NOTE (1).—All persons or firms resident, carrying on business, or being in the United Kingdom are prohibited from having any dealings with any of the persons or firms mentioned in this list, or in any list issued under the Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation, 1916, No. 3. A list consolidating all previous lists was published on December 22, 1916 (the Consolidating List No. 15a), which, together with the lists No. 16 and 17 of January 5 and 19, 1917, respectively, and the list herewith annexed, contains all the names which up to this date are included in the Statutory List.

Additions to and variations in these lists will be published at intervals approximately of two weeks.

The lists are published in the London Gazette and reproduced in the Board of Trade Journal, and separate copies of all lists may be obtained at a small cost from the Superintendent of Publications, His Majesty's Stationery Office, Imperial House, Kingsway, W.C.

NOTE (2).—Where a person or firm mentioned in the list has more than one address in the same country, all dealings in that country with such person or firm are prohibited, even in cases where one only of the addresses is specifically mentioned.

*NOTE (3).—Trading is prohibited under the Trading with the Enemy Proclamations of June 25 and November 10, 1915, with any person or firm of enemy nationality resident or carrying on business in China, Siam, Persia, Morocco, Liberia, or Portuguese East Africa. Persons or firms in the United Kingdom are therefore prohibited from trading with any person or firm of enemy nationality in any of those countries, even though such person or firm is not mentioned by name in the Statutory List.

NOTE (4).—In order to minimize as far as possible any inconvenience which may be caused to British traders by the dislocation of export trade owing to the inclusion in the Statutory List of a former connection, the Foreign Trade Department is collecting and classifying the names of non-enemy firms who may be able to act as substitutes for firms mentioned in the Statutory List. A considerable amount of information is already available at the Foreign Trade Department, and it is in many cases possible to suggest the names of satisfactory substitutes without the necessity of referring the matter abroad. The Department is, however, prepared on application to inquire of His Majesty's Representatives abroad for the names of suitable substitutes. When the applicant wishes this done by telegraph, he is required to undertake to pay the cost of telegraphic correspondence. It would greatly facilitate the work of the Foreign Trade Department if applicants in making inquiries would specify the particular trade or trades for which substitutes are required.

NOTE (5).—The Statutory List for each country is telegraphed, on the day of issue, to His Majesty's Representatives in that country, who is instructed to notify accordingly British Consular Officers, to whom persons abroad should apply for information as to names on the list. Persons and firms in the United Kingdom with agencies or branches abroad would, however, be well advised to furnish such agencies or branches with issues of the list as they appear. The lists for all countries in Central or South America are also telegraphed to His Majesty's Ambassador at Washington, who transmits them to H. M. Consul-General at New York and to other centres in the United States likely to be interested.

4. If the tender be by a Company formed for the purpose of acquiring "the premises," its Memorandum of Association must contain special provisions, to be approved by the Custodian of Enemy Property, Ceylon, or the Secretary of State for the Colonies, to exclude the possibility of the Company falling under foreign control.

5. If the tender be by a Company already in existence, and if its Articles of Association do not already so provide, they must be altered in a manner satisfactory to the Custodian of Enemy Property, Ceylon, or the Secretary of State for the Colonies, so as to exclude the possibility of the Company falling under foreign control. "The Vendors" will require an undertaking from the Company, either before the tender is considered or before the execution of a transfer of "the premises" in the event of the Company's tender being accepted, that the Company will use its best endeavours to have the provision referred to above inserted in the Memorandum of Association, if legislation should be passed enabling the Memorandum of Association to be altered by the insertion of such provision.

13. Upon payment in full of the purchase price, and upon the purchaser satisfying the Custodian of Enemy Property, Ceylon, or the Secretary of State for the Colonies, that he is a British subject, and that no "prohibited person" or "foreigner" or "corporation under foreign control" within the meaning of Chapter VI. of the said "The Enemy Firms Liquidation (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 4 of 1917," or any person acting for or on behalf of or in trust for such "prohibited person" or "foreigner" or "corporation under foreign control," is directly or indirectly interested with him in the purchase; and also upon his making such affidavit as the said Custodian or the Secretary of State may demand in, or similar to, the Form B annexed to these Conditions, and if the purchaser

14. The purchaser shall not be entitled to a transfer of "the premises" or any portion thereof, nor to possession thereof or any portion thereof, until he shall have satisfied the Conditions set forth in Conditions Nos. 12 and 13 hereof.

15. (1) If any person whose tender shall be accepted, and to whom notification of such acceptance shall be given, shall fail to sign the Memorandum as provided and within the time prescribed in Condition No. 11 hereof, or to pay the sum mentioned therein, he shall forfeit to and for the benefit of "the Vendors" the sum deposited by him with his tender.

