MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 9 of 1872.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain particulars Ordinance No. 9 of 1872, hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Commissions of Inquiry Ordinance, 1903," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance, and this Ordinance and the said Ordinance may be cited together as "The Commissions of Inquiry Ordinance, 1872 and 1903."

2 For the words "shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury" at the end of section 3 of the principal Ordinance the following words shall be substituted, namely, "shall be guilty of the offence of giving false evidence under chapter XI of the Ceylon Penal Code, and shall be liable to the penalties therein prescribed."

Amendment of section 3 regarding to penalty.

Presumption on production of record of evidence taken by commissioner.

3 The following section shall be added to section 3 of the principal Ordinance and numbered 3 A :

3 A Every commissioner appointed under this Ordinance, and every person by law empowered to exercise the powers of such commissioner with regard to administering oaths or affirmations to persons examined before him, shall record the evidence of any person examined before him; and the presumptions which, under section 80 of "The Ceylon Evidence Ordinance, 1895," are applicable to the documents therein mentioned shall be applicable to every document produced before any court purporting to be a record or memorandum of the evidence or any part of the evidence given by a witness examined, whether before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, by such commissioner or person as aforesaid and purporting to be signed by such commissioner or person.

By His Excellency's command,

EVERARD IM THURN,
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colonial Secretary.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Public Officers' Security Ordinance, 1890."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Public Officers' Security Ordinance, 1890," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Public Officers' Security Ordinance, 1903," and this Ordinance and the principal Ordinance and Ordinance No. 12 of 1897 shall be read and construed as one Ordinance, and may be cited together as "The Public Officers' Security Ordinances, 1890, 1897, and 1903."

Security to be given by shroffs.

2 After section 2 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added and numbered 2 A :

2 A (1) Provided that any person in the employment of the Government of Ceylon as a shroff may give security for the due discharge of any duties to be performed by him in the course of such employment either in the manner provided by section 2 or in one or other of the following ways as the Governor may in each case determine, namely :—

- (a) By personal bond and deposit with the Colonial Treasurer of moneys to the required amount; or
- (b) By hypothecation of immovable property to the satisfaction of the Governor.

(2) The Colonial Treasurer shall pay to any shroff who deposits moneys with him under this section at such times as the Governor may direct interest at the rate of seven per centum per annum.

(3) The provisions of section 5 relating to moneys lodged in a bank under section 2 and to securities deposited with the Colonial Treasurer under the said section shall respectively apply to moneys deposited with the Colonial Treasurer under this section, and to mortgage bonds or other securities entered into under this section which have been so deposited.

By His Excellency's command,

EVERARD IM THURN,
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colonial Secretary.
Colombo, September 17, 1903.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Ceylon Penal Code.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ceylon Penal Code: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Penal Code Amendment Ordinance, 1903," and shall be read and construed as one with the Ceylon Penal Code.

Falsification of accounts.

2 After section 466 of the Ceylon Penal Code the following section shall be added and shall be numbered 466 A :

466 A (1) Whoever, being a clerk, officer, or servant, or being employed or acting in the capacity of a clerk, officer, or servant, wilfully, and with intent to defraud, destroys, alters, mutilates, or falsifies any book, paper, writing, valuable security, or account which belongs to, or is in the possession of, his employer, or has been received by him for or on behalf of his employer, or wilfully, and with intent to defraud, makes or abets the making of any false entry in, or omits or alters or abets the omission or alteration of any material particular from or in, any such book, paper, writing, valuable security, or account, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to seven years, or with fine, or with both.

Explanation.—It shall be sufficient in any charge under this section to allege a general intent to defraud without naming any particular person intended to be defrauded, or specifying any particular sum of money intended to be the subject of the fraud, or any particular day on which the offence was committed.

(2) The entries in the several columns of schedule II. to "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," with reference to offences under article 466 of the Ceylon Penal Code, shall be deemed to apply to offences under this section as well as to offences under the said section.
