The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to make provision for giving effect in Ceylon to a Convention signed the Fifth day of March, One thousand Nine hundred and Two, in relation to Sugar.

Preamble.

WHEREAS His Majesty the King and divers foreign powers have entered into a Convention signed the Fifth day of March, One thousand Nine hundred and Two, in relation to sugar; and it is expedient to give effect to that Convention:

And whereas provision is made under article VII. of the Convention for the establishment of a permanent Commission with a permanent bureau attached to it charged with watching the execution of the provisions of the Convention (in this Ordinance referred to as the Permanent Commission):

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Sugar Convention Ordinance, 1903."

Powers with respect to bounty fed sugar.

2 (1) Where it is reported by the Permanent Commission that any direct or indirect bounty is granted in any foreign country on the production or export of sugars, the Governor in Executive Council may, by Proclamation, prohibit sugar from that foreign country to be imported or brought into Ceylon, subject to any provision which may be made by any Ordinance or by resolution of the Legislative Council to impose, in lieu of such prohibition, a special duty on such sugar in accordance with the Convention.

(2) While any such Proclamation is in force the Ordinances relating to Customs shall apply as if the sugar so prohibited from being imported or brought into Ceylon were specified in the table of prohibitions and restrictions inwards contained in schedule C of "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1903."

(3) The Governor in Executive Council may, by Proclamation, make such regulations as appear to him necessary in relation to any Proclamation under this section, and may by those regulations in particular require the origin of all sugar imported or brought into Ceylon, whether in transit or otherwise, to be proved by such certificate or other evidence as may be provided in such regulations.

(4) A Proclamation made under this section shall not apply to molasses nor, except as expressly mentioned in this section, to sugar in transit.

Regulation as to certificate of origin of exported sugars.

3 (1) The Governor in Executive Council may also by Proclamation make such regulations as appear to him necessary for the issue of certificates proving the origin of sugars exported from Ceylon.

(2) Regulations made under this section shall apply to sugars which have been previously imported into the Island and are exported either in the form in which they were imported or after refinement or other like process as well as to sugars manufactured from produce grown in the Island.

Regulation of sugar factories.

4 The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may by Proclamation declare that every sugar factory and sugar refinery and factory for the extraction of sugar from molasses or other substances in Ceylon shall be subject to the supervision of the government agent of the province within which such factory or refinery is situated, and such government agent may, subject to the approval of the Governor in Executive Council, make regulations—

- (a) For prohibiting the carrying on of any such factory or refinery, otherwise than by persons authorized, in premises approved by the government agent and if required entered for the purpose; and for giving officers appointed by the government agent powers of entry into any part of the premises at any time; and
- (b) For regulating the removal of any sugar to or from the premises, the storage of finished sugar, and the return of sugar for the purpose of further refinement; and
- (c) For making such entries in relation to the various processes in the manufacture of sugar as may be required by the government agent, and for enabling the officers of the government agent to inspect those entries;
- (d) For attaching penalties not exceeding Rs. 500 to any breach of or failure to comply with any regulation made under this section, and providing for the recovery and application of the penalty and for the forfeiture of any article in respect of which any offence against the regulations is committed.

5 (1) The Governor in Council may, by Proclamation, revoke, alter, or add to any Proclamation made under this Ordinance.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance shall apply to glucose.

By His Excellency's command,

EVERARD IM THURN,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 14, 1903.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to prevent the removal of Sand, Stone, and other Substances from the Seashore in certain cases.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary to make better provision for the prevention of damage caused by removing stone, sand, coral, and other substances from the seashore: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Seashore Ordinance, 1903."

Repeal.

2 Ordinance No. 20 of 1865, intituled "An Ordinance to provide against the removal of Stones and other Substances from certain parts of the Seashore," is hereby repealed.

Power of government agent to prevent removal of stones, &c., from seashore.

3 It shall be lawful for the government agent of any province to prohibit the removal of sand, stone, coral, or other substances from any part of the seashore within his province adjoining or near any public road, thoroughfare, public work, public building, or adjoining or near any part of the Ceylon Government Railway, if such removal should, in his judgment, be calculated to injure such road, thoroughfare, public work, public building, or railway, and he shall cause notice of such prohibition to be given by such means as shall seem to him likely to give the greatest publicity thereto.

Penalty.

4 (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor in Executive Council by Proclamation to prohibit the removal of all or any of the substances named in the last preceding section from any place on the seashore of the island or in the sea adjoining thereto whenever it appears that the removal of such substance is calculated to expose any houses, lands, trees, or other immovable property to damage by the sea.

(2) Every Proclamation under this section shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall specify the limits within which the prohibition therein contained shall take effect.

Power of Governor to prohibit removal of such substances.

5 Any person who in contravention of any notice given by a government agent under section 3 or of a Proclamation under the last preceding section removes or assists in the removal of any sand, stone, coral, or other substance, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and the sand, stone, or coral, or other substance in respect of which he was convicted may be confiscated.
