Amount of labour to be supplied under the Ordinance No. 31 of 1884.

2 And whereas by the 31st section of the Ordinance No. 31 of the year 1884, intituled "An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 10 of 1861, entitled 'An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Public Thoroughfares in this Colony,'" it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor to propose the estimates prepared in pursuance thereof, or such of them as to him may appear expedient, in the Ordinance for making provision for the contingent expenditure of the colony for the ensuing year, to be dealt with in like manner as any other estimate to be so proposed: And it is thereby also provided that the amount of labour to be supplied under the provisions of the said Ordinance No. 31 of 1884, for the performance of any work or works for which an estimate or estimates may have been so proposed by the Governor, and approved of by the Legislative Council, shall be distinctly stated in the Ordinance enacted for the same, and that the same shall not exceed two-thirds of the whole amount of labour due from the district or districts within which it may be required to be performed: It is enacted that the amount of labour to be supplied under the provisions of the said Ordinance shall be in conformity with the estimates specified in the schedule hereunto annexed.

Treasurer to pay the above at such times as the Governor by warrant shall order.

3 The Treasurer of the said island shall issue and pay the said several sums to such persons, for the purposes hereinbefore-mentioned, upon such days and in such proportions as the Governor for the time being, by any warrant or order in writing to be signed by him, shall from time to time order and direct; and the payments so to be made shall be charged upon and payable out of the revenues of the said island.

And to receive credit in his accounts for the payments made in pursuance thereof.

4 The said Treasurer shall in his accounts from time to time be allowed credit for any sum or sums of money paid by him in pursuance of such warrant or order in writing as aforesaid; and the receipt or receipts of the respective persons to whom the same shall be so paid shall be a full and valid discharge to the said Treasurer in passing his said accounts for any such sum or sums as shall be therein mentioned; and he shall and may receive credit for the same accordingly.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to give effect to an Order of His Majesty in Council known as "The Foreign Marriages" Order in Council, 1903."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient, in order that effect may be given to an Order of His Majesty in Council known as "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1903," that provision should be made with regard to the notice to be given of marriages intended to be solemnized under the provisions of "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892," where one of the parties is resident in Ceylon : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Foreign Marriages Ordinance, 1903."

Definitions.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the contrary intention appears, the expression "Registrar-General" means the Registrar-General of Marriages appointed under the provisions of "The Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1895," and includes the assistant to the Registrar-General and any person for the time being lawfully discharging the duties of the Registrar-General or of the assistant to the Registrar-General.

Notice of marriages under the Foreign Marriage Act.

3 Notice of a marriage intended to be solemnized under the Foreign Marriage Act may be given to the Registrar-General by one of the parties intending such marriage who has had his or her usual place of abode for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding in some place in Ceylon as is hereinafter provided.

Form of notice.

4 (1) Every such notice shall be substantially in the form A in the schedule hereto, and shall state the name in full, the profession, condition, and residence of each of the parties intending marriage, the place where the marriage is intended to be solemnized, and whether each of the parties is or is not a minor, and shall also state that the party giving notice has had his or her usual place of abode for not less than three consecutive weeks then next preceding in some place in Ceylon.

(2) Every such notice shall be signed by the party giving or making the same in the presence of the Registrar-General or a justice of the peace or a notary and of two credible witnesses, who shall attest the same by adding each his name, description, and place of abode, and of whom the Registrar-General, justice of the peace, notary, or both the witnesses shall be personally acquainted with the party giving notice.

(3) Every such notice shall bear a stamp of ten rupees which shall be supplied by the party giving the notice.

Publication of notice.

5 (1) The Registrar-General, when notice of an intended marriage is duly given under this Ordinance, shall forthwith enter in the notice the date of its receipt and file and keep it with the records of his office, and shall forthwith enter particulars of the notice in a book to be called "The Foreign Marriage Notice Book," which shall be kept substantially in the form B in the schedule hereto.

(2) The Registrar-General shall cause a true copy under his hand of the notice of marriage or of the particulars thereof as entered in the Foreign Marriage Notice Book to be posted up in some conspicuous place in his office, and shall keep the same so posted up during fourteen successive days after the entry of such marriage.

(3) The Foreign Marriage Notice Book and every copy of a notice of marriage so posted up shall be open at all reasonable times, without fee, to the inspection of any person.

6 At any time not less than fourteen days, nor more than three months, from the entry of the notice, the Registrar-General, unless he is aware of any impediment or objection which would obstruct the solemnization of the marriage, shall, upon the application of the party giving notice, issue a certificate substantially in the form C in the schedule hereto that the said notice has been so given and published as aforesaid.

7 The provisions of "The Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1895," with regard to the issue of certified copies and extracts of and from books and documents kept under the said Ordinance, and with regard to the admissibility in evidence of the same, shall be applicable with regard to the issue of certified copies and extracts of and from books and documents kept under this Ordinance, and with regard to their admissibility in evidence.

DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to further amend "The Ceylon Paper Currency Ordinance, 1884."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ceylon Paper Currency Ordinance, hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance," in certain particulars : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Ceylon Paper Currency (Amendment) Ordinance, 1903," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance, and the principal Ordinance and the Ordinances amending the same and this Ordinance may be cited together as "The Ceylon Paper Currency Ordinances, 1884 to 1903."

Amendment of section 11 of principal Ordinance regarding issue of currency notes.

2 For section 11 of the principal Ordinance, as amended by section 3 of Ordinance No. 13 of 1901, the following section shall be substituted :

(1) The commissioners shall, on the demand of any person, issue currency notes in exchange for the amount thereof in silver rupees of India.

(2) The commissioners may also issue such notes in exchange for the amount thereof in gold coin, which is legal tender in Ceylon, under any Order of His Majesty the King in Council ; but the commissioners may decline to do so whenever it is inexpedient in their judgment to increase the amount of gold coin held as reserve under this Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, EVERARD IM THURN,
Colombo, October 23, 1903. Colonial Secretary.
