DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Rural Schools Ordinance, 1907."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Rural Schools Ordinance, 1907," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Rural Schools (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1917."

Substitution of new section 18.

2 For section 18 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted:

Power of district committee to enforce compulsory attendance at school.

18. Whenever in the opinion of the district school committee the education of the children in any school division is sufficiently provided for by means of schools either situated in that division or elsewhere, the committee may exercise the power conferred upon them by the next following section of compelling by means of by-laws the attendance of children at school. Provided that no child shall be compelled to attend school from a distance exceeding three miles.

Amendment of section 19.

3 Section 19 of the principal Ordinance shall be amended by the insertion, after the words "twenty rupees," of the words "or, in default of payment, imprisonment, rigorous or simple, for a period not exceeding fourteen days."

Substitution of new sub-section
for sub-section
(1) (a) of section
20.

4 For sub-section (1) (a) of section 20 of the principal Ordinance the following sub-section shall be substituted :

(a) Specifying the limits of any school division for which efficient provision has been made for education by means of public vernacular schools situated either in that division or elsewhere.

Amendment of sub-section (1)
(b) of section 20.

5 Sub-section (1) (b) of section 20 of the principal Ordinance shall be amended by substituting the words "a public vernacular school" for the words "one of such schools" in the sixth line thereof.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 15, 1917.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTION 2 of this Ordinance allows a district school committee, in determining where sufficient provision has been made for the education of children in any division, so as to justify them in framing compulsory by-laws, to take into account schools established outside the division, but within the statutory distance.

2. Section 3 introduces a consequential amendment necessitated by the amendment of section 20 (1) (c) by "The Rural Schools (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 14 of 1913."

3. Sections 4 and 5 are consequential to section 2.

Attorney-General's Chambers,

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 4 of 1866, intituled
"An Ordinance to enlarge the power of the Surveyor-General to demand the Production of Deeds and make Surveys of Lands, and to facilitate the proof of Surveys."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Ordinance No. 4 of 1866 by enlarging the powers thereby conferred upon the Surveyor-General: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Surveyor-General (Enlargement of Powers) Ordinance, No. of 1917."

Amendment of section 3.

2. In section 3 of the principal Ordinance, after the words "or is the private property of the person claiming the same," there shall be added the words "or as shall be necessary for the purpose of the discharge of any official duty of the Surveyor-General or of any officer of his Department."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 11, 1917.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to extend to the Surveyor-General for all purposes of town and topographical surveys the power which he possesses for the purpose of the verification of Crown titles and boundaries.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to provide for the Discipline of Seamen serving on Ships chartered or requisitioned for the purposes of the present War.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the due observance of discipline on board vessels requisitioned or chartered by the Crown or during the continuance of the present hostilities: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Merchant Shipping (War Service) Ordinance, No. of 1917."

Punishment for indiscipline.

2 If a seaman lawfully engaged in accordance with the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1894 to 1914, or with any Indian Act, or with any Ordinance of the Colony or of any other British Possession, to serve on board any British ship belonging to or chartered or requisitioned by the Admiralty or by the Government of India or of the Colony or of any other British Possession—

(a) Neglects or refuses without reasonable cause to join his ship or to proceed to sea in his ship, or is absent without leave from his ship or from his duty at any time; or

(b) Joins his ship or is whilst on board his ship in a state of drunkenness so that the performance of his duties or the navigation of his ship is thereby impeded, he shall be guilty of an offence; and the master, mate, or owner of the ship, or his agent, or any commissioned naval officer, may, with or without the assistance of the police, convey on board his ship any seaman whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of an offence under this section, and may also arrest him without first procuring a warrant, and all police officers are hereby directed to give assistance if required. Provided always that no commissioned naval officer acting in pursuance of the powers aforesaid shall be liable to any penalty or to any action for damages for false imprisonment.

(2) A seaman guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction before a Police Magistrate, if the offence comes within the provisions of paragraph (a), to the penalties prescribed for such offences in section 221 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and if the offence comes within the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 12, 1917.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is introduced in accordance with the directions of the Secretary of State for the purpose of better providing for the discipline on board Admiralty transports while in the harbours of the Colony.

2. The Ordinance is so drawn as to embrace any possible cases of indiscipline occurring in connection with ships chartered or requisitioned by the Indian or any Colonial Government.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Enemy Property Ordinance, No. 23 of 1916."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Enemy Property Ordinance, No. 23 of 1916": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Enemy Property (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1917."

Amendment of section 8 of principal Ordinance.

2 In sub-section (2) of section 8 of the principal Ordinance, for the words "by whose order any property belonging to an enemy was vested in the custodian under this Ordinance, or of any court in which judgment has been recovered against an enemy," there shall be substituted the word "thereof."

Addition of new sections to principal Ordinance.

3 The following sections shall be added immediately after section 8 of the principal Ordinance:

Power of Governor in Executive Council to vest property in custodian.

8 A. (1) The Governor in Executive Council, in any case where it appears to him expedient to do so, may, by order in Council, vest in the custodian any property, movable or immovable, including any rights of any description in, or arising out of, property, movable or immovable, belonging to or held or managed for, or on behalf of, an enemy or enemy subject, or the right to transfer that property, and may, by any such order, or any subsequent order, confer on the custodian such powers of selling, managing, or otherwise dealing with the property as to the Governor in Executive Council may seem proper.

