DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Petroleum Ordinances, 1887 and 1893."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary to amend "The Petroleum Ordinances, 1887 and 1893" (hereinafter referred to as the "principal Ordinances"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Petroleum (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1918," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Addition of new section to section 19 of the principal Ordinances.

2 The following section shall be added immediately after section 19 of the principal Ordinances, and shall be numbered 19 (1) :

19. (1) The Governor in Executive Council may from time to time make rules regarding the licensing of carts for the conveyance of petroleum. Such rules may provide for the following, among other matters :

- (a) The fee to be charged for the license ;
- (b) The maximum quantity of petroleum which may be carried in a licensed cart ;
- (c) The conditions which may be inserted in the license ;
- (d) The time during which the license is to continue in force ; and
- (e) The renewal of the license.

Section to validate previous acts under the principal Ordinances.

8 Upon the coming into operation of this Ordinance, it shall be deemed to have come into operation as on the date of the principal Ordinances to the intent that any rules heretofore made or purported to have been made under the provisions of the principal Ordinances shall be valid and operative, as if they had been made under the provisions of the principal Ordinances as amended by this Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, A. S. PAGDEN,
Colombo, July 5, 1918. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTION 19 of the principal Ordinances authorizes any person who is licensed to keep petroleum to hawk such petroleum, provided that the quantity conveyed at one time in any one carriage does not exceed twenty-four gallons, except when conveyed in a cart specially constructed for that purpose, which has been licensed by the local authority for the conveyance of petroleum. It is desirable that the Governor in Executive Council should have power to regulate these licenses. Section 2 of this Ordinance is intended to accomplish this.

2. Section 3 is intended to validate the charge of a fee of Rs. 25 which has been hitherto levied for the licensing of such carts, and also to validate a rule made in 1900 dealing with such licenses.

Attorney-General's Chambers, G. S. SCHNEIDER,
Colombo, June 21, 1918. Acting Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Appeals (Privy Council) Ordinance, 1909."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Appeals (Privy Council) Ordinance, 1909" (hereinafter referred to as the "principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Appeals (Privy Council) (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1918," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Addition of sub-section to section 8 of the principal Ordinance.

2 The following sub-section shall be added to section 8 of the principal Ordinance, the first part thereof being numbered accordingly:

(2) The provisions of rules 21 and 25, as amended by the Order of His Majesty the King in Council dated at the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of March, 1918, shall apply retrospectively to all appellants who have given notice of their intention to apply for conditional leave to appeal up to the date on which the Order aforesaid shall take effect in the Colony.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, A. S. PAGDEN,
Colombo, July 8, 1918. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

By Order of His Majesty in Council dated March 22, 1918, which was published in the Government Gazette No. 6,950 of June 21, 1918, Rules 21 and 25, inter alia, of the Rules in Schedule I. of the principal Ordinance were amended with the view of expediting the disposal of appeals to the Privy Council. The object of this amendment, which is brought forward at the suggestion of the Chief Justice, is to give retrospective effect to the provisions in Rules 21 and 25 with a view to preventing delay regarding any pending appeals.

Attorney-General's Chambers, G. S. SCHNEIDER,
Colombo, June 26, 1918. Acting Attorney-General.
