DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to limit the Liability of Hotel Keepers in certain respects.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law concerning the liability of hotel keepers and others in respect of the goods of their guests in manner hereinafter provided: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Hotel Keepers Liability Ordinance, No. of 1916."

Hotel keeper not to be liable for loss, &c., beyond five hundred rupees, except in certain cases.

2 No hotel keeper shall, after the passing of this Ordinance, be liable to make good to any guest of such hotel keeper any loss or injury to goods brought to his hotel to a greater amount than the sum of five hundred rupees, except in the following cases (that is to say):

- (a) Where such goods shall have been stolen, lost, or injured through the wilful act, default, or neglect of such hotel keeper, or any servant in his employ.
- (b) Where such goods shall have been deposited expressly for safe custody with such hotel keeper or his manager.

Provided that in the case of such deposit, it shall be lawful for such hotel keeper or his manager aforesaid, if he thinks fit, to require as a condition of his liability that such goods shall, where the nature of them reasonably so permits, be deposited in a box or other receptacle fastened and sealed by the person depositing the same.

Obligation to receive property of guests for safe custody.

3 If any hotel keeper or his manager shall refuse to receive for safe custody, as before mentioned, any goods of his guest, or if any such guest shall, through any default of such hotel keeper or manager, be unable to deposit such goods as aforesaid, such hotel keeper shall not be entitled to the benefit of this Ordinance in respect of such goods.

Notice of law, &c., to be exhibited.

4 Every hotel keeper shall cause at least one copy of this Ordinance, printed in plain type, to be exhibited in a conspicuous part of the hall or entrance to his hotel, and he shall be entitled to the benefit of this Ordinance in respect of such goods only as shall be brought to his hotel while such copy shall be so exhibited.

Interpretation of terms.

5 For the purpose of this Ordinance the word "hotel" shall mean any hotel, inn, tavern, public house, resthouse, restaurant, eating-house, or other place of refreshment the keeper of which is now by law responsible for the goods of his guest; the words "hotel keeper" shall mean the keeper of such a place who is responsible as aforesaid; the word "manager" shall mean the agent or servant of the hotel keeper for the time being in charge of the hotel or any person duly appointed by the hotel keeper to receive the goods of his guests for safe custody as aforesaid; and the word "goods" shall mean goods and property of every description, including a horse or other live animal and any gear appertaining thereto, and any carriage, cart, bicycle, rickshaw, motor car, motor bicycle, or other vehicle.

Saving clause.

6 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be deemed to extend the liabilities to which an hotel keeper is now by law subject or to affect the same otherwise than as hereinbefore provided.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 12, 1916.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the proposed Ordinance is to limit the liability of hotel keepers for the property of guests at the hotel.

The reasons for the proposed Ordinance are that the Roman-Dutch law imposes an unlimited liability on hotel keepers for the value of all property brought to the hotel by a guest.

This is often a cause of great hardship to hotel proprietors, and their liability is limited by the law in England and in other countries.

This Ordinance will bring the law of Ceylon into line with the law obtaining in England.

H. CREASY.
