DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance relating to the Local Forces of the Colony and the Designation of their Members.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to substitute a more appropriate designation for the local forces of the Colony and their members for that hitherto in use: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Ceylon Defence Force (Designation) Ordinance, No. of 1918."

Substitution of designations.

2 In all places in any Ordinance, or in any rules or regulations made thereunder, in which the words or expressions set out in the first column of the schedule to this Ordinance occur, the corresponding words or expressions set out in the second column of the said schedule shall be substituted.

SCHEDULE.

Volunteer Force ..	Defence Force
Volunteer (as an adjective) ..	Defence Force
Volunteer (as a substantive) ..	Soldier of the Defence Force
Volunteers ..	Soldiers of the Defence Force
Corps of Volunteers ..	Defence Force Corps
Volunteers of any Corps of Volunteers ..	Soldiers of any Defence Force Corps

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, November 2, 1917. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to give expression to a desire which is understood to prevail that, in view of the recent change in the status of part of the Ceylon Volunteer Force, its name should be changed to "Ceylon Defence Force," and that a corresponding change should be made in the designation of its members.

August 15, 1917.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 7 of 1880, intituled "An Ordinance to amend 'The Police Ordinance, 1865.'"

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Ordinance No. 7 of 1880, amending "The Police Ordinance, 1865": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance shall be cited as "The Police (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1917," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall by Proclamation appoint.

Substitution of new section.

2 The following section shall be substituted for section 2 of the principal Ordinance :

2. The cost of the police payable under the 10th, 11th, 17th, 26th, and 33rd sections of "The Police Ordinance, 1865," shall be the salary drawn by every Inspector, Sub-Inspector, sergeant, or constable, plus 20 per cent. for headquarter reserve, leave, drill, sickness, &c., and 8 per cent. for pension, and the certificate of the Inspector-General of Police shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of all charges made in pursuance of this section.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 1, 1917.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Ordinance is partly to substitute an adjustable rate for the fixed rate of salaries prescribed by the principal Ordinance in respect of the police expenses there referred to, and partly to authorize the inclusion in police bills for these special purposes of items in respect of headquarter reserve, drill, sickness, &c., and for pensions.

2. Further, as these items are already charged in the computation of Police rates under section 33, and as there is at present no express authority for their inclusion, a reference to that section is introduced into the new section enacted by this Ordinance.

Colombo, October 15, 1917.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.

PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 36 of 1917.

An Ordinance for the Regulation of Prices.

JOHN ANDERSON.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the regulation of prices within this Island during the duration of the present war, and such time thereafter as the Governor in Executive Council may prescribe : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title,
commencement,
and duration.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Prices Regulations Ordinance, No. 36 of 1917," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor may, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, appoint, and shall continue in force during the duration of the present war, and until such time as the Governor in Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, shall declare that the conditions requiring its enactment have ceased to operate.

Power of the Governor in Council to make regulations.

2 The Governor in Executive Council may make regulations—

- (a) Prescribing the prices (both wholesale and retail) at which any article of merchandise shall be sold in the Colony, and the conditions of such sale, including conditions as to the time and place of the sale, and the quantity and quality of the article to be sold.
- (b) Conferring on any authority or authorities therein named power to advise as to such prices and conditions, and generally to administer the said regulations, together with such powers of requiring of returns and information, search, inspection, administration of oaths, summoning of witnesses or informants, impounding of documents, and seizure, sale, and detention of articles of merchandise as may be prescribed.

Offences to be triable summarily.

3 Any person committing any breach of any of the said regulations shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on summary conviction before a Police Magistrate to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to both, and, in the case of such an offence being continued or repeated after such conviction, to an additional fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for each day on which such offence is continued or repeated, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding one year, or to both, and the court may order the forfeiture of the article in respect of which the offence was committed.

Passed in Council the Thirty-first day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

C. H. COLLINS,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Thirteenth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 37 of 1917.

An Ordinance to amend "The Gaming Ordinance, 1889."

JOHN ANDERSON.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Gaming Ordinance, 1889": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Gaming (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 37 of 1917."

Amendment of section 3.

2 The following definition shall be added to those contained in section 3 of the principal Ordinance:

The expression "Police Magistrate" includes a Municipal Magistrate.

Passed in Council the Thirty-first day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

C. H. COLLINS,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Thirteenth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Enemy Property Ordinance, No. 23 of 1916."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Enemy Property Ordinance, No. 23 of 1916": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Enemy Property (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1917."

Addition of new section to principal Ordinance.

2 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance immediately after section 8 E added to the said Ordinance by section 3 of "The Enemy Property (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 5 of 1917":

Obligation on company to register custodian or transferee in company's register.

8 F. (1) In the event of a vesting order under section 7 or under section 8 A being or having been made in respect of any shares or debentures of any limited company whose registered office is in Ceylon, the custodian shall be entitled to have his name entered in the company's register as the proprietor of the shares or debentures, and in the event of power being or having been granted to the custodian to sell such shares, any person to whom the custodian shall transfer or shall have transferred such shares shall be entitled to have his name similarly entered; whether the certificates of the shares or debenture bonds are or are not forthcoming, anything in the company's memorandum or articles of association, or in the conditions to the said bonds to the contrary notwithstanding; and the company shall, if so required by the custodian, issue fresh certificates for the said shares or fresh bonds, and shall not by so doing incur any legal liability whatever with respect to the original certificates or bonds.

Sale by custodian to convey absolute title.

(2) All shares or debentures which shall be or shall have been so transferred by the custodian shall vest absolutely in the transferee, and no other person claiming any right, title, or interest in the said shares or debentures shall be entitled to pursue or enforce the said claim except against the proceeds of the sale of the said shares or debentures.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, November 15, 1917. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is necessary in order to enable the Custodian of Enemy Property to give full effect to certain vesting orders which have been made under "The Enemy Property Ordinance, No. 23 of 1916," with reference to certain shares and debentures of local companies which are held by or on behalf of enemies.

2. In certain cases companies have made difficulties as to carrying out the orders of the court or of the Governor in Executive Council, and although the existing law is probably sufficient to enable these orders to be enforced if necessary, it is desirable that the obligation upon the company to enter the name of the Custodian or his transferee in the share register should be stated in express terms.

3. A real difficulty has, however, been experienced in certain cases owing to the fact that the share certificate or the debenture bond is not forthcoming, being either absent in Germany or Australia, or deposited in some unknown place. It is quite possible that the holder of such a certificate or debenture bond might affect to transfer it to some neutral, and that the company might consequently incur some liability through registering a transfer made in pursuance of an order of the Supreme Court or of the Executive Council. In order to deal with this difficulty, it is proposed to relieve companies from any liability that they might otherwise incur through carrying out orders of this description, and to declare that any transfer by the Custodian shall convey an absolute title, the rights of persons claiming any interest adverse to the purchaser in the share or debenture sold being limited to the proceeds of the sale.

November 13, 1917.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.