(2) If he shall fail to pay the balance seventy-five per cent. of the purchase price within the time prescribed by Condition No. 12 hereof, he shall forfeit all moneys paid by him. In such event it shall be lawful for "the Vendors" either to sue the purchaser for the balance due or to re-sell "the premises" in whole or in parts at the risk of the purchaser and his sureties, who shall not be entitled to claim any benefit or advantage arising from such re-sale, but shall be liable for any deficiency between the price of the original sale and the re-sale, after taking into consideration all expenses attending such re-sale, and any or all payments made in respect of the original sale. In the event of there being an overplus as the result of such re-sale reckoned as aforesaid, such overplus shall accrue to the benefit of "the Vendors."

16. If from any circumstance unforeseen on the part of "the Vendors" they shall delay to perfect or complete the purchase beyond the time specified, such delay shall not annul the sale. Any unintentional error or misstatement made in the description or extent of "the premises" shall not vitiate the sale. The person tendering shall be deemed to have been satisfied by inspection in person or by agent with respect to "the premises," which are the subject-matter of the sale.

17. If any dispute, doubt, or question shall arise touching the construction, meaning, or effect of the aforesaid particulars, remarks, or conditions, or anything therein contained, or the rights or liabilities of "the Vendors" or any persons tendering or party hereunto, or any surety of any such person or party, the same shall be referred to the arbitration of two persons to be chosen one by each of the parties at variance. The decision of the said arbitrators, or, in the event of their disagreeing, the decision of the Governor of Ceylon, shall be conclusive and binding upon the parties at variance.

18. In these Conditions the expression "British subject" shall not be deemed to include a person born in Ceylon whose parents are or were subjects of a State now at war with His Majesty, or the wife of any such person.

"THE LOCAL BOARDS ORDINANCE, 1898."

THE following rules relating to the grant of retiring pensions and gratuities to officers of the Local Board, Kurunegala, prescribed by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, under the provisions of section 87 of Ordinance No. 13 of 1898, are published for general information.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 17, 1917.

By His Excellency's command,
R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

RULES REFERRED TO.

Pension Rules for the Local Board, Kurunegala.

1. No pension will be granted to any officer of the Local Board of Kurunegala without the authority of the Governor, in order to obtain which a certificate of service, age, good conduct, and of the ground of retirement must be submitted to the Colonial Secretary.

2. Subject to the provisions of rule 1, all officers of the Local Board of Kurunegala on the fixed establishment drawing a salary of Rs. 250 per annum and upwards shall be entitled to pension as follows:—

An officer who shall have served ten years and upwards and under eleven years shall receive an annual allowance of ten-sixtieths of his annual salary, eleven years and under twelve years an annual allowance of eleven-sixtieths of such salary, and in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of one-sixtieth in respect of each additional year of such service until the completion of a period of service of thirty-five years, when the annual allowance of thirty-five-sixtieths may be granted, and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond thirty-five years; provided that officers in office at the date of the passing of these rules who do not receive promotion or new appointments shall be entitled to pension at three-fourths of the rates prescribed in this section, but such officers will be entitled to full pensions under these rules, provided that they pay, within a period to be fixed by the Board, all arrears of contribution that would have been payable by them if these rules had been in force at the time they joined the fixed establishment of the Board.

3. No officer of the Local Board will be held to have an absolute right to compensation for past services, or to any pension under these rules; and the Local Board will retain power and authority to dismiss any such officer without compensation.

4. No pension shall be granted to any officer of the Local Board who shall be under fifty-five years of age, unless upon a certificate from the Chairman of the Local Board and from two medical practitioners that he is incapable from infirmity of mind or body to discharge the duties of his situation, nor unless he shall have discharged these duties with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of the Chairman.

5. It shall be competent for the Local Board, with the authority of the Governor, in cases of peculiar and extraordinary merit in respect of duties outside of those for which the officer has received a salary, to grant special and higher rates of pension than those laid down in these rules.

6. The above-mentioned rates are only to be granted in case of decidedly faithful and meritorious service, but when the testimony as to the fidelity, diligence, and merit is in any respect defective a deduction will be made from the apportioned rate. Where there has been obvious negligence, irregularity, or misconduct, the grant of an allowance will be altogether withheld.

7. The claim of an officer of the Local Board to pension will be considered to have commenced from the date of his first permanent appointment to the fixed establishment of the Local Board.

8. Every officer on the provisional and temporary establishment drawing a salary of over Rs. 250 per annum will, in the event of transfer to the fixed establishment, be entitled to reckon his provisional and temporary services when it has been continuous with his subsequent permanent service.

9. The services in respect of which superannuated allowances are granted must in all cases be continuous, unless interrupted by abolition of office or other temporary suspension of employment not arising from misconduct or voluntary resignation of the office.

