DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance relating to the Local Forces of the Colony and the Designation of their Members.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to substitute a more appropriate designation for the local forces of the Colony and their members for that hitherto in use: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Ceylon Defence Force (Designation) Ordinance, No. of 1918."

Substitution of designations.

2 In all places in any Ordinance, or in any rules or regulations made thereunder, in which the words or expressions set out in the first column of the schedule to this Ordinance occur, the corresponding words or expressions set out in the second column of the said schedule shall be substituted.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, November 2, 1917. R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to give expression to a desire which is understood to prevail that, in view of the recent change in the status of part of the Ceylon Volunteer Force, its name should be changed to "Ceylon Defence Force," and that a corresponding change should be made in the designation of its members.

August 15, 1917.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.

PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 38 of 1917.

An Ordinance to revise the provisions of Ordinance No. 9 of 1885.

JOHN ANDERSON.

- Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to revise the provisions of Ordinance No. 9 of 1885: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :
- Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be called "The Protection of Produce Ordinance, No. 38 of 1917."
- Definitions. 2 For the purposes of this Ordinance the following terms shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them :
- "Labourer." "Labourer" shall include all persons, except superintendents and assistant superintendents, temporarily or permanently employed on any plantation in any capacity, whether agricultural or menial or otherwise howsoever.
- "Plantation." "Plantation" shall include any land of not less than ten acres in extent on which coffee, tea, cacao, cardamoms, rubber, or coconuts are growing.
- "Produce." "Produce" shall include any plant or tree of any of the descriptions referred to in the last preceding definition, and the fruit, leaf, bark, root, stem, latex, or other portion of any such plant or tree, whether in a natural or manufactured state.
- Loitering or lurking in plantation to be an offence. 3 Every person found loitering or lurking about in a plantation, unless he can give a satisfactory reason to the Police Magistrate before whom he is tried for such loitering or lurking, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction before such Magistrate to imprisonment of either description for any term not exceeding six weeks, or to a fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees.
- Possessor of certain descriptions of produce to be deemed guilty of theft till contrary be shown. 4 Whenever any one is found in possession of any of the following descriptions of produce, that is to say :
- (a) Any tea plant, tea stump, tea seed, or tea leaf (whether in a natural or manufactured state);
- (b) Any rubber plant, rubber stump, or rubber seed;
- (c) The fruit of the coffee plant;
- (d) The fruit of the cardamom plant;
- under such circumstances that there is reason to suspect that the same is not honestly in his possession, and he is unable to give to the court before whom he is tried a satisfactory account of his possession thereof, such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, on summary conviction before a Police Magistrate, to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or to both; and in the event of a second or subsequent offence shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding one year, or to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or to both.
- Restriction on purchase of produce. 5 (1) It shall not be lawful for any one to purchase or take in barter or exchange or receive any produce from any labourer employed on any plantation, except under the written authority of the owner or other person for the time being in charge of the plantation.

(2) Any person committing a breach of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction before a Police Magistrate to rigorous or simple imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Police Courts to have exclusive jurisdiction in respect of thefts of prœdial produce in certain proclaimed districts.

6 In any district of the Colony the Governor in Council, by order notified in the Government Gazette, may direct that a Police Court shall have jurisdiction to try, or inquire into, any case in which the accused is charged with the theft of any produce, or of any particular description of produce, and which would otherwise be triable by a Village Tribunal under "The Village Communities Ordinance, 1889," and thereupon the said Police Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to try, or inquire into, all such cases, anything in the said Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Repeal of Ordinances No. 9 of 1885 and No. 22 of 1886.

7 Ordinances No. 9 of 1885 and No. 22 of 1886 are hereby repealed.

Passed in Council the Thirty-first day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

C. H. COLLINS,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Seventeenth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 39 of 1917.

An Ordinance to amend "The Rubber Thefts Prevention Ordinance, 1908."

JOHN ANDERSON.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Rubber Thefts Prevention Ordinance, 1908," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Rubber Thefts Prevention (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 39 of 1917."

Further offences.

2 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance:

8 A. (1) It shall be unlawful for any licensed dealer—

- (a) To purchase or cause or suffer to be purchased any rubber; or
- (b) To receive or suffer to be received upon his licensed premises otherwise than by way of purchase any rubber not the produce of lands in his own possession or occupation, unless in the case of every such purchase or receipt there shall be delivered with the rubber a declaration substantially in the form C in the schedule hereto, signed by the owner of the rubber, specifying the lands of which the rubber is the produce, or in the case of rubber delivered from the premises of another licensed dealer, a declaration signed by such other licensed dealer substantially in the form D in the said schedule.

(2) For the purpose of this section "owner" includes any person for the time being in charge of the lands of which the rubber in question is the produce.

(3) Any person who does or suffers any act in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

(4) A declaration under this section shall not be subject to stamp duty.

(5) Every such declaration shall be retained for a period of one year by the licensed dealer, and all the provisions of sections 10 and 15 with reference to the inspection of the book prescribed by the next succeeding section shall apply to every such declaration.

(6) A person making for the purposes of this section a declaration which to his knowledge is false in any material particular shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or, if the court shall be of opinion that the offence was committed with a view to facilitating the commission of any offence under sections 16 and 16 A of this Ordinance, to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding one year, or to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Amendment of section 9.

3 In section 9 (1) (e) of the principal Ordinance, for the words " Where the person from whom the rubber is purchased is not a licensed dealer " there shall be substituted the words " Except where the rubber is delivered from the premises of a licensed dealer."

Amendment of section 16.

4 The following amendments shall be made in section 16 (1) of the principal Ordinance :

(a) After the words " any person who is found " there shall be inserted the words " or is proved to have been."

(b) After the words " may be charged with being " there shall be inserted the words " or having been."

Addition of new section 16A.

5 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance :

Possession of rubber substantially in excess of capacity of lands alleged to have produced it.

16 A. The owner or the person for the time being in charge of any lands on which rubber shall have been produced who shall be proved within any specified period to have represented himself in any declaration or declarations made for the purposes of section 8 A of this Ordinance to have been in possession of or to have disposed of or otherwise dealt with as the produce of such lands a quantity of rubber which, regard being had to the quantity of rubber so disposed of or dealt with by him prior to or after such period, is substantially in excess of any quantity which could reasonably have been derived from such lands, shall, unless he accounts for such excess to the satisfaction of the court, be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees or double the amount of the value of such excess, or to both such imprisonment and fine.
