Subject to such ceiling, this exemption shall be applicable for expatriate staff for a period of five (05) years from the date of the Project Agreement signed between the Board of Investment of Sri Lanka and the Project Company. Provided however, no single employee shall be given this exemption for a period of excess of five (05) years. Further, the Project Company shall be required to gradually replace expatriate staff with local employees on a best efforts basis.

(2) Value Added Tax (VAT) Act, No. 14 of 2002

All imports of project related goods and local purchases of project related goods or services required for the implementation of the projects as approved by the Board of Investment of Sri Lanka, shall be exempted from the payment of Value Added Tax (VAT), during the project implementation period of eight (08) years. Any contractor or a sub-contractor who supplies to such contractor, to the project, will be entitled to the deferment as permitted in the VAT Act.

The Project Company shall be liable for the payment of VAT as provided in the VAT Act, No. 14 of 2002 from the commencement of commercial operations.

(3) Ports and Airports Development Levy (PAL) Act, No. 18 of 2011

The project company shall be exempted from the payment and charge of ports and Airports Development Levy (PAL), on the project related goods as approved by the Board of Investment of Sri Lanka imported during the Project Implementation Period of Eight (08) years. The exemption shall be applicable on direct imports by the Project Company for the Project or on imports by a contractor or sub-contractor for the purposes of the Project, so long as the consignee of such goods is the Project Company, subject to the condition referred to in item No. (05) below.

(4) The Finance Act, No. 5 of 2005

The Project Company/Contractor shall be exempted from Construction Industry Guarantee Fund Levy imposed under the Finance Act, No. 05 of 2005 in relation to the Project.

(5) Customs Duty on Importation of Project Related Items (Customs Ordinance - Chapter 235)

Exemption from Customs Duty will applicable to all project related items in capital nature and any other project related items as approved by the Board of Investment of Sri Lanka imported in the name of the Project Company implementing the Project in relation to items so imported solely for the purpose of the Project whether directly imported by the Project Company or sourced through the contractors of sub-contractors to the contractors provided that the goods consigned in the name of the Project Company other than the items mentioned in the Negative List within the project implementation period of Eight (08) years. The items in the Negative List will be also exempted from the Customs Duty where such items are either not wholly produced in Sri Lanka or are unavailable in sufficient quality, quantity and time lines for Project completion.

As such, in general, project related goods could be imported through a contractor or a sub-contractor in respect of the project within the Project Implementation Period of Eight (08) years as provide above, only if the Project Company is named as the consignee of such goods. Hence, if such imports have been done along with any other imports, the Project Company shall be solely responsible to ensure that the concessions noted herein shall be available only to project related goods of the Project Company. If so, for any reason this condition has been violated, taxes and levies payable under laws and regulations prevailing at the time shall apply to all goods that do not form part of project related goods for the project and such taxes shall become payable forthwith. It is noted that any personal effects imported by the Project Company for the private/personal use of any employee, consultant or any other of the Project Company shall not be treated as project related goods. It is further noted that in view of the exemptions/concessions granted to the Project Company under the Strategic Development Project Act, No. 14 of 2008, no tenant or any other party associating with the project or the project company will be granted any exemptions or concessions in view of or consequent to such association.
