PASSED ORDINANCE.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 42 of 1917.

An Ordinance further to amend "The Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance, No. 19 of 1915."

JOHN ANDERSON.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance, No. 19 of 1915": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Housing and Town Improvement (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 42 of 1917," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, appoint.

New section 50 A. 2 After section 50 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 50 A:

Reclamation scheme. 50 A. (1) In any case in which any swamp, tank, pond, pool, or any low-lying area in which water from time to time accumulates or stagnates is situated within the limits of any local authority, and any board of improvement commissioners or the local authority shall resolve that in the interests of the health, the amenity, or the development of the locality it is desirable that such swamp, tank, pond, pool, or area should be filled up, or the site thereof drained, or both such works carried out, and that in view of the amount of expense involved, the effect of the work or works on the value of the land affected, and the other circumstances of the case, it is reasonable and equitable that the costs of the said work or works should be borne by the owners of the said land, the board or the local authority may frame an improvement scheme (herein called a "reclamation scheme") for the carrying out of the work or works aforesaid.

- (2) A reclamation scheme may provide—
- (a) For the carrying out of the necessary work or works by the board of commissioners or the local authority.
- (b) If the board or the local authority shall be of opinion that the said work or works may be conveniently carried out by the owner of the premises on which the said swamp, tank, pond, pool, or area is situated, or if such swamp, tank, pond, pool, or area is situated upon premises separately owned, by the owners of the several premises as a joint operation, for the owner or owners of the said premises having the option of carrying out the said work or works, and for the carrying out of the said work or works by the board or the local authority only in the event of such option not being exercised, or if such option is exercised, in the event of default being made in whole or in part by the said owner or owners, and in any such case to the extent of such default.
- (c) For a contribution by the board or the local authority towards the cost of carrying out the scheme, of such amount, if any, as the board or the local authority may deem reasonable.
- (d) Subject to any such contribution, for the recovery in such instalments as may be provided in the scheme of the costs of carrying out the said scheme or of making good the said default from the owner or owners of the said premises on which the said swamp, tank, pond, pool, or area is situated, or if such swamp, tank, pond, pool, or area is situated on premises separately owned, from the owners of the said several premises in such proportions as may be determined or provided for in the scheme.

Passed in Council the Fourteenth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

C. H. COLLINS,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Thirtieth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.
