DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Necessaries of War Exportation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914."

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Necessaries of War Exportation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Necessaries of War Exportation (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Addition of new section 2 A. 2 After section 2 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 2 A:

Principal Collector of Customs may issue licenses subject to conditions. 2 A. (1) The Principal Collector of Customs may issue licenses, subject to such conditions as may be therein contained, authorizing the exportation of any goods subject to prohibition under this Ordinance to a particular person or place, or to a particular person at a particular place named in the license, and the provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to goods shipped in accordance with such license.

(2) In any such case the name of the person or place, or both, as the case may be, shall be inserted in all licenses, bills of lading, manifests, and other documents relating to the goods, and if this requirement is not complied with as regards any document, the person by whom or on whose behalf the document is made out shall, if he be the exporter of the goods, be deemed to have exported the goods without a license, and if any other person, shall be guilty of an offence and be liable to a fine of one thousand rupees.

(3) Any person to whom any such license has been issued who shall commit any breach of any of the conditions of the license shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to the same punishment as if he had exported the goods in question without a license.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, October 26, 1915. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to amend "The Necessaries of War Exportation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914," in accordance with recent Imperial legislation, and to provide means for enforcing what is the local practice in Ceylon.

2. It enables the Principal Collector of Customs to grant conditional license for exportation to particular places or persons of goods whose exportation is otherwise prohibited.

Attorney-General's Chambers, ANTON BERTRAM,
Colombo, October 5, 1915. Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Trading with the Enemy Ordinance, No. 20 of 1914."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Trading with the Enemy Ordinance, No. 20 of 1914": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Trading with the Enemy (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Addition of new section 6.

2 After section 5 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 6:

Provision as to declarations as to ultimate destination of exported goods.

6. (1) The Principal Collector of Customs may require a person, in the course of making entry before shipment, to make a declaration as to the person or country for whom any goods are ultimately destined.

(2) In any such case, unless security has been given by bond, the exporter shall, if and when required by the Principal Collector of Customs, produce evidence to his satisfaction that those goods have not reached a person who is an enemy or treated as an enemy, or a country which is an enemy country or treated as an enemy country, under any law, whether Colonial or Imperial, for the time being in force relating to trading with the enemy; and if he fails to do so he shall be liable to a penalty of treble the value of the goods, or one thousand rupees, at the election of the Principal Collector of Customs, unless he proves that the goods reached the person or country without his consent or connivance, and that he took all reasonable steps to secure that the ultimate destination of the goods should be the person or country mentioned in the declaration.

(3) If the Principal Collector of Customs has reason to suspect that any such declaration as aforesaid is false in any material particular, the goods may be detained until the Principal Collector of Customs is satisfied as to the truth of the declaration, and, failing such satisfaction, may be treated as if they were goods subject to a prohibition or exportation under "The Necessaries of War Exportation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914."

Addition of new section 7. 3 The following section shall be added immediately after the section added to the principal Ordinance by the last preceding section, and shall be numbered 7 :

Power to seize imported goods. 7. Where the Principal Collector of Customs has reason to suspect that the country of origin of any goods imported into the Colony is an enemy country, or a country treated as an enemy country, under any law, whether Colonial or Imperial, for the time being in force, or that such goods are being imported in contravention of the law relating to trading with the enemy, the goods may be seized as though they were goods enumerated or described in the table of prohibitions and restrictions contained in Schedule C of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, and may be forfeited under the said Ordinance unless it is proved that the country of origin of such goods is not an enemy country or a country so treated as aforesaid, or that such goods are not imported in contravention of the law relating to trading with the enemy, as the case may be.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 28, 1915.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to bring the Colonial law of trading with the enemy into line with that of the mother country on two points, which have been recently there dealt with under the Customs (War Powers) Act, 1915, and the Customs (War Powers) Act, No. 2, 1915 :—

- (a) The power of the Customs authorities to require declarations of ultimate destination. (These declarations are already required and given in practice.)
- (b) The presumption that goods suspected to be of enemy origin are of such origin, until the contrary is proved.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, October 5, 1915.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Ceylon Post Office Ordinance, 1908."

