DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1898."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1898": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1916."

Substitution of new definition of "kerosine oil."

2 For the definition of "kerosine oil" in section 3 of the principal Ordinance the following definition shall be substituted:

"Kerosine oil" shall include the liquids commonly known by the names of rock oil, Rangoon oil, Burma oil, kerosine, petroleum, paraffin oil, mineral oil, petroline, gasoline, benzol, benzoline, benzine, and any liquid that is made from petroleum, coal, schist, peat, or any other bituminous substance, or from any products of petroleum with a flashing point of less than 150° F., and any inflammable hydrocarbon (including any mixture of hydrocarbon and any liquid containing hydrocarbon) which is capable of being used for providing reasonably efficient motive power for a motor car.

Substitution of new section 5.

Rebate of duty on kerosine oil used in oil engines.

3 For section 5 of the principal Ordinance the following new section shall be substituted :

5 (1) A rebate shall be allowed by the Principal Collector of Customs of duty paid on kerosine oil used as the source of motive power in stationary oil engines and in engines of vehicles employed in the transport of goods upon the production of such certificate and such evidence as may be prescribed by regulations to be made by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, under this Ordinance.

(2) The rebate shall be paid out of the duties received by the Principal Collector of Customs, anything in section 16 of the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 to the contrary notwithstanding.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 21, 1916.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE objects of this Ordinance are :—

- (a) To abolish the rebate of duty on petrol used for motor cars, except in so far as such cars are employed in transport of goods. There appears to be no justification for retaining the exemption from duty for the purpose of articles of luxury of this description ;
- (b) To bring the definition of " kerosine oil " in our Ordinance into line with that in use in England.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, July 13, 1916.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to Incorporate the Disabled Ceylon Men's Fund.

Preamble.

WHEREAS an association has been established consisting of persons interested in the welfare of persons from Ceylon who may become incapacitated or disabled through wounds, or diseases, or sickness, or other cause whilst in the service of the Allied Governments presently at war with Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, and Bulgaria, and for the relief of the dependents of any such persons :

And whereas, in order to facilitate the effective carrying out of the objects with which the said association was founded, it has applied to be incorporated, and it is expedient for the public good to grant such application :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as " The Disabled Ceylon Men's Fund Ordinance, No. of 1916."

Interpretation.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

" Duly qualified persons " shall mean persons being resident in Ceylon and having left Ceylon, or who, being absent from Ceylon and having remained so absent for the purpose of serving the cause of the Allied Governments, have rendered services to the cause of the Allied Governments in the present war.

" Dependents " shall mean such persons who shall be considered by the standing committee in its absolute discretion to have been dependent either wholly or partially for their maintenance, education, or advancement in life upon any qualified person who may have suffered loss of life or disability in the present war.

“ Allied Governments ” shall mean the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and its colonies and dependencies, either alone or in alliance with any other Power or Powers, and services rendered to the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and its colonies and dependencies, or to the Government of any Power or Powers in alliance with the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and its colonies and dependencies shall be deemed to be equivalent to services rendered to the Allied Governments.

“ Services ” shall mean personal services of any nature whatsoever rendered in any capacity, either combatant or non-combatant or otherwise, and which in the opinion of the standing committee were rendered in the present war or in connection therewith.

“ Present war ” shall mean the war presently being carried on by the Allied Governments against Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, and Bulgaria, or any continuation of the present war or a war against the said Powers or any one or more of them, or against the said Powers or any one or more of them in alliance with any other Power or Powers, or any campaign or expedition, naval or military, in any part of the world, connected with or resulting from the present war; or any other war as aforesaid.

“ Disability ” shall mean incapacity, either total or partial and either permanent or temporary, from earning a livelihood, or means of sustenance, and shall include incapacity caused by wounds, sickness, disease, or accident sustained or suffered either in active operations in the field or otherwise howsoever, either during the continuance of the present war or thereafter, and which in the opinion of the standing committee shall have been, either directly or indirectly, caused by, or the result of services to the Allied Governments in the present war.

“ Relief ” shall mean relief and assistance financial or otherwise.

“ Loss of life ” shall mean loss of life from wounds, sickness, disease, or accident sustained or suffered either in active operations in the field or otherwise howsoever, and occurring either during the continuance of the present war or thereafter, and which in the opinion of the standing committee shall have been directly or indirectly caused by, or the result of services to the Allied Governments in, the present war.