(2) A vesting order under this section as respects property of any description shall be of the like purport and effect as a vesting order under section 7, and every such order shall be sufficient to vest in the custodian any property or the right to transfer any property, as provided by the order, without the necessity for any further conveyance, assurance, or document.

(3) Where a vesting order has been made under this section as respects any property belonging to, or held or managed for, or on behalf of a person who appeared to the Governor in Executive Council to be an enemy, or an enemy subject, the order shall not, nor shall any proceedings thereunder or in consequence thereof, be invalidated or affected by reason only of such person having prior to the date of the order died or ceased to be an enemy or an enemy subject, or subsequently dying or ceasing to be an enemy or an enemy subject, or by reason of its being subsequently ascertained that he was not an enemy or an enemy subject.

(4) The transfer on sale by the custodian of any property shall be conclusive evidence in favour of the purchaser and of the custodian that the requirements of this section have been complied with.

(5) All property vested in the custodian under this section, and the proceeds of the sale of, or the money arising from, any such property, shall be held and dealt with in accordance with the provisions of section 8 of this Ordinance, and for the purpose of property so vested the provisions of that section with reference to "enemies" shall apply to "enemy subjects."

Appointment of trustee for the purpose of land acquisition proceedings.

8 B. (1) In any case in which any proceedings under "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876," are instituted with reference to any property vested in the custodian under this Ordinance, the custodian may, by order published in the "Government Gazette," appoint any person to act as trustee for the purpose of representing the interests of any enemy or enemy subject interested in the property in any such proceedings, and any person so appointed shall be deemed to be the only person entitled to represent the interests of any such enemy or enemy subject in the said proceedings.

(2) No claim purporting to be made on behalf of any enemy or enemy subject shall be recognized in any such proceedings, unless such claim is made by a trustee appointed under this section.

(3) The reasonable remuneration of any trustee appointed under this section, and all costs reasonably incurred by him in the prosecution of any claim (except in so far as such costs may be ordered to be paid by the Government Agent under the said Ordinance), shall be payable out of any compensation paid under the said Ordinance, but, subject to the deduction of such remuneration and costs, it shall be the duty of the trustee, on receiving the payment of such compensation, to pay the same to the custodian, and any sum so received by the custodian shall be held and dealt with by him in accordance with the provisions of section 8 of this Ordinance, and for the purpose of any sum so received the provisions of that section with reference to "enemies" shall apply to "enemy subjects."

Right of company to purchase its own shares when vested in custodian.

8 C. Where in exercise of any power conferred on him by the Governor in Executive Council, or by a court under this Ordinance, the custodian proposes to sell any shares or stock forming part of the capital of any company, or any securities issued by the company in respect of which a vesting order has been made under this Ordinance, the company may, with the consent of the custodian, purchase the shares, stock, or securities, any law or any regulation of the company to the contrary notwithstanding, and any shares, stock, or securities so purchased may from time to time be re-issued by the company.

Meaning of "enemy subject."

8 D. For the purposes of this Ordinance an "enemy subject" means a subject of a State for the time being at war with His Majesty, and includes a body corporate constituted according to the laws of such State.

Proof of enemy character.

8 E. A certificate under the hand of the Governor to the effect that there is good reason to believe that any person or body of persons is an "enemy" or an "enemy subject" shall, for the purpose of any proceeding under or in consequence of this Ordinance, or of any proceedings referred to in section 8 B, be prima facie proof that such person or body of persons is an "enemy" or "enemy subject," as the case may be.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 16, 1917.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE principal object of this Ordinance is to amend "The Enemy Property Ordinance, No. 23 of 1916," by the addition of a new section (new section 8 A) based upon section 4 of "The Trading with the Enemy (Amendment) Act, 1916."

2. The effect of the new section is to empower the Governor to vest in the Custodian of Enemy Property any property belonging to enemy subjects (whether resident or carrying on business in enemy territory or not), and to authorize him to sell, manage, or otherwise deal with the property so vested in him.

3. Owing to the circumstances of the present war, there are cases in which it is desirable that special measures should be taken for dealing with property belonging to enemies. An example of such property is the German Club. There are also cases in which enemy subjects have left various possessions behind them in the Colony, for the custody or management of which they have not been able to make any arrangements. Other classes of property which may require attention are shares held by enemy subjects in local companies, and trade marks registered in the names of enemy subjects.

4. A further new section (8 B) is added to enable the Custodian to appoint a trustee to represent the interests of any enemy subject in any property vested in the Custodian under the Ordinance for the purposes of any land acquisition proceedings that may be taken with reference to any such property.

5. New section 8 C, which follows section 4 (3) of the Trading with the Enemy (Amendment) Act, 1916, empowers any company, whose shares, stock, or debentures have been vested in the Custodian as belonging to enemy subjects, itself to purchase the shares, &c., on their being sold by the Custodian, and to re-issue them.

6. New section 8 D defines "enemy subject."

7. New section 8 E provides for a certificate under the hand of the Governor being recognized as prima facie proof of enemy character. (Cf. section 35 (2) of the Enemy Firms Liquidation Ordinance, No. 20 of 1916.) As there are many cases in which it would only be possible for the Governor to certify that "there is good reason to believe" that a particular person bears an enemy character, it is provided that the certificate may be in these terms.

8. Section 2 effects a verbal amendment necessitated by new sections 8 A and 8 D, and at the same time brings our Ordinance into line with the Imperial Acts, by concentrating on the Supreme Court the jurisdiction to make orders disposing of property vested in the Custodian, which at present also belongs to the subordinate courts.
