DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to provide for the Surrender of Fugitive Criminals from the Federated Malay States.

Preamble.

WHEREAS persons who have committed certain crimes or offences within the Federated Malay States may escape to this Island, and it is expedient to provide for the apprehension of such fugitive criminals from justice, and for their surrender to the Government of the Federated Malay States in order that they may be dealt with according to law: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Federated Malay States (Fugitive Criminals') Ordinance, 1903."

Interpretation.

2 In the interpretation of this Ordinance and the schedules thereto the following expressions shall, unless repugnant to or inconsistent with the context, have the meaning hereinafter assigned to them, viz.:

“British Resident” means any person for the time being lawfully discharging the duties of the office of British Resident in Perak, or Selangor, or Pahang, or Negri Sembilan.

“Federated Malay States” means the States of Perak, Selangor, Pahang, and Negri Sembilan.

“Surrender offence” means any offence which, if committed in Ceylon, would be one of the offences mentioned in the first schedule hereto.

“Fugitive criminal” means any person accused or convicted of a surrender offence committed within the jurisdiction of the Federated Malay States, who is or is suspected of being in Ceylon.

The surrender offences mentioned in the first schedule to this Ordinance shall be construed according to the law in force in Ceylon at the date of the alleged surrender offence.

Power to add or expunge from the schedule of offences.

Provided always that the Governor in Council may from time to time, by order to be published in the Government Gazette, declare that any offence specified in such order and not included in the first schedule hereto shall form part thereof, and from and after the date of the publication of such order the offence specified therein shall come within the operation of this Ordinance as if the same had been originally included in the said schedule; and further that the Governor in Council may at any time, by order to be published in the Government Gazette, declare that any offence specified in the first schedule hereto, or which may hereafter be added to the said schedule as hereinbefore provided, shall no longer form part thereof, and from and after the date of the publication of such order such offence shall cease to come within the operation of this Ordinance.

Restrictions on surrender.

3 The following restrictions shall be observed with respect to the surrender of fugitive criminals:

(1) A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove to the satisfaction of the police magistrate or of a judge of the Supreme Court, if brought before the court on a writ of habeas corpus, or of the Governor, that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for a crime or offence of a political character, or for a crime or offence which is not a surrender offence.

(2) A fugitive criminal who has been accused of a crime or offence in Ceylon not being the surrender offence for which his surrender is demanded, or who is undergoing sentence under any conviction in the island, shall not be surrendered until after he has been discharged whether by acquittal or on expiration of his sentence or otherwise.

Liability to be surrendered.

4 Every fugitive criminal shall be liable to be apprehended and surrendered in manner provided by this Ordinance, whether the surrender offence in respect of which the surrender is demanded was committed before or after the passing of this Ordinance, and whether there is or is not any concurrent jurisdiction in any court in Ceylon over that crime.

Requisition to the Governor may be followed by the order to magistrate for warrant of apprehension.

5 Whenever the requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal is made to the Governor by a British Resident, the Governor may, by order under his hand and seal, signify to a police magistrate that such requisition has been made, and require him to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive criminal.