10. The pension will be computed upon the salary of the permanent office held by an officer of the Local Board at the time of his retirement, provided he shall have held such appointment for at least three years, otherwise the pension shall be calculated upon the average of salaries attached to the permanent offices held by such person during the three years next preceding the commencement of such pension.

11. In case of suspension or reduction or abolition of office, temporary allowances may be assigned according to the specified rates, on condition, however, that the persons receiving the same shall be liable to be recalled into service, and with the understanding that they are to be re-employed, as opportunity may offer, in preference to new applicants for office.

12. In the case of officers to whom temporary allowances may be assigned in accordance with rule 11 on the abolition or re-organization of their offices, and who may be afterwards re-employed, one-half of the period during which they have been in receipt of such allowance will be allowed to count towards pension on their final retirement.

13. In the case of the abolition of an office, a period of ten years shall be added to the actual service in computing the allowance of persons who have served twenty years and upwards, of seven years where the service is over fifteen and under twenty years, and of five years where the service is over ten and under fifteen years. To persons who shall have served under ten years and not less than five years a gratuity shall be granted calculated at the rate of one month's pay for each year's service, with an additional allowance of three months' pay. To persons who shall have served less than five years, a gratuity shall be awarded calculated at the rate of one month's pay for each year's service, with one month's pay added. The number of years to be added to actual service on abolition of office should not be more than that which, if added to the age of the retiring officer, would make that age up to sixty, except that one year may be added in the case of an officer of the actual age of sixty or more, unless the officer was quite disqualified for further service.

14. In the case of persons retired through abolition of office, who, if they had served the extra time granted by rule 13 for compensation, would at the expiry of that time be over fifty-five, the provisions in rule 13 shall not be binding on the Local Board, but each particular case will be decided after a full consideration of all the circumstances attending it.

15. Should the term of office not warrant the assignment of an annual allowance, a gratuity may be granted at the rate of one month's salary for each year's service. For a fractional part of a year's service exceeding six months, half a month's salary will be added to the gratuity.

16. If any person being in receipt of any pension or superannuation allowance from the Local Board shall be convicted of any offence in any court of justice in the Island for which he shall be sentenced to death, or to any term of imprisonment with hard labour exceeding six months, such pension or superannuation allowance shall forthwith determine and cease to be payable, unless such person shall, within three months after his conviction, receive free pardon, or unless the Local Board shall otherwise order.

17. Every person hereafter appointed to any office under the Local Board to which a pension is attached on retirement may be required to retire from the service of the Local Board on or after attaining the age of fifty-five upon the receipt of twelve months' notice to that effect, but any such person may continue in office till sixty years of age with the consent of the Board.

18. As a contribution towards the cost of his pension a deduction of 4 per cent. shall be made from the salary of each officer entitled to pension.

19. Officers receiving promotion or taking up a new appointment shall receive a salary less by 20 per cent. than the maximum salary payable to their predecessors. The initial salary shall be raised annually by 2 per cent. of the maximum salary until the maximum salary shall be attained.

20. Should an officer be transferred to a post under Government or under another Local Board or other public authority with the approval of the Board, he shall retain his claim to ultimate pension for service rendered to the Board, provided that he finally retires under circumstances which would entitle him to pension in terms of these rules.

21. Should an officer who retires on pension find after such retirement an employment under Government, or under another semi-official body, on a salary equal to or higher than what he drew from the Board at the time of his retirement, his pension shall be suspended so long as such employment continues. If he draws a less salary, he shall be entitled to only so much of his pension as, when added to the salary of the new appointment, will make his total emolument equal to the salary last drawn by him previous to his retirement.

22. When an officer seeking pension under this Minute is found to be already in receipt of a pension from another public body or from Government, his maximum pension under this Minute shall be such as when added to such other pension shall not exceed thirty-five-sixtieths of the highest salary drawn by the officer at any time during the course of his service, be it under Government or under a semi-official body.

23. Local Board employes drawing a salary of less than Rs. 250 per annum and retiring on account of age or infirmity after serving continuously for a period of twenty-five years and upwards may, if the Board be satisfied that they are unfit, owing to age or infirmity of body or mind, to discharge efficiently the duties of their offices, be granted such long service allowances not exceeding Rs. 5 per mensem in each case as the Board may award. Persons in receipt of a daily pay, who have completed a period of twenty-five years of continuous service, retiring under similar circumstances may be awarded gratuities calculated at the rate of one month's pay for every three years' of service.

24. Subject to the approval of His Excellency the Governor, the Board may allow a gratuity to the widow or orphans of an officer in the event of his death, provided that he has not received from the Board any gratuity.
