DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Branch Roads Ordinance, 1896."

Preamble.	WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Branch Roads Ordinance, 1896": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :
Short title.	1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Branch Roads (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1916."
Amendment of section 6.	2 In line 20 of section 6 of the principal Ordinance, after the word "erroneously" and before the word "included," there shall be inserted the words "or otherwise."

By His Excellency's command,
 Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, October 6, 1916. R. E. STUBBS,
 Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Branch Roads Ordinance, while it allows the inclusion in a district of estates which may have been "inadvertently or otherwise excluded," only allows the exclusion of estates that have been "erroneously included." This Ordinance puts the Provincial Committee's power of exclusion on the same footing as its powers of inclusion.

Attorney-General's Chambers, ANTON BERTRAM,
 Colombo, September 6, 1916. Attorney-General.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 10, 1916.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to establish a system of compulsory military training for Europeans resident in the Colony.

2. It applies to every male European British subject between the ages of 18 and 55 resident in the Colony, and it requires every such person, not already a volunteer, who is between the ages of 18 and 40 to join one of the ordinary Volunteer Corps, and every such person, not already a volunteer, between the ages of 41 and 55 to join a Town Guard or a reserve corps or company of a Town Guard.

Exclusion of certain provisions.

3. All persons to whom the Ordinance applies, whether they join in accordance with the obligatory provisions of the Ordinance or are already volunteers, may be required to attend a prescribed number of drills, and to qualify in the prescribed manner for the purpose of attaining the necessary standard of efficiency, and may further be required, after they have attained that standard, to attend sufficient drills, &c., to maintain their efficiency (section 36).

4. All persons to whom these compulsory provisions apply are subjected to penalties if they do not comply with them, or if they are guilty of misconduct or indiscipline (section 37).

5. Committees are to be appointed with power to exempt persons from the application of these obligatory provisions on certain defined grounds, and these committees are given jurisdiction to try the offences in respect of which the penalties referred to in the last paragraph may be imposed. An appeal lies from the orders, convictions, and sentences of these committees to the Governor in Executive Council (section 38).

6. It will probably prove necessary that all persons to whom these obligatory provisions apply should be registered. Section 40 authorizes the Governor in Executive Council to make rules for this and for other purposes.

Attorney-General's Chambers, ANTON BERTRAM,
Colombo, September 20, 1916. Attorney-General.