“ Treasurer ” shall mean the Treasurer of the corporation.

Incorporation of the standing committee.

3 From and after the passing of this Ordinance the standing committee for the time being, and from time to time of the said association, and such and so many persons as now are, or shall hereafter become, members of the committee of the said association, shall be and become a corporation with continuance for ever under the name of “ The Disabled Ceylon Men’s Fund,” and by that name shall or may sue or be sued in all courts, and shall have full power and authority to have and to use a common seal, and to change and alter the same at their will and pleasure.

General object of the corporation.

4 The general objects for which the corporation is constituted are hereby declared to be the rendering of relief to duly qualified persons and their dependents in such manner and upon such terms as the standing committee shall in its absolute discretion think fit.

Administration of the affairs of the corporation.

5 The affairs of the corporation shall, subject to the rules made as hereinafter provided, be administered by the standing committee for the time being of the said association.

Constitution of the standing committee.

6 Such standing committee shall consist of the Chairman for the time being, the Secretary for the time being of the association, the Controller of Revenue, the Colonial Treasurer, and such further members of the committee for the time being of the association as may be annually elected by the committee to serve as members of the standing committee.

Provided that the standing committee shall not exceed fifty in number at any time. In the event of any casual vacancy occurring in the standing committee it may be filled forthwith by the committee, and any person so appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall only hold office as long as the person in whose place such person was appointed would have held the same.

Power and authority of the standing committee.

7 The standing committee shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, and of any rules made under section 12, and subject and without prejudice to the powers vested in the financial committee under section 11 hereof, have full power and authority generally to govern, direct, and decide the business and affairs of the association, and all matters whatsoever connected therewith.

Provided that the standing committee shall not exercise any powers which are by this Ordinance, or by any rules under section 12, declared to be exercisable by the corporation in general meeting.

Provided also that no rule made by the corporation in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the standing committee which would have been valid if such rule had not been made.

Executive committee.

8 The standing committee shall have power to appoint annually an executive committee consisting of the Chairman, the Secretary, and one other member of the standing committee to deal with all cases of emergency which may arise between the meetings of the standing committee.

Election of Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer.

9 The Chairman of the standing committee, the Secretary of the corporation, and the Treasurer shall be elected at the annual general meeting of the committee, and shall hold office until the next annual general meeting. If the said Chairman or the Secretary or the Treasurer elected at the annual general meeting is unable or unwilling for any reason to continue in office until the next annual general meeting, it shall be lawful for the standing committee to appoint another Chairman or Secretary or Treasurer in place of the Chairman or Secretary or Treasurer so unable or unwilling to act, and the Chairman or Secretary or the Treasurer so appointed shall continue in office until the next annual general meeting.

Duties of Treasurer.

10 (1) The Treasurer shall receive and keep account of all the moneys and funds belonging to the corporation, and shall pay all sums voted in respect of applications for relief by the standing committee, and with the sanction of such committee all expenses incurred in connection with the carrying out of the objects of the Ordinance and the management and control of the moneys and funds of the said corporation. He shall also prepare and submit bi-monthly to the said standing committee an account of the transactions of the corporation.

Meetings of the standing committee.

(2) Meetings for the transaction of the business of the standing committee shall be held from time to time, and the Chairman or Secretary shall, on the requisition of five members of such committee, call a special meeting of the standing committee for the transaction of such business as shall be mentioned in the requisition.

Quorum.

(3) Five members of the standing committee shall constitute a quorum, and the Chairman shall have a casting vote, in addition to his own original vote.

Duties of financial committee.

11 The standing committee shall once in each year elect five of its number to serve as a financial committee, and such financial committee shall continue in office for one year, and all acts whatsoever required by virtue of this Ordinance to be done by the financial committee may and shall be done and decided by the majority of the financial committee. Without prejudice to the general powers hereinbefore conferred on the financial committee, it shall be lawful for it to determine in which of the securities authorized by this Ordinance the funds of the association shall or may be invested, and the terms and conditions of such investment.

Rule-making powers.

12 (1) It shall be lawful for the corporation from time to time at any general meeting of the committee and by a majority of votes to make rules—

(a) For the control and administration of the funds of the corporation ;

- (b) For the conduct of the duties of the standing committee ;
- (c) For the procedure in the transaction of business ; and
- (d) Otherwise generally for the management of the affairs of the corporation and the accomplishment of its objects.