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Ceylon Post Office Ordinance, 1908" : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Ceylon Post Office (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Addition of sections for the prevention of smuggling of correspondence during the present war. 2 The following sections shall be added to the principal Ordinance, and shall remain in force during the present war and no longer :

Prohibition against non-postal communications to or from Ceylon. 95. (1) No person shall, without lawful authority, transmit (otherwise than through the post) or convey to or from Ceylon, or receive, or have in his possession for such transmission or conveyance, any letter or any written message from any other person, and if any person contravenes this provision he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both. Provided that if such letter or written message be intended for transmission or conveyance to any neutral country, such punishment may be enhanced to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand and five hundred rupees, or to both.

(2) This section shall not apply to "shipowners' letters," nor to any other class of letters or written messages that may be for the time being exempted by the Governor.

(3) For the purposes of this section the expression "shipowners' letters" means letters of the owners, charterers, or consignees of vessels inward bound, and of the owners, consignees, or shippers of goods on board those vessels.

Provided that—

- (a) The letters brought in any one vessel to any one person shall not collectively exceed six ounces in weight;
- (b) The owner, charterer, or consignee shall be described as such on the address and superscription; and
- (c) In the case of owners, shippers, or consignees of goods it shall also appear by the ship's manifest that they have goods on board the vessel.

Prohibition against sending letters, &c., from Ceylon in invisible ink, &c.

96. If any person sends from Ceylon, whether by post or otherwise, any letter or other document containing any matter written in any medium which is not visible unless subjected to heat or some other treatment, he shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both.

Prevention of conveyance of letters, &c., out of or into Ceylon.

97. Any person landing or embarking at any place in Ceylon shall, on being required to do so by any officer of the Police or Customs, make a declaration as to whether or not he is carrying or conveying any letters or other written messages intended to be transmitted by post or otherwise delivered, and, if so required, shall produce to the person making the requisition any such letters or messages; and any officer of the Police or Customs may search any such person, and any baggage with a view to ascertaining whether such person or the person to whom the baggage belongs is carrying or conveying any such letters or messages.

Any officer of the Police or Customs may examine any letters or other messages so produced to him or found on such search, and may transmit them to an officer appointed to censor postal correspondence.

Any person who knowingly makes any false declaration under this section, or on being required to produce any such letters or messages as aforesaid refuses or neglects to do so, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both.

Offences to be cognizable and non-bailable.

98. The offences referred to in the last three preceding sections shall be cognizable and non-bailable offences within the meaning of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 3, 1915.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to enact in Ceylon certain provisions already in force in the mother country for the purpose of preventing the smuggling of correspondence during the war.

2. The sections in question are based upon the Defence of the Realm Regulations of 28th November, 1914, No. 54, and the Defence of the Realm Regulations of 23rd March, 1915, Nos. 24 and 24 A.

3. In the case of correspondence intended for neutral countries (from where it may be forwarded to the enemy) the period of imprisonment is enhanced so that, recourse, if necessary, may be had to the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to provide for a contribution out of the Revenue of the Colony towards the cost of the present War.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, in testimony of their loyal and devoted allegiance to the King's Majesty and the British Empire, it is the desire of His Majesty's subjects in the Island of Ceylon, out of the revenues of the Colony, to make a contribution towards the cost of the present War: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The War Contribution Ordinance, No. of 1915."

Power of Governor to pay annual sum for ten years to Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

2 It shall be lawful for the Governor, out of the general revenue of the Colony, to pay to the Lords Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Treasury in London a sum of £100,000 sterling annually for a period of ten years, from the financial year commencing on the 1st day of October, 1915, to the financial year commencing on the 1st day of October, 1924, inclusive.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 11, 1915.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to enable the Colony to make a contribution of a million pounds sterling in ten annual instalments to the Mother country towards the cost of the present War.
