DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Land Acquisition (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1917," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Addition of new section 10 A.

2 After section 10 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 10 A :

10 A. (1) Where any person claims any land or any interest therein on behalf of a minor, and it appears to the Government Agent that the value of the land or the interest claimed does not exceed one thousand rupees, and all persons claiming (including the person claiming on behalf of the minor) are willing to accept the amount of the compensation offered by the Government Agent and to sign the agreement mentioned in the last preceding section, it shall be competent for the Government Agent, in lieu of referring the matter to court under the next succeeding section, to apply, by a certificate in writing to the District Court, for the appointment of the said person claiming on behalf of the minor as guardian and curator of the minor for the purpose of the acquisition.

(2) The certificate shall state—

- (a) The nature of the land to be acquired ;
- (b) The name of the minor interested ;
- (c) The extent and the value of the minor's interest ;
- (d) The name and address of the person claiming on behalf of the minor, and his relationship to the minor ;

(e) The fact that all persons claiming, including the person claiming on behalf of the minor, are willing to accept the compensation offered by the Government Agent, and to sign the agreement referred to in section 10.

(3) Upon the receipt of such certificate the District Court may, by order communicated to the Government Agent, appoint the person claiming on behalf of the minor guardian over and curator of the property of the said minor for the purpose of the acquisition, and may authorize the guardian and curator so appointed to accept the compensation offered, and sign the said agreement on the minor's behalf.

(4) Upon the said guardian and curator signing the said agreement, the Government Agent shall pay the value of the minor's interest into the District Court for the benefit of the minor under the control of the court.

(5) Such payment shall have the same effect for the purpose of barring claims against the Government at the instance of any person whomsoever as payment of compensation under section 36.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, September 14, 1917.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to deal with a situation which frequently arises in land acquisition proceedings. The value of the property to be acquired may be small, and its value may have been settled by agreement between the Government Agent and the persons claiming, but it may transpire that one of these persons is claiming on behalf of a minor. In such a case, however small the interest of the minor may be, the matter has to be referred to court, a guardian and curator has to be appointed, the other persons interested, who have no dispute with the Government Agent, have to appear and incur liability for a share of the costs, and a proportion of the costs of the proceedings is deducted from the small sum, which is paid into court to the minor's credit.

2. The Ordinance proposes that in such cases, where the land or the minor's interest does not exceed one thousand rupees, the Government Agent may apply to the District Court by a certificate for the formal appointment, without legal proceedings, of the person claiming on behalf of the minor as his guardian and curator for the purpose of the acquisition. The money due to the minor is paid into court and dealt with in the usual manner for the minor's benefit.

Attorney-General.
