Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, October 8, 1918. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to amend the principal Ordinance on three points.

2. First, it seeks to modify the limitation imposed in sub-section (2) of section 11 of the principal Ordinance, so as to place outside that limitation the cases of certain notaries whether appointed under section 6 of the principal Ordinance, or the corresponding provision in the Ordinance No. 2 of 1877. The areas contemplated in section 6 of the principal Ordinance are either situated in unhealthy parts of the Island, or such as yield but a poor income to a notary practising in them. It is felt desirable that a notary who has practised his profession in such areas for not less than the period named in this Ordinance might be given an opportunity of working under less unfavourable circumstances.

3. It is the common practice for notaries and clients to agree upon the fee irrespective of the scale under section 3 of the principal Ordinance. But this practice is not quite in accordance with the provisions of section 34. The amendment seeks to legalize this practice.

4. It having been brought to the notice of Government that the fees in Schedule III. are inadequate, a Committee was appointed which considered the subject. The new schedule contains the fees recommended by that Committee.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Amended Kandyan Marriage Ordinance, 1870."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Amended Kandyan Marriage Ordinance, 1870": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Amended Kandyan Marriage (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1918," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Repeal.

2 In section 23 of the principal Ordinance the last paragraph, beginning "If the parties to such dissolution" and ending "may be enforced as such," is hereby repealed, except so far as respects rights which shall have accrued, acts which shall have been done or shall have been declared valid, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance comes into operation.

Addition to section 20.

3 The following paragraph shall be added at the end of section 20 of the principal Ordinance :

For each such copy a fee of fifty cents shall be paid by each of the parties.

Additions to sections 23 of principal Ordinance.

4 The following sub-sections shall be added to section 23 of the principal Ordinance, the first part thereof being numbered accordingly :

(2) In making an order for the dissolution of a marriage under sub-section (1) hereof, the Provincial or Assistant Provincial Registrar—

(a) Shall, if the parties to such dissolution shall have agreed upon any compensation to be made to either or both owing to such dissolution, enter the terms of such agreement in the Register of Dissolutions if the parties request him to make such entry.

(b) May, if he think fit, order, by an entry to that effect in the Register of Dissolutions, that the husband shall pay a certain sum of money periodically, or make other provision for the maintenance—

(i.) Of his wife, provided there is no entry under paragraph (a) hereof for compensation to be made to her;

(ii.) Of his children.

(3) An entry or order made under paragraphs (a) and (b) of the immediately preceding sub-section shall have all the effect of an order or decree of a competent court in so far as it may be enforced, cancelled, or varied by such court to all intents and purposes, as if the entry or order were an order or decree of such court, but subject to the limitations hereinafter mentioned.

(4) For the purposes of the immediately preceding sub-section "competent court" shall mean—

(a) A Police Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction under "The Maintenance Ordinance, 1889," in respect of an order made under section 3 thereof, where such entry or order directs the payment periodically of a sum of money in so far as such entry or order directs such payment; provided that an entry or order in favour of the woman divorced shall be cancelled only upon proof that she has been cohabiting with any man since the date of such order.

(b) A District Court or Court of Requests having jurisdiction in an action between the parties founded upon an agreement where such entry or order or part thereof is not of the nature mentioned in paragraph (a) hereof in so far as such entry or order or part thereof is not of such nature.

5 For form F in the schedule to the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following:

Form F (Section 23).

Form of Dissolution of Marriage.

I hereby order that the marriage between A. and B. (describe registry, if any, or how marriage contracted) be dissolved on the following ground; to wit (here insert ground).

I certify that, according to the representation of the parties, they have had during their marriage — children, as follows: (name and age).

I further certify—

(1) That the parties have agreed upon the following compensation (describe the terms of the agreement).

(2) That I have made order to the following effect (here describe the terms of the order under sub-section (2) (b)).

This order is registered in Registry of Dissolution (give number, page, and district).

This — day of —, 19—.

A. B.,
Provincial Registrar.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 14, 1918.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The object of the amendment in section 3 is to enable Registrars to earn a fee for copies supplied to each of the parties to a marriage. At present these Registrars are paid a very small fee by Government for registering marriages under the Ordinance.

2. The object of the amendment in section 4 is to empower Provincial or Assistant Provincial Registrars, when dissolving a marriage between Kandyans, to make order in suitable cases for the maintenance of the children and for alimony for the wife by entering such order in the Register of Dissolutions. The amendment also provides that such orders may be enforced or cancelled or varied by courts of competent jurisdiction in the same manner as if the orders had been made originally by such courts. Under the Civil Procedure Code a District Court has jurisdiction to make orders for provision for the wife and children of a marriage which it declares dissolved. There seems no reason why Registrars who dissolve marriages between Kandyans should not have similar powers.

3. The suggestion for this amendment, which came from the Registrar-General, was put to the Kandyan Chiefs, and the balance of opinion was in favour of the amendment. It was felt that the facilities for divorce afforded by the Kandyan law are sometimes abused by persons seeking to relieve themselves of the obligation to support their wives and children.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Bill is to give effect to certain suggestions made by a Commission appointed to inquire into and report on the law relating to the registration of deaths.

2. Section 2 provides that any medical practitioner found guilty of an offence against sub-sections (3), (4), or (5) of section 48 of the principal Ordinance shall, as an inevitable consequence, have his name erased from the medical register, and that any medical registrar found guilty of dishonestly aiding or abetting the registration of a false cause of death shall have his name erased from the medical register. This section also provides that a medical practitioner during his employment as a medical registrar shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 19 of the Ceylon Penal Code.

3. By section 3 Form I in Schedule II. to the principal Ordinance has been amended, so that a certificate as to the cause of death required by section 28 shall contain the period during which the patient was under treatment, and the name of the disease or disorder which was the probable cause of death. A medical practitioner is sometimes unable to certify as required by the existing form that he attended on the patient during his last illness and till the patient's death.
