DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Defence Force Ordinance, 1910" (formerly entitled "The Volunteer Ordinance, 1910").

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Defence Force Ordinance, 1910": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Defence Force (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1918," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall by Proclamation appoint.

Addition of new sub-section to section 12 of the principal Ordinance.

2 The following sub-section shall be added to section 12 of the principal Ordinance, the first part of the section being numbered accordingly:

(2) For the purpose of the discipline and training of all officers and soldiers of the Defence Force, whether persons to whom Part IV. of the Ordinance applies or not, the power to make regulations under this section shall include power to make regulations for all the purposes referred to in paragraph (b) of section 40, in the same manner as if such officers or soldiers were in all cases persons to whom the said part applies.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 17, 1918.

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to enable the same disciplinary and training regulations to be made applicable, where necessary, to the whole of the Defence Force.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, July 13, 1918.

G. S. SCHNEIDER,
Acting Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1918."

Amendment of section 352.

2 The following proviso shall be added at the end and in continuation of section 352 of the principal Ordinance :

Provided that in no case shall such an order be made against the Attorney-General or the Solicitor-General.

Amendment of tabular statement of offences in Schedule II.

3 The tabular statement of offences in Schedule II. of the principal Ordinance shall be amended as follows :

In the statement relating to section 382 of the Ceylon Penal Code the words "Police Court, where the value of the property in respect of which the offence is committed does not exceed one hundred rupees, and where the hurt caused is simple hurt, which hurt would be otherwise triable under section 314," shall be inserted in the eighth column, immediately after the words "District Court."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 15, 1918.

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the amendment in section 2 of the Ordinance is to protect the Attorney-General and the Solicitor-General from being cast in costs by the Supreme Court when dealing with an appeal in a criminal case. These Law Officers of the Crown become parties to an appeal only when an apparent failure of justice is reported to them or is otherwise brought to their notice, and if they are of opinion that there has been a failure of justice. Their duties are quasi-judicial. It is desirable that they should be protected against any risk of an order casting them in costs.

2. The object of the amendment in section 3 of the Ordinance is to empower Police Courts to try summarily cases of robbery under section 382 of the Penal Code where the hurt caused is simple and otherwise triable summarily in such courts. Police Courts have jurisdiction at present to try summarily cases of robbery under section 380 of the Penal Code, provided the value of the property does not exceed Rs. 100, that is, where the value is within their ordinary jurisdiction. There seems no valid reason why Police Courts should not similarly try cases of robbery where the ingredient which constitutes the act the offence of robbery is one of simple hurt, which in other circumstances Police Courts can try summarily.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, July 3, 1918.

G. S. SCHNEIDER,
Acting Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Land Registration Ordinance, 1891."

- Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Land Registration Ordinance, 1891": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:
- Short title and commencement. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Land Registration (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1918," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.
- Amendment of new section 27 A. 2 In sub-section (1) of new section 27 A, added to the principal Ordinance by section 3 of "The Land Registration (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 29 of 1917," the words "or until" shall be omitted.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, A. S. PAGDEN,
Colombo, July 23, 1918. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to give effect to a point to which attention has been drawn by the Secretary of State.

2. New section 27 A of the Land Registration Ordinance, added by the amending Ordinance of last year, is based upon an English model. The English model reads: "No lis pendens, &c., shall bind a purchaser, &c., unless and until the same shall be registered." By a misprint the phrase "unless and until" has in our own Ordinance been converted into "unless or until." It is pointed out that the result of substituting the word "or" for "and" is that when a lis pendens is registered after the purchase, &c., the purchaser, &c., will then become bound by it. But the use of the word "until" seems in any case out of place, as whether used with "or" or with "and" it seems to imply that the lis pendens may in some way bind the purchaser if registered after purchase. Under the circumstances, it is proposed to omit the words "or until" altogether.

Colombo, March 8, 1918.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.

PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 9 of 1918.

An Ordinance to amend "The Colombo Municipal Council Waterworks Ordinance, 1907."

R. E. STUBBS.

- Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Colombo Municipal Council Waterworks Ordinance, 1907": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:
- Short title and commencement. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Colombo Municipal Council Waterworks (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 9 of 1918," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, appoint.

Addition of new section 11 A to the principal Ordinance.

2 The following section shall be added immediately after section 11 of the principal Ordinance, and shall be numbered 11 A :

11 A. (1) Where it appears to the Chairman that any tenement-house or range of tenements capable of being occupied by thirty or more persons within the Municipal limits is without a proper service of water, and that the necessary arrangements for such a service (in so far as these are not required to be made by the Council) can be made at a reasonable cost, the Chairman may give notice in writing to the owner of such tenement-house or range of tenements requiring him within a time therein specified to obtain such proper private service, and to execute all such works as may be incumbent upon him for the purpose.

(2) If such notice is not complied with within the time specified, the Chairman may cause the work to be executed and costs thereof recovered in the manner prescribed by section 11.
