Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Trading with the Enemy (Amendment No. 2) Ordinance, No. of 1916."

Definitions.

2 In this Ordinance—

The expression "prohibited persons" includes all persons or bodies of persons with whom trading on business, or being in the United Kingdom is prohibited under any Proclamation or Order issued under the Imperial Act or any amendment thereof.

Trading with prohibited persons.

3 Any person resident, carrying on business, or being in the Colony, who shall do, or attempt to do, any act which, if committed in the United Kingdom by any person there resident, carrying on business, or being, would constitute an offence under the Imperial Act, or any amendment thereof, shall be guilty of an offence triable and punishable in like manner as the offence of trading with the enemy under the principal Ordinance.

Application of the principal Ordinance, &c.

4 The provisions of the principal Ordinance, and of any Ordinance amending the same, and all other enactments relating to trading with the enemy, shall, subject to such exceptions and adaptations as may be prescribed by the Governor in Executive Council, apply in respect of all prohibited persons, as if for references to trading with the enemy there were substituted references to trading with such persons, and for references to enemies there were substituted references to such persons, and as if for references to offences under the principal Ordinance there were substituted references to offences under this Ordinance.

Power of Collectors of Customs to 5 The Principal Collector of Customs at the port of Colombo, or the Collector of Customs at any other port in the Colony, may in his discretion refuse permission to ship any goods on any ship in such port, or may make the grant of such permission subject to such conditions as he may determine, and if any goods have been already so shipped without his permission, may require such goods to be landed, and may take all necessary measures to enforce the powers committed to him under this section.

6 (1) Any person evading or attempting to evade or to secure the evasion of any requirement or order lawfully made by the Principal Collector of Customs, or a Collector of Customs, for the purpose of the exercise of his powers or duties under this Ordinance or any other Ordinance relating to the trading with the enemy, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to both.

(2) The Principal Collector of Customs, or a Collector of Customs, in any such case, may, if he thinks fit, instead of instituting criminal proceedings against any such person, accept from him such sum of money as he may consider proper in composition of the offence.

SCHEDULE.

CHAPTER 98.

An Act to provide for the Extension of the Restrictions relating to Trading with the Enemy to Persons to whom, though not resident or carrying on Business in Enemy Territory, it is by reason of their Enemy Nationality or Enemy Associations expedient to extend such Restrictions.

(23rd December, 1915.)

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Power to prohibit trading with persons of enemy nationality, &c.

1 (1) His Majesty may by Proclamation prohibit all persons or bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, resident, carrying on business, or being in the United Kingdom, from trading with any persons or bodies of persons not resident or carrying on business in enemy territory or in territory in the occupation of the enemy (other than persons or bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, residing or carrying on business solely within His Majesty's Dominions), wherever by reason of the enemy nationality or enemy association of such persons or bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, it appears to His Majesty expedient so to do, and if any person acts in contravention of any such Proclamation, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, triable and punishable in like manner as the offence of trading with the enemy.

(2) Any list of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom such trading is prohibited by a proclamation under this Act may be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of a Secretary of State.

(3) The provisions of the Trading with the Enemy Acts, 1914 and 1915, and of the Customs (War Powers) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and all other enactments relating to trading with the enemy, shall, subject to such exceptions and adaptations as may be prescribed by Order in Council, apply in respect of such persons and bodies of persons as aforesaid as if for references therein to trading with the enemy there were substituted references to trading with such persons and bodies of persons as aforesaid, and for references to enemies there were substituted references to such persons and bodies of persons as aforesaid, and for references to offences under the Trading with the Enemy Acts, 1914 and 1915, or any of those Acts, there were substituted references to offences under this Act.

(4) For the purposes of this Act a person shall be deemed to have traded with a person or body of persons to whom a proclamation issued under this Act applies, if he enters into any transaction or does any act with, to, on behalf of, or for the benefit of, such a person or body of persons which, if entered into, or done with, to, on behalf of, or for the benefit of, an enemy would be trading with the enemy.

Short title.

2 This Act may be cited as the Trading with the Enemy (Extension of Powers) Act, 1915.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 16, 1916.

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to give effect in this Colony to the policy recently adopted by the Imperial Government under the Trading with the Enemy (Extension of Powers) Act, 1915, by virtue of which the prohibition against trading with the enemy may be extended by Proclamation to trading with specified firms of enemy complexion in neutral or other territories.

2. Hitherto the prohibition against trading with the enemy has applied only to trading with persons or firms or companies carrying on business in enemy countries, or with branches of enemy firms in neutral countries in the Continent of Europe. English law has always made trade domicile the test of enemy character, in this respect differing from French law, according to which the test of enemy character is nationality.

3. The new conditions, created by the growth of telegraphic communication and a cosmopolitan financial system, which enable the resources of enemy firms in neutral countries to be put at the disposal of the enemy, not only for purposes of trade through neutral countries, but also for purposes of war loans, &c., necessitate a revision of the Imperial policy hitherto pursued.

4. It is also thought necessary in the Imperial interests that the Customs authorities should have a general power to restrain shipments, to be exercised in accordance with Imperial direction, and provision is made for this in accordance with the instructions of the Secretary of State by section 5.
