PASSED ORDINANCE.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 8 of 1918.

An Ordinance to declare the Rights of Mortgagees in certain Cases.

R. E. STUBBS.

preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to declare the rights of mortgagees under mortgages to secure future, contingent, or floating liabilities: Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Mortgage Ordinance, No. 8 of 1918."

Effect of mortgages to secure future, &c., liability as against subsequent registered mortgages, &c.

2 (1) In the following cases, that is to say:

- (a) Where a mortgage of immovable property is given to secure future advances (whether with or without any previous advances or other liability);
- (b) Where such a mortgage is given to secure the floating balance from time to time due upon any account;
- (c) Where such a mortgage is given to secure a contingent liability arising out of a particular relationship (not being a liability of the nature of those referred to in either of the last two preceding paragraphs);

such mortgage shall be effective to the full extent of the charge intended to be created thereby as against any person claiming under any subsequent mortgage or transfer, notwithstanding that no money may have been actually due at the date of such subsequent mortgage or transfer in respect of the liability intended to be secured, and irrespective of the actual amount so due on such date.

(2) For the purposes of this section the expression "transfer" includes any instrument creating any interest in immovable property.

(3) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect the mutual rights of the parties in the case of K. P. S. T. Sithambaram Chetty, of Sea street, Colombo, v. Bentotage David Fernando and Bentotage Bastian Fernando, both of Wellawatta, D. C. Colombo, case No. 46,630, or in any other case in which the decision of the Supreme Court in the said case shall have been followed prior to the commencement of this Ordinance, but this Ordinance shall apply to all mortgages or transfers whether executed before or after the commencement of this Ordinance.

Priorities of law of registration unaffected.

3 Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall be deemed to affect the priorities attaching to instruments as the result of registration under the law for the time being regulating the registration of instruments affecting immovable property.

Passed in Council the Tenth day of April, One thousand Nine hundred and Eighteen.

C. H. COLLINS,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government the Twenty-fourth day of April, One thousand Nine hundred and Eighteen.

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.
