DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Forest Ordinance, 1907."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Forest Ordinance, 1907": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Forest (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1918," and shall come into operation on the passing hereof.

Addition of new section to principal Ordinance.

2 The following new section shall be inserted immediately after section 55 of the principal Ordinance:

Power to shoot cattle on forest plantation.

55 A. If it shall be shown to the satisfaction of any Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent that cattle are in the habit of trespassing on any forest plantation situated wholly or in part within his province or district and cannot be seized, it shall be lawful for him to authorize, by license in writing under his hand, some fit person or persons to proceed to such plantation, and if after reasonable exertion such person shall find it impracticable to seize such animals, to shoot or otherwise destroy the same, or cause the same to be shot or otherwise destroyed in his presence, and this notwithstanding that in the endeavour to seize such animals they may have been driven off such plantation. Provided that such license shall not be subject to any stamp duty, and shall not be in force for more than one month from the date thereof.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, A. S. PAGDEN,
Colombo, September 6, 1918. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to empower the issue of licenses for the shooting of cattle which trespass on valuable forest plantations and do considerable damage, and which it is impracticable to seize, being in a wild or semi-wild state in certain localities.