- Duties of a magistrate upon receipt of such order.
- 6 A police magistrate, on receipt of the said order, shall issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive criminal, or, if the fugitive criminal be already in custody, shall issue his order to all necessary persons to bring the fugitive criminal before him to be dealt with according to this Ordinance.
- Magistrate may also issue warrant as in ordinary cases.
- 7 A police magistrate may also issue his warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive criminal on such information or complaint as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the alleged surrender offence had been committed in Ceylon.
- A fugitive criminal apprehended on a warrant so issued shall be discharged by the police magistrate, unless the police magistrate, within such time as, with reference to the circumstances of the case, he shall think reasonable, receives from the Governor an order signifying that a requisition has been made for the surrender of such fugitive criminal.
- Hearing of the case and evidence of offence being political.
- 8 When a fugitive criminal is brought before a police magistrate, he shall hear the case in the same manner, and have the same jurisdiction and powers, as nearly as may be, as if the prisoner were brought before him charged with an indictable offence committed in Ceylon.
- Provided always that—
- Evidence in case of person accused.
- (1) Copies of depositions signed or taken before any judge or other competent magistrate having authority in the Federated Malay States to take cognizance of the crime charged, and authenticated in manner hereinafter provided, may be received in evidence of criminality of such fugitive criminal.
- Evidence in case of a person convicted.
- (2) In the case of a person convicted in any of the Federated Malay States of a surrender offence a copy of the conviction, authenticated in manner hereinafter provided, may be received in evidence, and shall, where the police magistrate is satisfied that such person is according to the law of that State unlawfully at large, justify such police magistrate in committing such person to prison to await the further order of the Governor without re-opening the case.
- Proof of identity.
- (3) In every case proof of the identity of the fugitive criminal must be given to the satisfaction of the police magistrate.
- Authentication of documents.
- (4) Warrants of arrest and copies of depositions, signed or taken before any such judge or other competent magistrate as aforesaid, and copies of convictions shall be received in evidence, if the warrant of arrest purports to be signed by such judge or magistrate, and if the copies of depositions purport to be certified under the hand of such judge or magistrate to be true copies of the original depositions, and if the copy of the conviction purport to be certified under the hand and official seal of a British Resident to be a true copy of the original conviction. The signature of every such judge or magistrate and his authority to take cognizance of the crime or offence charged shall be sufficiently proved if the document purport to be sealed with the official seal of a British Resident, and all courts of justice in this Colony shall for the purpose of this Ordinance take judicial notice of such seal, and shall admit the documents so authenticated by it to be received in evidence without further proof.
- Documents to be read to the fugitive, who must be asked to show cause.
- (5) The warrant of arrest and the copy of the depositions, or, as the case may be, the copy of the conviction, shall be read to the fugitive criminal, if he so desires, and he shall be asked if he has any valid cause to show why he should not be committed to prison to await the order of the Governor.

Evidence of offence being political.

The police magistrate shall receive any evidence which may be tendered to show that the offence of which the fugitive criminal is accused is an offence of a political character or is not a surrender offence.

Committal to prison.

9 If at the hearing before a police magistrate such evidence is produced as would, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, justify the committal of the fugitive criminal for trial at the district or the Supreme Court if the surrender offence of which he is accused had been committed in Ceylon, and in cases of conviction provided for by section 8, subsection (2), of this Ordinance the police magistrate shall commit him to prison to await the further order of the Governor, but otherwise shall order him to be discharged.

If the police magistrate commits the fugitive criminal to prison, he shall thereupon inform the fugitive criminal that he will not be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of such committal, and that he has a right to apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus, and such police magistrate shall forthwith send to the Governor the depositions and other evidence in the case, together with a report thereon.

Notice to Attorney-General before discharge.
Non-application of provisions of Criminal
Procedure Code relating to appeals from police magistrates.

10 Before ordering a fugitive criminal to be discharged the police magistrate shall cause notice of his intention to make such order to be served on the Attorney-General.

11 The provisions of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," so far as they relate to appeals from the decisions of police magistrates, shall not apply to proceedings under this Ordinance.

Warrant of surrender when to be signed.

12 (1) Upon the expiration of fifteen days from the date of the police magistrate's order of committal or if a writ of habeas corpus has been issued, and if upon the return to the writ the Supreme Court has not discharged the fugitive criminal, immediately after the decision of the court, or after such further period in either case as the Governor may allow, the Governor may, by warrant under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as the Governor considers to be authorized to receive him on behalf of the Government of the State requiring his surrender, and the fugitive criminal shall be surrendered accordingly.

(2) If the fugitive criminal while in Ceylon escapes out of any custody into which he has been delivered in pursuance of a police magistrate's warrant as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any police officer or constable to take him without warrant and to restore him to the custody from which he has escaped, and for the person from whose custody the fugitive criminal has escaped to re-take him or receive him from such police officer or constable and to hold him at all times as upon the original warrant.

Discharge of fugitive
criminal.

13 Except where any proceedings are actually pending upon a writ of habeas corpus before the Supreme Court, and in such case with the concurrence in writing of the judge having cognizance thereof, the Governor may at any time, by order under his hand and seal, discharge a fugitive criminal from custody.

Discharge if not surrendered within two months, or on application after decision upon habeas corpus to a judge upon notice to the Crown.

