DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Necessaries of War Exportation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Necessaries of War Exportation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Necessaries of War Exportation (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Addition of new section 2 A.

2 After section 2 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 2 A:

Principal Collector of Customs may issue licenses subject to conditions.

2 A. (1) The Principal Collector of Customs may issue licenses, subject to such conditions as may be therein contained, authorizing the exportation of any goods subject to prohibition under this Ordinance to a particular person or place, or to a particular person at a particular place named in the license, and the provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to goods shipped in accordance with such license.

(2) In any such case the name of the person or place, or both, as the case may be, shall be inserted in all licenses, bills of lading, manifests, and other documents relating to the goods, and if this requirement is not complied with as regards any document, the person by whom or on whose behalf the document is made out shall, if he be the exporter of the goods, be deemed to have exported the goods without a license, and if any other person, shall be guilty of an offence and be liable to a fine of one thousand rupees.

(3) Any person to whom any such license has been issued who shall commit any breach of any of the conditions of the license shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to the same punishment as if he had exported the goods in question without a license.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, October 26, 1915. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to amend "The Necessaries of War Exportation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914," in accordance with recent Imperial legislation, and to provide means for enforcing what is the local practice in Ceylon.

2. It enables the Principal Collector of Customs to grant conditional license for exportation to particular places or persons of goods whose exportation is otherwise prohibited.

Attorney-General's Chambers, ANTON BERTRAM,
Colombo, October 5, 1915. Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Trading with the Enemy Ordinance, No. 20 of 1914."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Trading with the Enemy Ordinance, No. 20 of 1914": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Trading with the Enemy (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Addition of new section 6.

2 After section 5 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 6:

Provision as to declarations as to ultimate destination of exported goods.

6. (1) The Principal Collector of Customs may require a person, in the course of making entry before shipment, to make a declaration as to the person or country for whom any goods are ultimately destined.

(2) In any such case, unless security has been given by bond, the exporter shall, if and when required by the Principal Collector of Customs, produce evidence to his satisfaction that those goods have not reached a person who is an enemy or treated as an enemy, or a country which is an enemy country or treated as an enemy country, under any law, whether Colonial or Imperial, for the time being in force relating to trading with the enemy; and if he fails to do so he shall be liable to a penalty of treble the value of the goods, or one thousand rupees, at the election of the Principal Collector of Customs, unless he proves that the goods reached the person or country without his consent or connivance, and that he took all reasonable steps to secure that the ultimate destination of the goods should be the person or country mentioned in the declaration.

(3) If the Principal Collector of Customs has reason to suspect that any such declaration as aforesaid is false in any material particular, the goods may be detained until the Principal Collector of Customs is satisfied as to the truth of the declaration, and, failing such satisfaction, may be treated as if they were goods subject to a prohibition or exportation under "The Necessaries of War Exportation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914."

Addition of new section 7.

Power to seize imported goods.

3 The following section shall be added immediately after the section added to the principal Ordinance by the last preceding section, and shall be numbered 7 :

7. Where the Principal Collector of Customs has reason to suspect that the country of origin of any goods imported into the Colony is an enemy country, or a country treated as an enemy country, under any law, whether Colonial or Imperial, for the time being in force, or that such goods are being imported in contravention of the law relating to trading with the enemy, the goods may be seized as though they were goods enumerated or described in the table of prohibitions and restrictions contained in Schedule C of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, and may be forfeited under the said Ordinance unless it is proved that the country of origin of such goods is not an enemy country or a country so treated as aforesaid, or that such goods are not imported in contravention of the law relating to trading with the enemy, as the case may be.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 28, 1915.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to bring the Colonial law of trading with the enemy into line with that of the mother country on two points, which have been recently there dealt with under the Customs (War Powers) Act, 1915, and the Customs (War Powers) Act, No. 2, 1915 :—

- (a) The power of the Customs authorities to require declarations of ultimate destination. (These declarations are already required and given in practice.)
(b) The presumption that goods suspected to be of enemy origin are of such origin, until the contrary is proved.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, October 5, 1915.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.