(2) Such rules when made may by a like meeting be altered, amended, or cancelled, subject, however, to the provisos next hereinafter following, namely :

- (a) That no rule passed and no decision come to by the corporation in general meeting shall be altered, amended, or cancelled except by a majority of two-thirds of the members present and voting at any subsequent general meeting of the committee.
- (b) That no rule, nor any alteration, amendment, or cancellation of any rule, shall have effect until the same has been published in the "Ceylon Government Gazette," and upon such publication the same shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been herein enacted.

General meeting.

13 The Secretary, upon the request of the Chairman or the standing committee, or upon the written request of five or more members of the committee, shall call a general meeting of the corporation.

Conditions of the holding of general meeting.

14 No general meeting shall be held unless the quorum of members prescribed by the rules be present, and unless at least ten days' notice, specifying the time and place of such meeting and the purpose for which it is to be held, has been given by advertisement in two of the local newspapers printed in the English language or in such other manner as may be required by any rule made by the corporation, and no business shall be brought before or transacted at such general meeting other than the business specified in such notice.

Annual general meeting.

15 An annual general meeting of the committee shall be held once in each year, when there shall be submitted a balance sheet, a statement of assets and liabilities, and an account of receipts and disbursements during the previous twelve months, all of which shall be prepared by the Treasurer and duly audited.

Audit.

16 The accounts of the corporation shall be audited by or under the direction of the Colonial Auditor.

Vesting of property in the corporation.

17 On the coming into operation of this Ordinance, all and every the property, estate, and effects and funds and moneys belonging to the association, whether held in the name of the association or in the name of any person or persons in trust or otherwise for the association or which are now due to the association, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the corporation hereby constituted, and the same, together with all after-acquired property, and all subscriptions, contributions, donations, and any other additions thereto received or to be received, shall be held for the corporation for the uses, ends, and purposes in this Ordinance provided and declared.

Investments.

18 It shall be lawful for the corporation to place the whole of the surplus funds belonging to the corporation and any moneys or funds belonging or left or which shall hereafter be paid into or come into the hands of the corporation or into the hands of any persons in trust for the corporation in or upon any stocks, funds, or securities of, or guaranteed by, the Government of the United Kingdom or of any British colony or dependency, or upon the debentures, securities, or preference shares of any company or corporation (municipal or otherwise) with limited liability paying a dividend on its ordinary shares in the United Kingdom or any British colony or dependency, or upon any real or leasehold securities in the United Kingdom, India, or Ceylon, but not elsewhere, such leasehold securities being held for a term whereof sixty years at least shall be unexpired at the time of such investment, with power for the corporation from time to time to vary any such investments for others of the same or like nature, provided always that, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the corporation shall be at liberty to hold any debentures, securities, stocks, or shares, whether ordinary or preference, in any company with limited liability that may be bequeathed or given to the corporation, whether such company shall at the time of such bequest be paying a dividend on its ordinary shares or not, without being obliged to sell or realize the same, and to invest the proceeds of any sale or realization when the same shall be made on investments hereby authorized.

Affixing of seal.

19 The seal of the corporation shall not be affixed to any instrument whatsoever except in the presence of the Chairman or one other member of the executive committee and one member of the financial committee and the Secretary, who shall sign their names to the instrument in token of their presence, and such signing shall be independent of the signing of any person as a witness.

Power of corporation to hold property.

20 The corporation shall be able and capable in law to take and hold any property, movable or immovable, which may become vested in it by virtue of any grant, gift, testamentary disposition, or otherwise, and all such property shall be held by the corporation for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Power of corporation to sell, exchange, mortgage, demise, or lease lands.

21 It shall be lawful for the corporation to sell, exchange, or mortgage and demise any of the lands vested in it for building or other purposes, or on lease for any term not exceeding ninety-nine years at such rent and upon such terms and conditions as the finance committee may think fit, and with the ordinary covenants for re-entry in case of non-payment of rent, breach of covenant, or otherwise.

Attorney-General as arbitrator.

22 In case any doubt or ambiguity shall arise and any controversy shall take place among the members of the corporation and of the standing committee or either of them as to the interpretation of this Ordinance, or as to the powers of the said committee, the same shall be referred to the Attorney-General, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, July 22, 1916. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to incorporate the standing committee of the association known as "The Disabled Ceylon Men's Fund," with a view to facilitating the permanent administration of the trust funds committed to it.
