PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 2 of 1916.

An Ordinance to amend "The Trading with the Enemy Ordinance, No. 20 of 1914."

R. E. STUBBS.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Trading with the Enemy Ordinance, No. 20 of 1914": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Trading with the Enemy (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 2 of 1916."

Addition of new section 6.

2 After section 5 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 6 :

Provision as to declarations* as to ultimate destination of exported goods.

6. (1) The Principal Collector of Customs may require a person, in the course of making entry before shipment, to make a declaration as to the person or country for whom any goods are ultimately destined.

(2) In any such case the exporter shall, if and when required by the Principal Collector of Customs, produce evidence to his satisfaction that those goods have not reached a person who is an enemy or treated as an enemy, or a country which is an enemy country or treated as an enemy country, under any law, whether Colonial or Imperial, for the time being in force relating to trading with the enemy; and if he fails to do so he shall be liable to a penalty of treble the value of the goods, or one thousand rupees, at the election of the Principal Collector of Customs, unless he proves that the goods reached the person or country without his consent or connivance, and that he took all reasonable steps to secure that the ultimate destination of the goods should be the person or country mentioned in the declaration.

(3) If the Principal Collector of Customs has reason to suspect that any such declaration as aforesaid is false in any material particular, the goods may be detained until the Principal Collector of Customs is satisfied as to the truth of the declaration, and, failing such satisfaction, may be treated as if they were goods subject to a prohibition or exportation under "The Necessaries of War Exportation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914."

Addition of new section 7.

3 The following section shall be added immediately after the section added to the principal Ordinance by the last preceding section, and shall be numbered 7 :

Power to seize imported goods.

7. Where the Principal Collector of Customs has reason to suspect that the country of origin of any goods imported into the Colony is an enemy country, or a country treated as an enemy country, under any law, whether Colonial or Imperial, for the time being in force, or that such goods are being imported in contravention of the law relating to trading with the enemy, the goods may be seized as though they were goods enumerated or described in the table of prohibitions and restrictions contained in schedule C of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, and may be forfeited under the said Ordinance, unless it is proved that the country of origin of such goods is not an enemy country or a country so treated as aforesaid, or that such goods are not imported in contravention of the law relating to trading with the enemy, as the case may be.

Addition of new section 8.

4 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance, and numbered 8 :

Power of Principal Collector of Customs to require goods in transit to be landed.

8. (1) The Principal Collector of Customs at the port of Colombo and the Collector of Customs at any other port in the Colony may require any goods on board any ship, not being a neutral ship, entering such port, to be landed and detained subject to his orders, and may detain such ship until such requirement is complied with.

(2) Any master or any other officer in charge of any such ship to whom any such requirement shall be addressed, who shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requirement, or shall attempt in any way to evade the same, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to both.

Passed in Council the Twenty-sixth day of January, One thousand Nine hundred and Sixteen.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government the Fourth day of February, One thousand Nine hundred and Sixteen.

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 3 of 1916.

An Ordinance to amend "The Ceylon Post Office Ordinance, 1908."

R. E. STUBBS.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Ceylon Post Office Ordinance, 1908": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Ceylon Post Office (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 3 of 1916."

Addition of sections for the prevention of smuggling of correspondence during the present war.

2 The following sections shall be added to the principal Ordinance, and shall remain in force during the present war and no longer:

Prohibition against non-postal communications to or from Ceylon.

95. (1) No person shall, without lawful authority, transmit (otherwise than through the post) or convey to or from Ceylon, or receive, or have in his possession for such transmission or conveyance, any letter or any written message from any other person, and if any person contravenes this provision he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both. Provided that if any sender, transmitter, or intended recipient or transmitter of such letter is a person in an enemy or neutral country, such punishment may be enhanced to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand and five hundred rupees, or to both.

(2) This section shall not apply to "shipowners' letters," nor to any other class of letters or written messages that may be for the time being exempted by the Governor.

(3) For the purposes of this section the expression "shipowners' letters" means letters of the owners, charterers, or consignees of vessels inward bound, and of the owners, consignees, or shippers of goods on board those vessels.

Provided that—

- (a) The letters brought in any one vessel to any one person shall not collectively exceed six ounces in weight;
- (b) The owner, charterer, or consignee shall be described as such on the address and superscription; and
- (c) In the case of owners, shippers, or consignees of goods it shall also appear by the ship's manifest that they have goods on board the vessel.

(4) Any person purporting according to the contents of such letter or written message to be the sender, transmitter, or the intended recipient or transmitter thereof shall be deemed to be the sender, transmitter, or intended recipient or transmitter thereof, as the case may be, until the contrary is proved.

Prohibition against sending letters, &c., from Ceylon in invisible ink, &c.

96. If any person sends from Ceylon, whether by post or otherwise, any letter or other document containing any matter written in any medium which is not visible unless subjected to heat or some other treatment, he shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both.

Prevention of conveyance of letters, &c., out of or into Ceylon.

97. Any person landing or embarking at any place in Ceylon shall, on being required to do so by any officer of the Police or Customs, make a declaration as to whether or not he is carrying or conveying any letters or other written messages intended to be transmitted by post or otherwise delivered, and, if so required, shall produce to the person making the requisition any such letters or messages; and any officer of the Police or Customs may search any such person and any baggage with a view to ascertaining whether such person or the person to whom the baggage belongs is carrying or conveying any such letters or messages.

Any officer of the Police or Customs may examine any letters or other messages so produced to him or found on such search, and may transmit them to an officer appointed to censor postal correspondence.

Any person who knowingly makes any false declaration under this section, or on being required to produce any such letters or messages as aforesaid refuses or neglects to do so, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both.

Offences to be cognizable and non-bailable.

98. The offences referred to in the last three preceding sections shall be cognizable and non-bailable offences within the meaning of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

Passed in Council the Twenty-sixth day of January, One thousand Nine hundred and Sixteen.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government the Fourth day of February, One thousand Nine hundred and Sixteen.