14 If a fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison under this Ordinance to await the order of the Governor is not surrendered and conveyed out of the Colony within two months after such committal, or within two months after the determination of any proceedings upon a writ of habeas corpus, as the case may be, any judge of the Supreme Court may, upon application made to him by or on behalf of the fugitive criminal, and upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make such application has been given to the Attorney-General, order the fugitive criminal to be discharged out of custody, unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary.

Aiders and abettors in surrender offences.

15 Every person who is accused or convicted of having counselled, procured, commanded, aided, or abetted the commission of any surrender offence, or of being accessory before the fact to any surrender offence, shall be deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to be accused or convicted of having committed such offence, and shall be liable to be apprehended and surrendered accordingly.

Protection of magistrate and others acting under warrant.

16 If any suit or action be brought against a police magistrate, jailer, police officer, constable, or any other person for anything done under or in obedience to any warrant or order issued under the provisions of this Ordinance, the proof of such warrant or order shall be a sufficient answer to such suit or action, and the defendant on such proof as aforesaid shall be entitled to a verdict or judgment accordingly, and shall also be entitled to all costs of suit.

Forms.

17 The forms in the second schedule hereto, or forms to the like effect with such variations and additions as circumstances require, may be used for the purposes therein indicated and according to the directions therein contained, and instruments in these forms shall (as regards the form hereof) be valid and sufficient.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Opium Ordinance, 1899."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Opium Ordinance, 1899," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Opium (Amendment) Ordinance, 1903," and shall be read and construed as one with "The Opium Ordinance, 1899," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance," and the principal Ordinance and this Ordinance may be cited together as "The Opium Ordinances, 1899 and 1903."

Amendment of sections 9, 10, 11, and 12.

2 For sections 9, 10, 11, and 12 of the principal Ordinance there shall be respectively substituted the following sections, namely:

9. By the notice so to be published as aforesaid the proper authority shall fix a date and place at which such license shall be offered for sale, and shall notify the conditions under which such licenses shall be issued.

10. (1) Such licenses may be offered for sale, at the discretion of the proper authority, either by public auction or private tender.

(2) The proper authority may, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, from time to time prescribe the conditions under which licenses will be sold, and shall give public notice of the same, either by means of the notice mentioned in section 8 or otherwise as may appear convenient to the proper authority.

(3) If at any sale by auction no bid over the upset price is offered, or at a sale by tender the highest amount tendered is in the opinion of the proper authority inadequate, the proper authority shall be at liberty to postpone the sale, and to offer the same for sale again by public auction or by private tender or to sell it by private contract.

11. Immediately after any person is declared to be the purchaser of any such license, the proper authority shall issue a license in the form hereinafter mentioned to the purchaser. But it shall be lawful for the proper authority in his discretion to refuse to issue any such license; and in case of such refusal, the proper authority shall refund to the purchaser the purchase money or any part thereof which he may have paid, and the license may be re-sold either at once or at such future time as the said proper authority shall appoint.

12. Whenever any person who has been declared the purchaser has made default in paying the purchase money at the appointed time or in complying with any of the conditions under which the sale was held, and the proper authority, in accordance with such conditions, has offered the license for re-sale, then, in the event of such re-sale realizing a smaller amount than that realized at the previous sale, such person shall be liable for the difference, which shall be recoverable by action in the court of requests having in other respects jurisdiction in that behalf, notwithstanding that such difference exceeds the sum of three hundred rupees.

By His Excellency's command,

EVERARD IM THURN,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 2, 1903.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to further amend the Law relating to the General Regulation of Customs.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to further amend in certain particulars Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, intituled "An Ordinance for the General Regulation of Customs," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance:" Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

2 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1903," and this Ordinance, the principal Ordinance, and the Ordinances amending the same may be cited together as "The Customs Duties Ordinances, 1869 to 1903."

Further proviso as to sanction of Secretary of State to notifications and resolutions under (a) and (b) of section 11 of principal Ordinance.

3 To the further proviso which was added by "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1903," to section 11 of the principal Ordinance, the following sub-section shall be added, namely :

(c) No notification under sub-section (a) of this proviso and no resolution passed under sub-section (b) thereof shall take effect until such notification or resolution, as the case may be, shall have been submitted to and sanctioned by the Secretary of State, and such sanction shall have been notified in the Government Gazette.
