THE Ordinance makes provision for the Supplementary Contingent Charges for the Financial Year 1915-16.

Colombo, April 25, 1917. G. S. SCHNEIDER,
Acting Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to provide for the Discipline of Persons serving on Ships or Vessels belonging to or chartered, hired, or requisitioned for the purposes of the present War.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the due observance of discipline on board vessels belonging to or chartered, hired, or requisitioned by the Admiralty or Army Council, or by the Government of India, or of the Colony, or of any other British Possession: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Merchant Shipping (War Service) Ordinance, No. of 1917."

Repeal.

2 "The Merchant Shipping (War Service) Ordinance, No. 3 of 1917," is hereby repealed.

Neglecting to join ship, deserting, or joining in a state of drunkenness.

3 (1) If a person lawfully engaged to serve on board any ship or vessel belonging to or chartered, hired, or requisitioned by the Admiralty or Army Council, or by the Government of India, or of the Colony, or of any other British Possession—

- (a) Neglects or refuses without reasonable cause to join his ship or vessel, or to proceed to sea in his ship or vessel, or deserts or is absent without leave from his ship or vessel or from his duty at any time; or
- (b) Joins his ship or vessel, or is, whilst on board his ship or vessel, in a state of drunkenness, so that the performance of his duties or the navigation of his ship or vessel is thereby impeded, he shall be guilty of an offence; and the master, mate, or owner of the ship or vessel, or his agent, or any naval or military officer, or any superintendent as defined by the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1894 to 1914, may, with or without the assistance of any police officer, convey on board his ship or vessel any person whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of an offence under paragraph (a) of this sub-section; and all police officers are hereby directed to give assistance if required.

(2) The exercise of the powers conferred by the preceding sub-section shall not be subject to the restrictions imposed by the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1894 to 1914, on the exercise of any similar powers conferred by these Acts, and for the purposes of this section a copy of any entry made in an official log book in manner provided by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, shall, if it purports to be signed and certified as a true copy or extract by the officer in whose custody the original log book is entrusted, be admissible in evidence.

(3) Any person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction before a Police Magistrate, if the offence comes within the provision of paragraph (a) of sub-section (1), to the penalties prescribed for such offence under section 221 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894; and if the offence comes within the provision of paragraph (b) of sub-section (1), to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, May 1, 1917. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is introduced in accordance with the directions of the Secretary of State for the purpose of bringing our law into line with section 39 A of the Defence of the Realm Regulations, as amended by the Order in Council of the 29th November, 1916, in force in the United Kingdom.

April 24, 1917. G. S. SCHNEIDER,
