PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 43 of 1917.

An Ordinance to amend "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907."

JOHN ANDERSON.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 43 of 1917," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of section 9.

2 In section 9 of the principal Ordinance, after the words "Superintendent of Police" there shall be added the words "President of a Village Tribunal."

Amendment of section 11.

3 The following proviso shall be added at the end and in continuation of section 11 of the principal Ordinance:

Provided, however, that Village Tribunals shall have concurrent jurisdiction with Police Courts to try all offences under this Ordinance; and every Village Tribunal shall have power in respect of such offences to impose a fine not exceeding twenty rupees, or, in default of payment, imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two weeks.

Repeal of paragraph 10 in section 28 of
"The Village
Communities
Ordinance, 1889."

4 In section 28 of "The Village Communities Ordinance, 1889," the paragraph "(10) Offences under 'The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907,'" is hereby repealed.

Passed in Council the Twenty-first day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

C. H. COLLINS,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Fifth day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 44 of 1917.

An Ordinance further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876."

JOHN ANDERSON.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Land Acquisition (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 44 of 1917," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, appoint.

Addition of new section 10 A.

2 After section 10 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added, and shall be numbered 10 A:

10 A. (1) Where any person claims any land or any interest therein on behalf of a minor, and it appears to the Government Agent that the value of the land or the interest claimed does not exceed one thousand rupees, and all persons claiming (including the person claiming on behalf of the minor) are willing to accept the amount of the compensation offered by the Government Agent and to sign the agreement mentioned in the last preceding section, it shall be competent for the Government Agent, in lieu of referring the matter to court under the next succeeding section, to apply, by a certificate in writing to the District Court, for the appointment of the said person claiming on behalf of the minor as guardian and curator of the minor for the purpose of the acquisition.

(2) The certificate shall state—

- (a) The nature of the land to be acquired;
- (b) The name of the minor interested;
- (c) The extent and the value of the minor's interest;
- (d) The name and address of the person claiming on behalf of the minor, and his relationship to the minor;
- (e) The fact that all persons claiming, including the person claiming on behalf of the minor, are willing to accept the compensation offered by the Government Agent, and to sign the agreement referred to in section 10.

(3) Upon the receipt of such certificate the District Court may, by order communicated to the Government Agent, appoint the person claiming on behalf of the minor guardian over and curator of the property of the said minor for the purpose of the acquisition, and may authorize the guardian and curator so appointed to accept the compensation offered, and sign the said agreement on the minor's behalf.

(4) Upon the said guardian and curator signing the said agreement, the Government Agent shall pay the value of the minor's interest into the District Court for the benefit of the minor under the control of the court.

(5) Such payment shall have the same effect for the purpose of barring claims against the Government at the instance of any person whomsoever as payment of compensation under section 36.

Addition of proviso to section 11 of principal Ordinance.

Proviso.

3 The following proviso shall be added to section 11 of the principal Ordinance:

Provided that where the amount claimed as compensation by the person or persons interested, or, if no claimant has attended, the amount determined by the Government Agent under section 8, does not exceed three hundred rupees, the matter shall be referred to the Court of Requests, and the Court of Requests shall have jurisdiction to dispose of the same, and all references to a District Court or a District Judge in this Ordinance (except in section 10 A) shall be construed accordingly.

Addition of new section to principal Ordinance.

Limitation of doctrine of res adjudicata.

4 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance:

48. Where in any proceedings under this Ordinance any question of title is determined by the court under such circumstances that in any subsequent legal proceedings the determination would be deemed to be res adjudicata as between the parties, such determination shall not operate as res adjudicata, except so far as it relates to the portion of land actually acquired.

Provided that this section shall not apply to any case in which the value of the land acquired exceeds one thousand rupees.

Passed in Council the Twenty-first day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

C. H. COLLINS,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Fifth day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and Seventeen.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Merchandise Marks Ordinance, 1888."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Merchandise Marks Ordinance, 1888": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Merchandise Marks (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1917," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Substitution of new sub-section (1) for sub-section (1) of section 15 of the principal Ordinance.

2 The following sub-section shall be substituted for sub-section (1) of section 15 of the principal Ordinance:

(1) The following goods, that is to say:

(a) All goods or things to which any forged trade mark or false trade description is applied, or to which any trade mark or mark so nearly resembling a trade mark as to be calculated to deceive is falsely applied;

(b) All goods or things made or produced beyond the limits of the United Kingdom, this Colony, or any other British possession or dominion, and having applied thereto any name or trade mark being, or purporting to be, a name or trade mark of any manufacturer, dealer, or trader in the United Kingdom, this Colony, or other British possession or dominion, unless—

- (i.) The name or trade mark is as to every application thereof accompanied by a definite indication of the goods having been made or produced in a place beyond the limits of the United Kingdom, this Colony, or other British possession or dominion;
- (ii.) The country in which that place is situated is in that indication indicated in letters as large and conspicuous as any letter in the name or trade mark and in the same language and character as the name or trade mark;
- (c) All piece goods such as are ordinarily sold by the length or by the piece which have not conspicuously stamped in English numerals on each piece the length thereof in standard yards or in standard yards and a fraction of such a yard according to the real length of the piece;
- are hereby prohibited to be imported into this Colony, and, subject to the provisions of this section, shall be included among goods prohibited to be imported as if they were referred to in section 36 of the Customs Ordinance, No. 17 of 1869, and included in schedule C to that Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,
 Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
 Colombo, December 3, 1917. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to correct two defects in "The Merchandise Marks Ordinance, 1888." The defects are in that part of the Ordinance which relates to the power to prohibit the importation of goods marked with a false or deceptive trade mark, or not properly marked with an indication of their foreign origin (section 15).

2. At present it is impossible to deal with these goods as prohibited goods, because under section 15 it is only goods which are liable to forfeiture that are prohibited, and goods of the description referred to are not liable to forfeiture, except where they are sold within the Colony with guilty knowledge. This appears to be due to an error in drafting.

3. Further, by another error of drafting in section 15 (1), as the section at present stands, the position appears to be that any person may import goods into this Colony which have applied to them a name or mark which is a colourable imitation of the name or trade mark of any manufacturer, dealer, or trader in the United Kingdom or this Colony, provided only he accompanies this colourable imitation with a definite indication of the place or country in which the goods were made or produced.

4. Both these defects have been noted in India, and have been dealt with by an amendment in the corresponding Indian enactment, namely, the Indian Merchandise Marks Act, 1889.

5. It is accordingly proposed by this Ordinance to declare specifically that "all goods or things to which any forged trade mark or false trade description is applied, or to which any trade mark or mark so nearly resembling a trade mark as to be calculated to deceive is falsely applied," shall be deemed to be prohibited goods (see paragraph (a) of new sub-section (1) of section 15).

6. The provisions of section 15, which require goods of foreign origin marked with the trade name or trade mark of a British manufacturer, dealer, or trader to be accompanied by a definite indication of their foreign origin in letters as large as any letter in the name or trade mark as the section at present stands, only apply to the trade name or trade mark of manufacturers, dealers, or traders in the United Kingdom or Ceylon. They do not apply to the trade name or trade mark of manufacturers, dealers, or traders in India, Australia, or any other British Possession. As there appears no reason for this distinction, all British Possessions are by an amendment of the Ordinance put on the same footing as the United Kingdom and this Colony. (See paragraph (b) of new sub-section (1) of section 15.)
