DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Interpretation Ordinance, 1901."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Interpretation Ordinance, 1901": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Interpretation (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1916."

Substitution of a new paragraph for paragraph (d) in sub-section (1) of section 11.

2 The following paragraph shall be substituted for paragraph (d) in sub-section (1) of section 11 of the principal Ordinance:

(d) Power to make rules for regulation, supervision, protection, or control shall include power to make rules—

- (i.) For the issue of licenses for the purpose of such regulation, supervision, protection, or control;
- (ii.) For the cancellation of such licenses by a court on a second or subsequent conviction by such court for breach of any of the rules in connection with which such licenses were issued;
- (iii.) For the refusal of licenses in cases of non-compliance with the provisions of any rule so made, or in cases of persons whose previous licenses have been cancelled by a competent court.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, November 26, 1915. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is necessitated by a decision of the Supreme Court, which has declared that owing to defects in its drafting paragraph (d) of section 11, sub-section (1), does not secure the objects for which it is designed.

2. There has been a widespread practice in the Colony, in making rules for the regulation and control of various industries and occupations, to provide for the issue of licenses for the purpose of such regulation and control. The judgment of the Supreme Court above referred to has declared that this practice requires special legislative authorization, and that that authorization is not effectively given by the paragraph which it is now sought to replace.

3. Objection having been taken to the granting to local bodies of unlimited power to issue or refuse licenses, the present proposal does not give a general power of refusal of such licenses, but limits the power of refusal to cases of non-compliance with the provisions of the rules, and to cases in which a previous license of the applicant has been cancelled by a competent court for a breach of such rules. It also provides for such cancellation by a court.

Attorney-General's Chambers, ANTON BERTRAM,
Colombo, November 16, 1915. Attorney-General.
