations appearing on the face thereof and made before the same was so administered or taken.

False oath or affidavit before a Commissioner or Justice of the Peace.

14. Whoever wilfully and dishonestly swears or affirms falsely in any oath, affirmation, or affidavit administered or taken, for the purpose of any legal proceedings or otherwise, before a Commissioner for Oaths appointed under this Ordinance, or a Commissioner to administer Oaths appointed under section 20 of "The Courts Ordinance, 1889," or a Justice of the Peace, shall be guilty of the offence of giving false evidence in every case where if he had so sworn in a judicial proceeding before a court of competent jurisdiction he would be guilty of the offence of giving false evidence.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 17, 1915.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to empower the Governor to appoint Commissioners for Oaths in places where no Justice of the Peace resides in the neighbourhood, or the number of Justices of the Peace available is inadequate, and where the circumstances require that facilities of the sort should be provided.

2. The Ordinance confers upon the Governor the same power which is possessed by the Lord Chancellor in England, and which is also enjoyed by the Supreme Court under section 20 of "The Courts Ordinance, 1889."

3. A false oath or affirmation before a Commissioner is made punishable in the same manner as ordinary perjury, and advantage has been taken of the opportunity to lay down the same principle with regard to false oaths and affirmations before Justices of the Peace and Commissioners appointed by the Supreme Court, whether made for the purpose of any legal proceedings or not.

May 22, 1915.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.
