DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1917," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Amendment of section 9.

2 In section 9 of the principal Ordinance, after the words "Superintendent of Police" there shall be added the words "President of a Village Tribunal."

Amendment of section 11.

3 The following proviso shall be added at the end and in continuation of section 11 of the principal Ordinance :

Provided, however, that Village Tribunals shall have concurrent jurisdiction with Police Courts to try all offences under this Ordinance; and every Village Tribunal shall have power in respect of such offences to impose a fine not exceeding twenty rupees, or, in default of payment, imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two weeks.

Repeals paragraph 10 in section 28 of "The Village Communities Ordinance, 1889."

4 In section 28 of "The Village Communities Ordinance, 1889," the paragraph "(10) Offences under 'The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907,'" is hereby repealed.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, October 22, 1917. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

IN 1908, by Ordinance No. 3 of that year, Village Tribunals were given jurisdiction to try offences under "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907." It appears to have been overlooked that the amendment was in such a form as to give these Tribunals exclusive jurisdiction for the purpose of such offences, instead of concurrent jurisdiction with the Police Courts, as was probably intended. The present Ordinance gives concurrent jurisdiction to both Village Tribunals and Police Courts by means of an amendment of the principal Ordinance.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.
October 10, 1917.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 7 of 1880, intituled "An Ordinance to amend 'The Police Ordinance, 1865.'"

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Ordinance No. 7 of 1880, amending "The Police Ordinance, 1865": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance shall be cited as "The Police (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1917," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall by Proclamation appoint.

Substitution of new section.

2 The following section shall be substituted for section 2 of the principal Ordinance:

2. The cost of the police payable under the 10th, 11th, 17th, 26th, and 33rd sections of "The Police Ordinance, 1865," shall be the salary drawn by every Inspector, Sub-Inspector, sergeant, or constable, plus 20 per cent. for headquarter reserve, leave, drill, sickness, &c., and 8 per cent. for pension, and the certificate of the Inspector-General of Police shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of all charges made in pursuance of this section.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, November 1, 1917. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Ordinance is partly to substitute an adjustable rate for the fixed rate of salaries prescribed by the principal Ordinance in respect of the police expenses there referred to, and partly to authorize the inclusion in police bills for these special purposes of items in respect of headquarter reserve, drill, sickness, &c., and for pensions.

2. Further, as these items are already charged in the computation of Police rates under section 33, and as there is at present no express authority for their inclusion, a reference to that section is introduced into the new section enacted by this Ordinance.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.
Colombo, October 15, 1917.
